Languages of Instruction for African Emancipation Birgit Brock-Utne,Rodney Kofi Hopson,2005 Languages of Instruction for African Emancipation is a collection of case studies from seven African countries poses questions such as What alternatives are there for educational language policies towards African emancipation What efforts have governments made to change the language policy in favour of African languages and how far have they succeeded What challenges do African learners face when it comes to current language of instruction policies The authors reject a language education policy that neglects the multilingualism existing in Africa that reinforces patterns of privilege that existed in the colonial era further entrenching the schism between the elite and the masses They give short shrift to the new justification of the unjustifiable status accorded to English in Africa as the language of globalisation suggesting that it is not relevant to the vast majority of African lives and their human development The sum of thoughts presented suggests that the answer to the language question provides the key to development challenges and further emancipation of the African peoples which it is argued is at the same time a question that will determine whether Africa will remain a recognisable and distinctive cultural component of humanity or whether Africans will cease to exist culturally as Africans

Severo Sarduy and the Neo-baroque Image of Thought in the Visual Arts Rolando Perez,2012 Severo Sarduy never enjoyed the same level of notoriety as did other Latin American writers On the other hand he never lacked for excellent critical interpretations of his work from critics like Roberto Gonz lez Echevarra a Ren c Prieto Gustavo Guerrero and other reputable scholars Missing however from what is otherwise an impressive body of critical commentary is a study of the importance of painting and architecture first to his theory and second to his creative work In order to fill this lacuna in Sarduy studies Rolando P c rez s book undertakes a critical approach to Sarduy's essays Barroco Escrito sobre un cuerpo Barroco y neobarroco and La simulación from the standpoint of art history. In short, no book on Sarduy until now has traced the multifaceted art historical background that informed the work of this challenging and exciting writer. It will be a book that many a critic of Sarduy and the Latin American baroque will consult in years to come.

A Date with Death Louis Sia, 2002 A Date With Death is a novel dealing with two former lovers whose relationships were embroiled in both lust and hate encounters after a one-night stand. Toto, a former drug trafficker, turned over a new leaf and became a reborn Christian, contributing to the building of a new Church and setting up a legitimate tin manufacturing company. Molly Tam, an arms dealer with a dark secret past, had connections with the United States Senators, Congressmen, and battleship commanders, contravened with shipments of military hardware from the States to the Tamil Tigers in Jaffna. Molly capitalized on the only asset she knew to procure favours from the top brass in the States and enlisted the Tamil Tigers to help her evil cause. Their interests conflicted and churned into hatred, resulting in a war when a subordinate of Toto was caught trafficking in heroin, a trap deliberately weaved by his ex-lover. A continuous chain of revenge from both camps leads to numerous deaths. The adventures take the players to far-flung places in South Africa and Texas to those closer to home including Thailand, Vietnam, and the Philippines. One of Molly Tam's captives, a fortune teller who raped her, was satanically eliminated by Land Eating Piranhas, fondly termed The Black Widows, originating from the thick vegetations of Jaffna.

Juilliard Review, 1966

Drifting Veils Melissa Hall, 2025-02-07 In the rain-drenched shadows of Neo Metropolis, a city cloaked in half-truths and flickering neon lights, seasoned investigative reporter Marcellus Arkin finds himself wading through the murky depths of betrayal, seeking redemption amidst a labyrinth of corruption. His journey becomes intertwined with the enigmatic Eveline Roth, an art prodigy whose revolutionary spirit and unseen burdens catalyze a covert rebellion. As Marcellus pieces together encrypted livestreams and clandestine meetings in the city's derelict industrial zones, he uncovers a hidden stratagem that challenges the dominion of an elite cabal. The metropolis itself is an active player, a chaotic network where art intertwines with technology, sculpting an unyielding dance of power and subjugation. Eveline's art becomes a beacon in this dystopian twilight, her creations a call to arms in the decaying urban galleries of forgotten speakeasies and abandoned factories. Their union, fraught with tension and underscored by mutual vulnerability, ignites a tempestuous alliance against forces bent on maintaining control. Rival factions brew beneath the city's gleaming, deceptive surface, each faction a player in this web of manipulation and resistance. The looming threat of betrayal, both externally from unseen adversaries and internally from festering doubts, hangs heavy over the alliance. Throughout this tumultuous odyssey, Marcellus is torn between his cynicism and the emerging promise of connection Eveline contends with her traumatic past her revolutionary zeal tempered by the haunting memories of family loss The narrative threads of their personal quests for redemption resonate through encrypted messages and murmured confessions painting a vivid portrait of vulnerability beneath hardened exteriors Their rebellion crescendos during the Neo Lumination Festival an extraordinary convergence of art and resistance culminating in an explosive confrontation against the oppressive elite In a final revelatory act the city witnesses the unraveling of long guarded secrets and the emergence of a new dawn As the tempest subsides the characters Marcellus Eveline and even those within the dismantled elite stand on the precipice of a transformed world their paths forever altered by their shared struggles and triumphs In Drifting Veils Melissa Hall crafts a tale of perilous allure and indomitable spirit exploring the intricate balance between artistry and rebellion and challenging readers to find light and truth amid the urban abyss
