Primomo,2013-07-08 Joshua L Chamberlain of Maine and John B Gordon of Georgia led the Union and Confederate armies respectively at the formal surrender ceremony at Appomattox Courthouse Virginia on April 12 1865 In one of the most dramatic and memorable moments of the Civil War as the Confederate soldiers marched through the Union lines to stack their weapons and flags Chamberlain moved by the historic moment and desiring to pay honor to a valiant defeated foe ordered his Union soldiers to salute Gordon s Confederates Gordon surprised but stirred by the same emotion immediately responded and ordered his men to return the salute Both men had volunteered for military service feeling a strong need to fight for their respective causes They entered military service as low level officers with no formal military training

Repeatedly they exhibited exceptional aptitude and responsibility rising through the ranks as they received the glowing accolades of their superiors Yet they remained humble continually demonstrating extraordinary courage which earned them the respect of their men Ultimately their heroism and leadership culminated in their meeting as the commanders at the Appomattox Courthouse surrender After the war Chamberlain and Gordon entered politics in their respective states

Rhetoric, Remembrance, and Visual Form Anne Teresa Demo,Bradford Vivian,2012-03-12 This volume offers a multifaceted investigation of intersections among visual and memorial forms in modern art politics and society The question of the relationships among images and memory is particularly relevant to contemporary society at a time when visually based technologies are increasingly employed in both grand and modest efforts to preserve the past amid rapid social change The chapters in Rhetoric Remembrance and Visual Form provide valuable insights concerning not only how memories may be seen or sighted in visual form but also how visual forms constitute noteworthy material sites of memory The collection addresses this central theme with a wealth of interdisciplinary and international approaches featuring conventional scholarly as well as artistic works from such disciplines as rhetoric and communication art and art history architecture landscape studies and more by contributors from around the globe

Philemon's Problem James Tunstead Burtchaell, 1998 Philemon was a wealthy Christian whose slave Onesimus went off in search of freedom met and listened to Paul and joined the church But instead of being given a new life of his own Onesimus was sent back by Paul to an aggrieved master with no protection but his mentor's brief Letter to Philemon Paul never asked Philemon to free his slave Instead he admonished him to take Onesimus back only now as his brother in Christ This left both master and bondsman with a problem how could one man own another and both be brothers in Christ In this unique work James Tunstead Burtchaell uses the ancient story of Philemon and Onesimus as a compelling entry into modern theological reflection on the unbelievable reach of the grace and forgiveness of the Father whose Son died without disciples rose to reconcile and transform them and then scattered them around the world as men and women who were now also able to love those who loved them not and transform them too According to Burtchaell in order for the faith of Philemon and Onesimus to cope with Paul's imperative they required an inspired imagination to take in the notion that the Father loves sinners i e all of us and he neither would nor could do otherwise For Philemon and Onesimus to undertake such a relentless love themselves would require frighteningly new convictions new commitments and new celebrations
