Robert Charles Wilson :

The Divide Robert Charles Wilson, 2013-03-29 He was designed to be the perfect man And at first the experiment seemed a success John Shaw the product of secret government research into enhanced intelligence was from birth far beyond anything human Brilliant and charismatic John could have been anything he wanted except that which he longed for more than anything To be normal So John created Benjamin an alternative persona a way of coping with people who hated what they could not understand He was everything that John wasn't but now those very differences are killing him Benjamin has become the dominant personality more and more often in control John's altered body has left his mind at risk and unless he can discover the truth that will fuse both parts together both he and Benjamin will die Robert Charles Wilson spins one of his most stirring tightly woven tales with The Divide Reminiscent of Flowers for Algernon it is at once an adventure story and a sensitive look at the consequences of man's actions and of one man's quite literal search for himself

Spin Robert Charles Wilson, 2011-09-29 One night in October when he was ten years old Tyler Dupree stood in his back yard and watched the stars go out They all flared into brilliance at once then disappeared replaced by a flat empty black barrier He and his best friends Jason and Diane Lawton had seen what became known as the Big Blackout It would shape their lives The effect is worldwide The sun is now a featureless disk a heat source rather than an astronomical object The moon is gone but tides remain Not only have the world's artificial satellites fallen out of orbit their recovered remains are pitted and aged as though they'd been in space far longer than their known lifespans As Tyler Jason and Diane grow up space probe reveals a bizarre truth The barrier is artificial generated by huge alien artifacts Time is passing faster outside the barrier than inside more than a hundred million years per day on Earth At this rate the death throes of the sun are only about forty years in our future Jason now a promising young scientist devotes his life to working against this slow moving apocalypse Diane throws herself into hedonism marrying a sinister cult leader who's forged a new religion out of the fears of the masses Earth sends terraforming machines to Mars to let the onrush of time do its work turning the planet green Next they send humans and immediately get back an emissary with thousands of years of stories to tell about the settling of Mars Then Earth's probes reveal that an identical barrier has appeared around Mars Jason desperate seeds near space with self replicating machines that will scatter copies of themselves outward from the sun and report back on what they find Life on Earth is about to get much much stranger

Blind Lake Robert Charles Wilson,2013-08-29 Robert Charles Wilson says The New York Times writes superior science fiction thrillers His Darwinia won Canada s Aurora Award his most recent novel The Chronoliths won the prestigious John W Campbell Memorial Award Now he tells a gripping tale of alien contact and human love in a mysterious but hopeful universe At Blind Lake a large federal research installation in northern Minnesota scientists are using a technology they barely understand to watch everyday life in a city of lobster like aliens upon a distant planet They can t contact the aliens in any way or understand their language All they can do is watch Then without warning a military cordon is imposed on the Blind Lake site All communication with the outside world is cut off Food and other vital supplies are delivered by remote control No one knows why The scientists nevertheless go on with their research Among them are Nerissa Iverson and the man she recently divorced Raymond Scutter They continue to work together despite the difficult conditions and the bitterness between them Ray believes their efforts are doomed that culture is arbitrary and the aliens will forever be an enigma Nerissa believes there is a commonality of sentient thought and that our failure to understand is our own ignorance not a fact of nature The behavior of the alien she has been tracking seems to be developing an elusive narrative logic and she comes to feel that the alien is somehow impossibly aware of the project s observers But her time is running out Ray is turning hostile stalking her The military cordon is tightening Understanding had better come soon Blind Lake is a 2004 Hugo Award Nominee for Best Novel

Darwinia Robert Charles Wilson,2010-11-25 In 1912 the world changes overnight Europe and all its inhabitants disappear replaced by a primeval continent which becomes known as Darwinia a strange land in which evolution has followed a different path To some this event is an act of divine retribution to others it is an opportunity to carve out a new empire Leaving a USA now ruled by religious fundamentalists young photographer Guilford Law joins an expedition to Darwinia a mission of discovery which uncovers extraordinary revelations about the whole nature of the universe

Last Year Robert Charles Wilson,2016-12-06 The Hugo Award winning author of Spin praised as a hell of a storyteller by Stephen King gives time travel his own mind bending twist Two events made September 1st a memorable day for Jesse Cullum First he lost a pair of Oakley sunglasses Second he saved the life of President Ulysses S Grant In the near future of Robert Charles Wilson s Last Year the technology exists to open doorways into the past but not our past not exactly Each past is effectively an alternate world identical to ours but only up to the date on which we access it And a given past can only be reached once After a passageway is open it s the only road to that particular past once closed it can t be reopened A passageway has been opened to a version of late 19th century Ohio It s been in operation for most of a decade but it's no secret on either side of time. A small city has grown up around it to entertain visitors from our time and many locals earn a good living catering to them. But like all such operations it has a shelf life as the natives become more sophisticated their version of the past grows less attractive as a destination. Jesse Cullum is a native. And he knows the passageway will be closing soon. He's fallen in love with a woman from our time and he means to follow her back no matter whose secrets he has to expose in order to do it. Wilson's prose is beautifully constructed in this intelligent and gripping novel. Chicago Review of Books Memory Wire Robert Charles Wilson, 2011-09-29 To escape his past Keller has become an Eye an all seeing unfeeling human video recorder. But his detachment fails when he meets Teresa and he becomes involved in murder smuggling and worse.

Masculinity in Contemporary Science Fiction by Men Sara Martín, 2025-05-30 Masculinity in Contemporary Science Fiction by Men No Plans for the Future is the first comprehensive study of the self representation of men in SF novels published in the twenty first century by male authors. Exploring a broad selection of writers and works the fourteen chapters present a panoramic overview of men's contributions to current SF and explore their slow but noticeable progress in the representation of gender. The impact of feminism and gender studies and the demands of readers have profoundly transformed men's SF which now presents far more caring and vulnerable male characters. The old stereotypes are being replaced by a collective reflection on how men and masculinity are changing though the lack of a common agenda results in novels that while exciting and often challenging sometimes miss the chance to imagine a better anti patriarchal pro feminist future for men and for all human beings. The authors analysed include Robert Charles Wilson Geoff Ryman Samuel R Delany Richard K Morgan John Scalzi Iain M Banks Ernest Cline James S A Corey Colson Whitehead Andy Weir Daniel H Wilson Ian McDonald Yoon Ha Lee Tade Thompson Neal Stephenson and Kim Stanley Robinson.

As he watches his friends his colleagues even his beloved daughter transform into something more and less than human Matt suddenly finds everything he once believed about good and evil life and death god and mortal called into question. And he finds himself forced to choose sides in an apocalyptic struggle a struggle that very soon will change the face of the universe itself.

A Hidden Place Robert Charles Wilson, 2011-09-29 In the hard years of the Depression young Travis lives with his uncle and aunt. Upstairs lives the mysterious Anna. Anna says she's going to be changing and she needs Travis's help for purposes she won't explain.
