Signal, 2012 Corporate Yellow Book, 2007 The Better Mousetrap Simon Pont, 2012-11-03 Advertising can be great Great advertising that is Brands live or die on the power of their advertising and the advertiser's role is to build better mousetraps But why do we love certain brands and passionately or indifferently reject the rest What do our brands say about us And why do we feel so compelled to use digital brands to say even more Advertising has always been the hard sell and subtle hustle that piques our interest and gets us thinking I WANT that but in a world that now moves with binary speed the Brand Game is taking ever new and remarkable turns in its pursuit of better and faster mice A provocative and insightful look at the chase The Better Mousetrap lifts the lid on the brand and advertising strategies of leading companies who in a world redefined by digital media are setting the best traps for these ever quicker mice Creating a Blockbuster Brand Greg Logan, 2025-06-24 Learn the secrets of successful movie storytelling for your business For years experts have emphasized the need for brands to become better storytellers yet practical guidance has been scarce until now Using the successful storytelling formulas that movies use to hook audiences this innovative workbook helps any business create emotionally powerful stories that can produce blockbuster results Often businesses fail to connect with their customers because they rely too heavily on rationality and corporate clichés This roadmap guides business leaders away from telling the story they want to tell and towards the story their audience wants to hear Create a new Enemy Superpower Quest Controlling Idea Synopsis Backstory Logline and much more Start capturing the attention of your audience and their wallets Ideal for any business or individual aiming to attract attention investors and customers Creating a Blockbuster Brand reveals the essentials of winning hearts and minds Discover how to engage your audience effectively with the transformative power of storytelling

Sexualised Masculinity John Mercer, Clarissa Smith, 2025-02-10 Sexualised Masculinity Men's Bodies in 21st Century Media Culture explores evolving portrayals of masculinity in contemporary media focusing on the increasing eroticisation of the male body. This book examines how traditional and digital media from films and television to social media platforms and fashion have transformed the ways masculinity is represented and perceived. Through a wide array of case studies it highlights how male bodies are now sites of erotic value challenging long standing norms and expectations. By exploring both global and local media John Mercer and Clarissa Smith provide insights into the shifting landscape of gender and sexuality offering a critical perspective on how masculinity is consumed, performed and commodified in today's world. This book is essential for students and scholars in fields such as gender studies, media studies, cultural studies and social history and is particularly relevant for those interested in understanding the intersections of masculinity, media and sexuality in the 21st century.

The Handbook of International Direct Marketing, 1999 Although direct mail is the fastest growing marketing medium in the world it is still largely organized on a national basis and remains confined by borders. To support and inform marketing professionals in the development of direct marketing into an international activity the fourth edition of this title offers a comprehensive one stop guide to the direct mail potential of every major export market in the world. It provides authoritative independent advice on how to formulate and execute effective campaigns along with detailed information on markets, costs and data relevant to businesses based in any country.

Face Value Autumn Whitefield-Madrano, 2016 Whitefield-Madrano examines the relationship between appearance and science, social media, sex, friendship, language and advertising to show how beauty actually affects us day to day. Through research and interviews with dozens of women across all walks of life she reveals surprising findings like that wearing makeup can actually relax you, that you can convince people you're better looking just by tweaking your personality and the ways beauty can be a powerful tool of connection among women.

Made Up Martha Laham, 2020-10-10 Made Up exposes the multibillion dollar beauty industry that promotes unrealistic beauty standards through a market basket of advertising tricks, techniques and technologies. Cosmetics magnate Charles Revson, a founder of Revlon, was quoted as saying "In the factory we make cosmetics. In the store we sell hope." This pioneering entrepreneur who built an empire on the foundation of nail polish captured the unvarnished truth about the beauty business in a single metaphor: hope in a jar. Made Up: How the Beauty Industry Manipulates Consumers, Preys on Women's Insecurities and Promotes Unattainable Beauty Standards is a thorough examination of innovative and often controversial advertising practices used by beauty companies to persuade consumers, mainly women, to buy discretionary goods like cosmetics and scents. These approaches are clearly working: the average American woman will spend around 300,000 on facial products alone during her lifetime. This revealing book traces the evolution of the global beauty industry, discovers what makes beauty consumers tick, explores the persistence and pervasiveness of the feminine beauty ideal and investigates the myth-making power of beauty advertising. It also examines stereotypical portrayals of women in beauty ads.

looks at celebrity beauty endorsements and dissects the looks industry Made Up uncovers the reality behind an Elysian world of fantasy and romance created by beauty brands that won't tell women the truth about beauty International Retailing

Nicholas Alexander, Anne Marie Doherty, 2009 International Retailing reflects contemporary research and current practice focusing on what is happening in the field who is making it happen why it is happening in the way it is and how it is happening Structured around four parts this textbook guides students through the internationalization process considering international markets and how retail companies operate within them It concludes by exploring future trends and challenges of the international retail marketplace The text is packed with a wealth of international examples and familiar case studies clearly showing how the theory translated into practice BOOK JACKET Management Services ,2001 Managing Fashion

Kaled K. Hameide, 2020-11-19 The fashion industry is a multibillion dollar global industry with a variety of organizational structures and a multitude of challenges Such scope triggered the recent rise in management programs in the U S and Europe aiming to produce and train young managers to meet such global and diverse challenges Managing Fashion covers the fashion business with a twist a management twist Its goal is to tackle the topics from a fashion manager perspective referencing relevant management concepts and theories thus offering a deeper and more practical dimension to the issues addressed It offers a balanced mix of fashion and management theory and application as well as creating an opportunity for analysis and critical thinking Discussions throughout the book are supported by specially developed case studies and relevant examples taken from the fashion industry It is an opportunity to expose the fashion student or reader as well as aspiring fashion managers to a more practical approach to fashion theories and issues Managing Fashion will serve as a core text for Fashion Studies Fashion Entrepreneurship and Fashion Merchandising majors as well as for special business degrees and management certificates targeting the fashion industry
