Metalinguistic Awareness in Children W.E. Tunmer, J. Bowey, C. Pratt, R. Grieve, M. Herriman, M. Myhill, A. Nesdale, 2013-03-07 In the past fifteen years there has been a growing interest in the development of children's awareness of language as an object in itself a phenomenon now generally referred to as metalinguistic awareness Until the publication of an earlier volume in the Springer Series in Language and Communication The Child's Conception of Language edited by A Sinclair R J Jarvella and W J M Levelt there had been no systematic treatment of metalinguistic awareness The major goal of that volume was to map out the field of study by describing the phenomenon of interest and defining major theoretical issues The aim of the present volume is to present an overview of metalinguistic awareness in children which reflects the current state of research and theory The volume is divided into three major sections The first considers various conceptual and methodological issues that have arisen from efforts to study metalinguistic awareness It addresses such questions as what is metalinguistic awareness when does it begin to emerge and what tasks and procedures can be employed to assess its development in young children The second section critically reviews the research that has been conducted into the four general types of metalinguistic awareness phonological word syntactic and pragmatic awareness In the final section the development of metalinguistic awareness is examined in relation to general cognitive development reading acquisition bilingualism and early childhood education
