Rite Of Passion Warrior Women Book 1:

Black Rain Book 1 Raven Mills, Eli Salas III, 2022-10-31 Black Rain is a work of historical fiction that takes place in the recent past before the Civil War led to the abolition of chattel slavery. The story centers around a young black woman Amira that was taken from her home in Cameroon at age ten and forced into slavery and a young Azteco man named Rain that lives with his tribe on the same lands as the white colonizers. However, the native tribes and the nearby white settlers had no idea of each other's existence. Not until Rain happens to stumble upon them. A daring rescue would see Amira delivered safely to Rain's tribe. Despite their differences and a clear language barrier, the two manage to find common ground. But dark forces are at play that threaten to send them all into darkness when Amira cursed and the entire village begins to experience terrible omens. Caught between war spirits and the threat of colonization, Amira and the Aztecos must set aside their differences and come together or suffer the consequences of division.

The Maya Book of Life Michael Owen, 2011-03 THE MAYA BOOK OF LIFE UNDERSTANDING THE XULTUN TAROT is the companion book to the Xultun Tarot Classic Edition. It explores the archetypes and alchemy of the major arcana of the Xultun Tarot through indigenous teachings and the analytical psychology of C. G. Jung and casts new light on the meaning of 2012. The Xultun Tarot was created by Peter Balin in 1976 based on images from Maya history and culture. Taken from a single painting, it is the only tarot deck where the major arcana form a complete picture. This picture is a symbolic image of the alchemical marriage of spirit and matter and a map of what Jung called the individuation process. Only 500 copies of the original Xultun Tarot were ever printed. Now Kahurangi Press xultun.com has recreated this classic long out of print deck true to its original large size and vibrant colours together with a book that explains the profound symbolism of the cards. Michael Owen is a clinical psychologist in private practice and author of Jung and the Native American Moon Cycles. He lives in New Zealand.

Brave (King David's Brides Book #1) Mesu Andrews, 2024-10-01 The Old Testament stories of David come to vibrant life in Brave Wonderful. Angela Hunt, Christy Award winning author of The Emissaries. In the tumultuous world of ancient Israel, Ahinoam, a dagger-wielding Kenite woman, flees her family farm with her unconventional father to join the ragtag band of misfits led by the shepherd-turned-warrior David ben Jesse. As King Saul's treasonous accusations echo through the land, Ahinoam's conviction that David's anointing makes him Yahweh's chosen king propels her on a perilous journey to Moab and back into Judah's unforgiving wilderness, only to encounter more hardship and betrayal. Amid the challenges, Ahinoam forges an unexpected bond with David's sister and gains respect among David's army through her knowledge of Kenite metalworking. Though some offer friendship, Ahinoam, scarred by past relationships, isolates to avoid more pain and refuses to acknowledge her growing feelings for the renegade king. As Ahinoam's heart grapples for footing, King Saul's army closes in, and Ahinoam must confront the true meaning of love, loyalty, and courage. Is she brave enough to trust new friends and love Israel's next king?

Ritual Violence and the Maternal in the British Novel, 1740-1820 Raymond F. Hilliard, 2010 This challenging book brings to light a mythic dimension of seventeen important eighteenth and early nineteenth century narratives that revolve around the persecution of one or more important female characters and offers original reading of novels by Richardson Fielding Burney Radcliffe Godwin Austen Scott and others The myth in question which Raymond Hilliard calls the myth of persecution and reparation serves as a major vehicle for the early novel's preoccupation with the mother a mythic figure distinct from the historical mother or from the mother as she is represented in eighteenth and early nineteenth century maternal ideology Hilliard argues that the myth of persecution and reparation derives from the topos of female sacrifice in the romance tradition and shows that this topos is central to several kinds of novels realist Gothic Jacobin feminist and historical Hilliard contends that the narrative of persecution and reparation anticipates the twentieth century maternal myth associated with the work of Melanie Klein and other relational model psychoanalytic theorists and he thus also examines the psychosexual significance of the mother Hilliard explores the relation of psychosexual themes to social representations and delineates a new theory of plot both tragic and comic plots in the early novel Book Jacket

African Religions and Philosophy is a systematic study of the attitudes of mind and belief that have evolved in the many societies of Africa In this second edition Dr Mbiti has updated his material to include the involvement of women in religion and the potential unity to be found in what was once thought to be a mass of quite separate religions Mbiti adds a new dimension to the understanding of the history thinking and life throughout the African continent Religion is approached from an African point of view but is as accessible to readers who belong to non African societies as it is to those who have grown up in African nations Since its first publication this book has become acknowledged as the standard work in the field of study and it is essential reading for anyone concerned with African religion history philosophy anthropology or general African studies Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2001-06 Readings ,1992 Capturing the Spoor Edward B. Eastwood,Edward Eastwood,Cathelijne Eastwood,2006 The first book of its kind to discuss the rock art of cultural groups other than the San It gives the rock art of South Africa a wider context and greater depth than has a hitherto been apparent The Gifted Passage Stephen Houston,2018-02-27 In this thought provoking book preeminent scholar Stephen Houston turns his attention to the crucial role of young males in Classic Maya society drawing on evidence from art writing and material culture The Gifted Passage establishes that adolescent men in Maya art were the subjects and makers of hieroglyphics painted ceramics and murals in works that helped to shape and reflect masculinity in Maya civilization The political volatility of the Classic Maya period gave male adolescents valuable status as potential heirs and many of the most precious surviving ceramics likely celebrated their coming of age rituals The ardent hope was that youths would grow into effective kings and noblemen capable of leadership in battle and service in royal courts Aiming to shift mainstream conceptions of the Maya Houston argues that adolescent men were not simply present in images and texts but central to both Young Men in Uncertain Times Vered Amit,Noel Dyck,2011-11-01 Anthropology is particularly well suited to explore the contemporary predicament in the coming of age of young men Its grounded and comparative empiricism provides the opportunity to move beyond statistics moral panics or gender stereotypes in order to explore specific aspects of life course transitions as well as the similar or divergent barriers or opportunities that young men in different parts of the world face Yet effective contextualization and comparison cannot be achieved by looking at male youths in isolation This volume undertakes to contextualize male youths circumstances and to learn about their lives perspectives and actions and in turn illuminates the larger structures and processes that mediate the experiences entailed in becoming young men The situation of male youths provides an important vantage point from which to consider broader social transformations and continuities By paying careful attention to these contexts we achieve a better understanding of the current influences encountered and acted upon by young people The Family Herald ,1873 Weapons and Tools in Rock Art Ana M. S. Bettencourt,Manuel Santos-Estévez,Hugo Aluai Sampaio,2021-03-03 Weapons and tools are frequently found depicted in rock art in many parts of the globe and different periods and in varying social contexts This collection of papers by leading rock art specialists examines the subjective and metaphorical value of weapons and tools in art the actions that created them and their contexts It also takes into account that such representations incorporate and transmit some kind of understanding about the world and the relationship between objects and humans Contributors analyse objects and weapons as status symbols as evidences of cultural contacts as ideological devices etc Divided into regional sections which for once do not focus on Scandinavia chapters deal with the representations of weapons and certain kinds of tools such as axes and sickles in different prehistoric protohistoric and traditional community contexts all over the world Attention focuses on rock art but also looks at stelae and statue menhirs as well as other kinds of container or vehicle for this kind of depiction The major concern is to discuss the possible meanings of these embodied signs in different areas and periods since meanings are permeable both to time and space Papers either centre their attention in broader approaches based on a specific area region or people or focus on particular case studies

Fokwang: Cultivating Moral Citizenship D. Fokwang, 2023-02-14 In Cultivating Moral Citizenship ethnographer Jude Fokwang unpacks the meanings mechanisms and processes through which young people in an inner city of the West African nation of Cameroon respond to local and global challenges as they seek to position themselves as social adults Faced with the decline of old predictabilities the diminishing capacity of the postcolonial state to control its destiny and the precarity of waithood young people instrumentalise the opportunities and resources afforded by associations to build reciprocal relationships that advance their individual and collective pursuits in a community that has increasingly become transnational In positioning themselves as moral actors the young people in this ethnography invest in high profile social and communal projects including the enforcement of moral orthodoxies that enable readers to appreciate the ways in which moral citizenship is engendered expanded and eroded simultaneously

Fleshing the Spirit Elisa Facio, Irene Lara, 2014-04-10 Fleshing the Spirit brings together established and new writers exploring the relationships between the physical body the spirit and spirituality and social justice activism Examining the complex and dynamic connections among these concepts the writers emphasize the value of flesh and blood experience as a site of knowledge They argue that spirituality something quite different from institutional religious practice can heal the mind body split and set the stage for social change Spirituality they argue is a necessary component of an alternative political agenda focused on equitable social and ecological change The anthology incorporates different genres of writing such as poetry testimonials critical essays and historical analysis and stimulates the reader to engage spirituality in a critical personal and creative way This interdisciplinary work is the first that attempts to theorize the radical interconnection between women of color spirituality and social activism Before transformative political work can be done the authors say in multiple ways we must recognize that our spiritual need is a desire to more fully understand our relations with others Conflict experienced on many levels sometimes severs those relations separating us from others along racial class gender sexual national or other socially constructed lines Fleshing the Spirit offers a spiritual journey of healing health and human revolution The book's open invitation to engage in critical dialogue and social activism with the spirit and spirituality at the forefront illuminates the way to social change and the ability to live in harmony with life's universal energies Contributors
