Comparative Postcolonialism in the Works of V.S. Naipaul and Toni Morrison Alshaymaa Mohamed Ahmed, 2022-07-07 Comparative Postcolonialism in the Works of V S Naipaul and Toni Morrison Fragmented Identities begins with an overview of its theoretical framework highlighting the intersectional relationship between postcolonial literature and comparative literature Tracing selected novels by Naipaul and Morrison the book takes as a starting point Fanon s three phase journey of the decolonizing process In the first phase of mimicry Naipaul s and Morrison s earlier novels represent the assimilation of indigenous people into dominant hegemonic cultures The second phase is envisioned as the re narration or re interpretation of the past and old legends of indigenous culture Morrison succeeds in asserting that her ancestors past is the only way to celebrate a cultural identity but Naipaul tends to criticize and neglect his past and his original indigenous culture The third phase marks the emergence of a revolutionary literature in which Naipaul and Morrison guide their people to hybridity as a new way of becoming and resisting the hegemonic dichotomies in dominant societies Teaching African American Literature Maryemma Graham, Sharon Pineault-Burke, Marianna White Davis, 2013-12-16 This book is written by teachers interested in bringing African American literature into the classroom Documented here is the learning process that these educators experienced themselves as they read and discussed the stories pedagogical The Cambridge Companion to American Literature and the Body Travis M. Foster, 2022-06-30 This volume offers a rigorous yet accessible overview of the key questions and intersectional approaches pertaining to American literature and the body The chapters have been written in an accessible style making them useful for undergraduates as well as for more experienced researchers After Modernism Pelagia Goulimari, 2023-03-31 While celebrating the centenary of the annus mirabilis of modernism we now encounter modernism after postmodernist poststructuralist postcolonial critical race feminist queer and trans writing and theory Out of the figures narratives and concepts they have developed a less universal more global decentred context specific interconnected modernism emerges In after modernism the meanings of after include periodisation homage and critique This book attends to neglected genealogies and intertexts high and low yet offering unacknowledged ontological epistemological conceptual and figurative resources How have artists of the Global South negotiated the hierarchical division of art capital into Western high art vs Global South culture Modernity s location has been the Western metropolis but other origin stories have been centring slavery colonialism the nation state If modernity did not originate once why not multiple and still to come modernities Instead of a universalizable Western modernity vs local non Western traditions the contributors to this book discern multiple modern traditions Rather than reifying their heterogeneity the authors tunnel for lost transnational connections The nation state and the citizen have together defined Western modernity and the civilized Yet they have required the gender binary gender and sexual normativity assimilation exclusion forced migration partition segregation In between the public and the private humans and the natural world this book explores a multiple relational modern subjectivity collectivity and cosmic interconnectivity whose space is indivisible entangled ever folding and unfolding It was originally published as a special issue of the journal Angelaki Odisea nº 13 Nobel-Augusto Perdu Honeyman, 2015-10-08 Anuario dirigido y gestionado por miembros del rea de Filología Inglesa del Departamento de Filología de la Universidad de Almería con el propósito de ofrecer un foro de intercambio de producción científica en campos del conocimiento tan diversos como la lengua inglesa literatura en lengua inglesa didáctica del inglés traducción inglés para fines específicos y otros igualmente vinculados a los estudios ingleses The Novels of Toni Morrison K. Sumana, 1998 Feminist Readings of Native American Literature Kathleen M. Donovan, 1998-02 Who in a society can speak and under what circumstances These questions are at the heart of both Native American literature and feminist literary and cultural theory Despite the recent explosion of publication in each of these fields almost nothing has been written to date that explores the links between the two With Feminist Readings of Native American Literature Kathleen Donovan takes an important first step in examining how studies in these two fields inform and influence one another Focusing on the works of N Scott Momaday Joy Harjo Paula Gunn Allen and others Donovan analyzes the texts of these well known writers weaving a supporting web of feminist criticism throughout With careful and gracefully offered insights the book explores the reciprocally illuminating nature of culture and gender issues The author demonstrates how Canadian women of mixed blood ancestry achieve a voice through autobiographies and autobiographical novels Using a framework of feminist reader response theory she considers an underlying misogyny in the writings of N Scott Momaday And in examining commonalities between specific cultures she discusses how two women of color Paula Gunn Allen and Toni Morrison explore representations of femaleness in their respective cultures By synthesizing a broad spectrum of critical writing that overlaps women's voices and Native American literature Donovan expands on the frame of dialogue within feminist literary and cultural theory Drawing on the related fields of ethnography ethnopoetics ecofeminism and post colonialism Feminist Readings of Native American Literature offers the first systematic study of the intersection between two dynamic arenas in literary studies today Intertextualizing Collective American Memory Grażyna Maria Teresa Branny, 2024-07-15 This study of collective American memory exposes the historical phenomenon of self directed American imperialism still frequently ignored or denied in the United States Over the course of the 250 years of its history this has taken the form of African American slavery thwarted black motherhood same race slavery both white and African American as well as the extermination of indigenous American peoples On the literary level the study helps to broaden or even modify the present perspective on the oeuvres of four major American writers i.e. William Faulkner Toni Morrison Louise Erdrich and Cormac McCarthy by pointing to the intertwining of their themes motifs and techniques of writing to form an intricate pattern of the intertextualized collective memory of the American nation      The Critical Life of Toni Morrison Susan Neal Mayberry, 2021 The first book to trace the critical reception of the great African American woman writer attending not only to her fiction but to her nonfiction and critical writings      Healing Identities Cynthia Burack, 2018-08-06 Group identifications famously pose the problem of destructive rhetoric and action against others Cynthia Burack brings together the theory work of women of color and the tools of psychoanalysis to examine the effects of group collaborations for social justice and progressive politics This juxtaposition illuminates some assumptions about race and equality encoded in psychoanalysis Burack's discursive analysis suggests the positive identity affirming aspects of group relational life for African American women One analytic response to groups emphasizes the dangers of these identifications and exhorts people to abandon or transcend them for their own good and for the good of others who may be harmed by group based forms of cultural or material violence Another response understands that people feel a need for group identifications and asks how they may be made more resistant to malignant group based discourse and action What can black feminist thought teach scholars and democratic citizens about groups Burack shows how the rhetoric of black feminism models reparative rather than destructive forms of group dialogue and action Although it may be impossible to eliminate group identifications that provide much of the impetus for bias and violence she argues we can encourage more progressive forms of leadership solidarity and coalition politics      New Visions of Community in Contemporary American Fiction Magali Cornier Michael, 2008-04 In this engaging optimistic close reading of five late twentieth century novels by American women Magali Cornier Michael illuminates the ways in which their authors engage with ideas of communal activism common commitment and social transformation The fictions she examines imagine coalition building as a means of moving toward new forms of nonhierarchical justice for ethnic cultures that as a result of racist attitudes have not been assimilated power with each other rather than power over each other is a collective goal Michael argues that much contemporary American fiction by women offers models of care and nurturing that move away from the private sphere toward the public and political Specifically texts by women from such racially marked ethnic groups as African American Asian American Native American and Mexican American draw from the rich systems of thought histories and experiences of these hybrid cultures and thus offer feminist and ethical revisions of traditional concepts of community coalition subjectivity and agency Focusing on Amy Tan's The Joy Luck Club Barbara Kingsolver's The Bean Trees and Pigs in Heaven Ana Castillo's So Far from God and Toni Morrison's Paradise Michael shows that each writer emphasizes the positive liberating effects of kinship and community These hybrid versions of community which draw from other than dominant culturally specific ideas and histories have something to offer Americans as the United States moves into an increasingly diverse twenty first century Michael provides a rich lens through which to view both contemporary fiction and contemporary life      Conversions and Visions in the Writings of African-American Women Kimberly Rae Connor, 1994 The subsequent achievement of selfhood is then based on the interplay of individual and community identities Connor suggests that the distinctiveness of African American women's experiences and writings can transcend their immediate communities and be brought to bear on women's experiences in general making their individual stories more accessible and meaningful to the whole of humankind

Prophecy Deliverance! Cornel West, 2002-01-01 In this his premiere work Cornel West provides readers with a new understanding of the African American experience based largely on his own political and cultural perspectives borne out of his own life's experiences He challenges African Americans to consider the incorporation of Marxism into their theological perspectives thereby adopting the mindset that it is class more so than race that renders one powerless in America Armed with a new introduction by the author this Twentieth Anniversary Edition of Prophecy Deliverance is a must have

Paper Dolls Katherine H. Adams, Michael L. Keene, 2017-08-23 Paper dolls might seem the height of simplicity quaint but simple toys nothing more But through the centuries paper figures have reflected religious and political beliefs notions of womanhood motherhood and family the dictates of fashion approaches to education individual self image and self esteem and ideas about death This book examines paper dolls and their symbolism from icons made by priests in ancient China to printable Kim Kardashians on the Internet to show how these ephemeral objects have an enduring and sometimes surprising presence in history and culture

The Feminist Difference Barbara Johnson, 1998 Employing surprising juxtapositions THE FEMINIST DIFFERENCE looks at fiction by black writers from a feminist psychoanalytic perspective at poetry and at feminism and law The author presents an unfailingly close reading of moments at which feminism seems to founder in its own contradictions and moments that reemerge as sources of a revitalized critical awareness Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved

Feelin Bettina Judd, 2022-12-15 How creativity makes its way through feeling and what we can know and feel through the artistic work of Black women Feeling is not feelin As the poet artist and scholar Bettina Judd argues feelin in African American Vernacular English is how Black women artists approach and produce knowledge as sensation internal and complex entangled with pleasure pain anger and joy and manifesting artistic production itself as the meaning of the work Through interviews close readings and archival research Judd draws on the fields of affect studies and Black studies to analyze the creative processes and contributions of Black women from poet Lucille Clifton and musician Avery Sunshine to visual artists Betye Saar Joyce J Scott and Deana Lawson Feelin Creative Practice Pleasure and Black Feminist Thought makes a bold and vital intervention in critical theory's trend toward disembodiment feeling as knowledge Instead Judd revitalizes current debates in Black studies about the concept of the human and about Black life by considering how discourses on emotion as they are explored by Black women artists offer alternatives to the concept of the human Judd expands the notions of Black women's pleasure politics in Black feminist studies that include the erotic the sexual the painful the joyful the shameful and the sensations and emotions that yet have no name In its richly multidisciplinary approach Feelin calls for the development of research methods that acknowledge creative and

Shiner, 2020 In the last twenty years there has been a marked increase in artists using smells in their works at the same time that scents are being used to accompany plays films and music There is also an increase in ambient scenting in stores and hotels and leading chefs are adding unusual scents to cuisine The book explores these olfactory activities and the aesthetic and ethical issues they raise as well as answering the traditional disparagement of the sense of smell by leading intellectuals such as Kant Darwin and Freud drawing on current science social science and humanities as well as literature
