Zimsec A Level Geography June 2015:

Urban Geography in Postcolonial Zimbabwe Abraham R. Matamanda, Verna Nel, Innocent Chirisa, 2021-05-07 This interdisciplinary book provides a cross sectoral and multi dimensional exploration and assessment of the urban geography perspectives in Zimbabwe Drawing on work from different disciplines the book not only contributes to academia but also seeks to inform urban policy with the view of contributing to the national aspirations of Zimbabwe attaining middle income status by 2030 Adopting a multi dimensional assessment that transcends disciplines such as urban and regional planning human and physical geography urban governance political science economics and development studies the book provides a background for co production concerning urban development in the Global South The book contributes into its analysis of the institutional and legislative framework that relates to the urban geography of Zimbabwe as these are responsible for the evolution of the urban system in the country The connections among different sectors and issues such as environment economy politics and the wider objectives of the SDGs especially goal 11 aspiring to create sustainable communities by 2030 are explored The success stories relating to urban geography in Zimbabwe are identified together with the best possible practices that may inform urban planning policy and management Revise A2 Level Geography for Edexcel Specification B

David Burtenshaw, 2004 The content of this revision guide offers an exact match to the specification with no redundant material or need to buy extra resources The straightforward layout clear diagrams and concise text aids effective and memorable revision Aligning Geopolitics, Humanitarian Action and Geography in Times of Conflict Gerry O'Reilly, 2019-01-25 This textbook offers valuable insights into the nexus between geography geopolitics and humanitarian action It elucidates concepts regarding conflict and power as well as the role of the state and the international community in mitigating and preventing violence and war Here the material and non material existential or imagined reasons for conflict are deconstructed ranging from land and resource grabs to Utopian ideals that can degenerate into dystopias as with Daesh's caliphate in Syria and Iraq In turn the issues discussed range from the local to wider national and global levels as do their resolution mechanisms Due to insecurities the impacts of globalization divisive nationalistic and isolationist reactions emerging in some democracies including the USA the UK's Brexit stress and the ominous rise of populist parties across continental Europe from France and the Netherlands to the Visegrád Group the Balkans and Greece citizen fatigue has become increasingly evident reflected in ever growing socio political malaise and violence As the impact of any humanitarian disaster is proportional to the level of development of the area affected concepts and categories of humanitarian action are explored along with development issues at their core especially in the Global South Broadly speaking humanitarian disasters fall into the categories of natural human made technological or complex here however the focus is on human made crises Attempts at greater regulation national and international organization and multilateralism to prevent violent conflicts as well as enhanced responses to humanitarian emergencies need to be supported now more than ever before This textbook will appeal to graduate and upper undergraduate students and practitioners in the fields of geography geopolitics humanitarian action and geographies of conflict and war In addition to the main content it includes exercises questions and sections for autonomous student learning The Oxford Handbook of Peaceful Change in International Relations T. V. Paul, Deborah Welch Larson, Harold A. Trinkunas, Anders Wivel, Ralf Emmers, 2021 Abstract With the rapid rise of China and the relative decline of the United States the topic of power transition conflicts is back in popular and scholarly attention The discipline of International Relations offers much on why violent power transition conflicts occur yet very few substantive treatments exist on why and how peaceful changes happen in world politics This Handbook is the first comprehensive treatment of the subject of peaceful change in International Relations It contains some 41 chapters all written by scholars from different theoretical and conceptual backgrounds examining the multi faceted dimensions of this subject In the first part key conceptual and definitional clarifications are offered and in the second part papers address the historical origins of peaceful change as an International Relations subject matter during the Inter War Cold War and Post Cold War eras In the third part each of the IR theoretical traditions and paradigms in particular Realism liberalism constructivism and critical perspectives and their distinct views on peaceful change are analyzed In the fourth part papers tackle the key material ideational and social sources of change In the fifth part the papers explore selected great and middle powers and their foreign policy contributions to peaceful change realizing that many of these states have violent past or tend not to pursue peaceful policies consistently In part six the contributors evaluate the peaceful change that occurred in the world s key regions In the final part the editors address prospective research agenda and trajectories on this important subject matter Keywords Peaceful Change War Security International Relations Theory Sources of Change Systemic Theory Realism Liberalism Constructivism Critical Theories Cambridge IGCSE® and O Level Geography Coursebook with CD-ROM Gary Cambers, Steve Sibley, 2018-03-07 Cambridge IGCSE and O Level Geography has been written specifically for Cambridge International syllabuses 0460 and 2217 Filled with sources graphs and case studies the coursebook requires students to examine a range of information helping to build their analytical skills Written by highly experienced authors and Cambridge trainers this coursebook is updated to support both Cambridge IGCSE and O Level students It includes clear and practical support case studies from 25 different countries fieldwork ideas and a range of interesting content The accompanying CD ROM contains support sheets for the topics covered outline maps and sample exam style questions Answers to the activities are in the teacher s resource

Financing For Development - Revisiting the Monterrey Consensus International Monetary Fund, 2015-06-15 2015 is set to be a pivotal year for the international development agenda with agreements to be reached on the objectives and policies for promoting development that is economically socially and environmentally sustainable through 2030 The first stage in completing the debate on these issues is the Third UN Conference on Financing for Development FfD to be held in Addis Ababa during July 13 16 2015 which aims to build an international consensus on the actions needed to ensure that sufficient financing is available for developing countries in pursuing sustainable development Urban Recycling Cooperatives Jutta Gutberlet, 2016-05-12 Solid waste is a major urban challenge worldwide and decisions over which technologies or methods to apply can have beneficial or detrimental long term consequences Inappropriate management of solid waste can lead to damaging environmental impacts particularly in the megacities of the Global South Urban Recycling Cooperatives explores the multiple narratives and interdisciplinary nature of waste studies drawing attention to the pressing social economic and environmental challenges related to waste management The book asks questions such as how do we define waste and our relation to it who is involved in dealing with waste and what power interactions become manifest over issues of accessing and managing waste In recent years informal cooperatives have emerged devoted to recycling household and business waste before reclassifying it and redirecting it to the authorities Hence these workers are able to reclaim significant amounts of natural resources and thus contribute to the saving of resources and lessened waste management expenditures With particular reference to the Brazilian megalopolis of S o Paulo this book describes this paradigm shift in the general understanding of waste as unwanted discard towards the recognition of waste as a resource that must be recovered for reuse or recycling It would be of interest to students and policy makers working in international development and waste management The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Rural Transformations Holly Barcus, Roy Jones, Serge Schmitz, 2022-03-30 This book focuses on the transformation of rural places peoples and land endemic to the contemporary manifestations of globalization Migration global economic restructuring and climate change are rapidly transforming rural places across the globe Yet global attention characteristically focuses on urban social and economic issues neglecting the continued roles of rural people and places Organized around the three core themes of demographic change rural urban partnerships and innovations and landscape change the case studies included in this volume represent both the Global North and Global South and underscore the complexity and multi scalar nature of these contemporary challenges in rural development planning and sustainability This book would be valuable supplementary reading for both students and professionals in the fields of rural land management and rural planning Global Monitoring Report 2015/2016 World Bank; International Monetary Fund, 2015-11-02 The Global Monitoring Report 2015 2016 produced by the World Bank Group in partnership with the International Monetary Fund comes at an inflection point in both the setting of global development goals and the demographic trends affecting those goals This year marks the end of the Millennium Development Goals MDGs and the launching of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs while the World Bank Group has in parallel articulated the twin goals of sustainably ending extreme poverty and sharing prosperity This report presents the latest global poverty numbers based on the 2011 purchasing power parity PPP data and examines the pace of development progress through the lens of the evolving global development goals The special theme of this year s report examines the complex interaction between demographic change and development With the number of children approaching a global ceiling of two billion the world s population is growing slower It is also aging faster with the share of people of working age starting a decline in 2013 But the direction and pace of these trends vary starkly across countries with sizeable demographic disparities between centers of global poverty marked by high fertility and drivers of global growth marked by rapid aging These demographic disparities are expected to deeply affect the pursuit of the post 2015 agenda accentuating existing challenges and creating new opportunities

The Geography of South Africa Jasper Knight,Christian M. Rogerson,2018-10-03 This edited collection examines contemporary directions in geographical research on South Africa It encompasses a cross section of selected themes of critical importance not only to the discipline of Geography in South Africa but also of relevance to other areas of the Global South All chapters are original contributions providing a state of the art research baseline on key themes in physical human and environmental geography and in understanding the changing geographical landscapes of modern South Africa These contributions set the scene for an understanding of the relationships between modern South Africa and the wider contemporary world including issues of sustainable development and growth in the Global South

COVID-19 Lockdowns and the Urban Poor in Harare, Zimbabwe Johannes Itai Bhanye,Fortune Mangara,Abraham R. Matamanda,Lameck Kachena,2023-12-09 This book focuses on the socio economic impacts of the COVID 19 pandemic and associated lockdowns on the welfare of the urban poor in the city of Harare Zimbabwe The authors look through the lenses of the urban health penalty the right to the city complexity theory and distributive justice theory These four theories help situate the COVID 19 pandemic and its impacts on the urban poor in the theoretical foundations that raise issues of how the poor are affected by disease health pandemics due to their living conditions Uniquely the authors use remote ethnography tools such as rich texts video diaries and photo uploads to provide evidence based stories of how COVID 19 mobility restrictions have affected poor urbanites in Harare The book concludes that the COVID 19 pandemic mandatory lockdowns have deepened social and spatial inequality among the urban poor threatening their right to the city The socio economic impacts can upsurge poverty increase unemployment and the risks of hunger and food insecurity reinforce existing inequalities and break social harmony in the cities even past the COVID 19 pandemic period These socioeconomic impacts must be considered to make just cities for all from a right to the city perspective The authors recommend that mandatory COVID 19 lockdowns should not only be treated as a law and order operation but as a medical intervention to stem the spread of the virus backed by measures to safeguard the livelihoods of the urban poor while also protecting the economy This means governments should provide social safety nets to informal sector operators whose income generating activities are affected the most during the time of emergencies like COVID 19 Planners and policymakers should re envision pandemic resilient cities that are just equitable resilient and sustainable
