National Healing, Integration and Reconciliation in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, 2019-12-06 This book brings together scholars from diverse backgrounds to provide interdisciplinary perspectives on national healing integration and reconciliation in Zimbabwe Taking into account the complex nature of healing across moral political economic cultural psychological and spiritual dimensions of communities and the nation the chapters discuss approaches disparities tensions and solutions to healing and reconciliation within a multidisciplinary framework Arguing that Zimbabwe s development agenda is severely compromised by the dominance of violence and militancy the contributors analyse the challenges possibilities and opportunities for national healing This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies conflict and reconciliation and development studies South Africa and the Logic of Regional Cooperation James J. Hentz, 2005 Examines South Africa s role in regional political economy since its transition to democracy

Constructing and Imagining Labour Migration Sandra Mantu, 2016-05-23 Labour migration has been on the agenda of many countries around the globe at the same time as governments of both sending and receiving countries have been trying to develop regulatory mechanisms This book opens the debate on the global politics of labour migration by proposing a re assessment of the interaction between states regarding labour migration Presenting case specific scholarship from leading experts from five different continents each contribution engages with the changing landscape of migration control and teases out emerging control patterns dynamics and correlations that can be made between them and existing control paradigms The multidisciplinary and global focus in Constructing and Imagining Labour Migration sheds much needed light on the mechanisms deployed by states in their attempts to control labour migration and on the manner in which these mechanisms impact upon migrants themselves leaving some caught up in the politics of labour market control

Military Integration After Civil Wars Florence Gaub, 2010-09-13 This book examines the role of multiethnic armies in post conflict reconstruction and demonstrates how they can promote peacebuilding efforts The author challenges the assumption that multiethnic composition leads to weakness of the military and shows how a multiethnic army is frequently the impetus for peacemaking in multiethnic societies Three case studies Nigeria Lebanon and Bosnia Herzegovina determine that rather than external factors it is the internal structures that make or break the military institution in a socially challenging environment The book finds that where the political will is present the multiethnic military can become a symbol of reconciliation and coexistence Furthermore it shows that the military as a professional identity can supersede ethnic considerations and thus facilitates cooperation within the armed forces despite a hostile post conflict setting In this the book challenges widespread theories about ethnic identities and puts professional identities on an equal footing with them The book will be of great interest to students of military studies ethnic conflict conflict studies and peacebuilding and IR in general Florence Gaub is a Researcher and Lecturer at the NATO Defence College in Rome She holds a PhD in International Politics from Humboldt University Berlin
