Mucherera,2017-11-03

The coming of Colonization and Christianity to Africa and other indigenous cross cultural contexts was a mixed bag of pros and cons The impact of the advent of the two has had a lasting effect being felt even today It created issues of bi culturalism and bi religiousness in personal and religious identities that counselors and the church need to address when working with people from these contexts There is the existence of deep cultural trauma including psychological and spiritual scars needing healing for those living in most of these post colonial contexts The Western counseling approaches and Christian rituals need contextualization A counselor or pastoral caregiver with an integrative consciousness is required to address the psychological and religious identity conflicts existing in African and other indigenous cross cultural contexts African Churches Ministering 'to and with' Persons with Disabilities

Nomatter Sande,2022-08-30 This book engages with Christian church traditions and disability issues in Africa focusing on Zimbabwe in particular It critically reflects on how the church has not done much to intentionally minister to and with persons with disabilities In the context of this volume ministering to is concerned with creating worshipping space for persons with disabilities while ministering with is connecting and identifying with persons with disabilities to meet their needs from the material life of the church The author considers a stewardship model of disability as an appropriate ministerial response to transform lives in poverty stricken postcolonial contexts The argument put forth is that the church is a living organism endowed with spiritual and material resources and that these resources should be appropriated to marginalised stakeholders

Rediscovering Jesus in Our Places Elia Shabani Mligo,2020-05-28 The question of contextual theology and its relevance to Africa in this time of globalization whereby there are rampant uncontrolled changes in cultures technologies economic policies and even people s religious lives is very urgent How is contextual theology relevant in the ever changing contexts of the church in Africa Indeed there are a number of challenges which contextual theology faces within the church in Africa which need to be addressed contextually Some such challenges include poverty rampant violence homosexuality alcoholism the resurgence of prosperity gospel materialistic prophets and incurable illnesses like Ebola HIV and AIDS and the current coronavirus COVID 19 However which context in Africa Context in Africa as in other parts of the world is always in flux it is complex and fluid There is no permanent context The experience of Jesus in such a changing context needs to be rediscovered depending on what transpires in each particular place at a particular time This book addresses some of the overarching challenges that face contextual theology and how such challenges should be addressed by the church in Africa in contemporary ever changing context for it to be relevant in Africa It also highlights the need to move from liberation and inculturation theologies to reconstruction theology in dealing with the challenges of the current church Hence the book is important to students and scholars engaging in practical systematic biblical and contextual theologies in all their branches

The Bible and Violence in Africa Johannes Hunter,Joachim Kügler,2016-06-07 Women and Religion in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando,Kudzai Biri,Sophia Chirongoma,2022-07-07 The chapters in this volume foreground the ambivalent role of religion and culture when it comes to African women s health and well being Reflecting on the three major religions in Africa i e African Indigenous Religions Christianity and Islam the authors illustrate how religious beliefs and practices can either enhance or hinder women s holistic progress and development With a specific focus on Zimbabwean women s experiences of religion and culture the volume discusses how African Indigenous Religions Christianity and Islam tend to privilege men and understate the value of women in Africa Adopting diverse theological ideological and political positions contributors to this volume restate the fact that the key teachings of different religions often suppressed due to patriarchal influences are a potent resource in the quest for gender justice In sync with the goals for gender justice and women empowerment envisioned in the United Nations Agenda 2030 and Africa Agenda 2063 the contributors advocate for gender inclusive and life enhancing interpretations of religious and cultural traditions in Africa The West and China in Africa Alemayehu Mekonnen, 2015-11-13 The West and China in Africa Civilization without Justice is an outcome of Dr Alemayehu Mekonnen's personal intellectual struggle, life experience and an attempt to understand Christ and his message within the cultural context of Africa. The intellectual struggle has to do with the paradoxical reality of Africa's situation. An attempt to reconcile the seemingly irreconcilable situation of Africa tests and stretches anyone's mind beyond limit. According to archaeological and geological findings, Africa is the first habitat of humanity and yet it is the least habitable place in the world today. The continent is extremely rich with natural resources but it is known for poverty, disease, malnutrition and starvation. As some Afro-centric scholars argue, Africa is the birthplace of world civilization and yet it is known for destruction. Social instability is rampant, coup d'etat and counter coup d'etat is common. Displacement and the number of refugees are ever increasing. As a person of African origin and now a US citizen, Mekonnen was able to see realities objectively in the eyes of an African and American. This book explores the myth and reality of Western, Eastern and African dictators' role in the history of Africa.

Military, Politics and Democratization in Southern Africa Tendai Chari, Patrick Dzimiri, 2023-08-10 This book explores multiple challenges faced by democratization in Southern Africa. Applying a wider lens to the concept of political transition and employing a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches, the contributions gathered here explore residual political/cultural practices that hinder democratic consolidation in Southern Africa. Presenting various case studies, the book tackles themes such as the military-political nexus, leadership renewal, constitutionalism, electoral politics, election violence, marginalization of women, civil society and political transition, media framing and transitional justice. Written from a multidisciplinary perspective and drawing on empirical data from multiple sources, this edited volume challenges orthodox conceptualizations of political transition. The book will be of interest to students and scholars of political science, African studies and related fields as well as policy makers and professionals interested in the latest political developments in Southern Africa.

The Zimbabwe Council of Churches and Development in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, 2020-05-22 There is a growing realization that religion plays a major role in development, particularly in the Global South. Whereas theories of secularization assumed that religion would disappear, the reality is that religion has demonstrated its tenacity. In the specific case of Zimbabwe, religion has remained a positive social force and has made a significant contribution to development, particularly through the Zimbabwe Council of Churches. This has been through political activism, contribution to health, education, women's emancipation and ethical reconstruction. This volume analyzes the contribution of the Zimbabwe Council of Churches to development in the country.
