Electoral Politics in Zimbabwe, Vol II Esther Mavengano,Sophia Chirongoma,2023-08-08 Volume two of Electoral Politics in Zimbabwe The 2023 Election and Beyond argues that research into Zimbabwe s politics is multifaceted and topical particularly because for more than two decades now this Southern African state has been dogged by multiple problems including hyperinflation drought escalating poverty levels extremely high unemployment rates and political instabilities The volume s overall goal is to ignite intellectual discussions and practical action towards turning the political wheels that have been in place for decades The first segment examines the interface between gender and electoral politics in Zimbabwe The second part discusses the role of the media in Zimbabwe s electoral politics The third section reflects on the role of traditional leaders and religious discourses in Zimbabwe s electoral politics The book will be a key resource to colleges universities and organisations in Zimbabwe the Southern Africa region and even beyond

Chihera in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando,Sophia Chirongoma,Munyaradzi Nyakudya,2023-02-27 Zimbabwean social media has been awash with images of a woman character spirit or concept called Chihera Traditionally a woman descending from the Mhofu Eland lineage totem is known as Chihera In the cumulative tradition of the Shona a Zimbabwean ethnic group Chihera is a fiercely independent assertive free spirited and no nonsense woman This volume seeks to deepen reflections on the Chihera phenomenon in the context of the search for gender justice in Zimbabwe and Africa The authors reflect on how this radical indigenous feminist ethic circulating on social media can animate the quest for Zimbabwean and African women s full liberation from patriarchy and all oppressive forces They grapple with the issue of generating culturally sensitive theories and approaches to galvanize the struggle for African women s liberation in post colonial settings Second they locate the Chihera mystique in the context of the practical struggle for women s empowerment Third the volume illustrates how the Chihera phenomenon could be utilized for gender justice in Zimbabwe and beyond

The Rise of the African Novel Mukoma Wa Ngugi,2018-03-27 Engaging questions of language identity and reception to restore South

African and diaspora writing to the African literary tradition Digital Activism in Zimbabwe Tenford Chitanana, 2024-10-21
This book investigates the role of the internet and social media in political processes in non western and non democratic contexts Using Zimbabwe as a case study the book demonstrates how activists and ordinary people deploy social media particularly Facebook to subvert an enduring hegemonic state However the book also highlights how authoritarian regimes are in turn learning and adapting to the information age challenging the impact of digital activism Studies of digital activism in the Global South are often centred around democracy but this book paints a more complex picture examining the role and effect of digital activism in challenging state hegemony in authoritarian contexts The book notes that while communication technologies help mediate activism they are also simultaneously constrained by pre existing and emergent challenges tied to the social and political context and the inherent limitations of those technologies The book investigates the tactics used by digital activists the contextual factors and restrictive political environment they operate in including the role of pro government activists and ultimately the impact of digital activism given these constraints From the case of Zimbabwe the book builds out a broader theoretical analysis of the evolution of third world protest in the digital age examining the limitations of activists actions and the ideological deficit in online activism to ferment a virulent counter hegemony

Transitional Justice and Socio-Economic Rights in Zimbabwe Prosper Maguchu, 2019-07-26 This book addresses the issue of corruption as a socio economic rights concern at a national level Zimbabwe s widespread corruption inhibited its development in all aspects It weakened institutions especially those called upon to arbitrate political and economic contests leading to potential human rights violations However Zimbabwe saw a change of government in November 2017 Due to this there seemed to be an opening to work towards reform in relation to the anti corruption architecture Specifically the new era provides an opportunity to review how accountability mechanisms including but not limited to amnesties truth commissions institutional reforms and prosecutions can address corruption as a socio economic rights violation As the new government still tries to address competing priorities many moving parts and various matrixes this volume in the International Criminal Justice Series provides a timely frame for revisiting the debate and developing the strategic thinking regarding transitional justice options in Zimbabwe It will be of great interest to practitioners policy makers scholars and students in the fields of anti corruption socio economic and human rights and transitional justice Prosper Maguchu is Visiting Assistant Professor at the Centre for the Politics of Transnational Law of the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam The Netherlands Choke Points Jake Alimahomed-Wilson, Immanuel Ness, 2018-04-20 Global capitalism is a precarious system Relying on the steady flow of goods across the world trans national companies such as Wal Mart and Amazon depend on the work of millions in docks warehouses and logistics centres to keep their goods moving This is the global supply chain and if the chain is broken capitalism grinds to a halt This book looks at case studies across the world to uncover a network of resistance by these workers who despite their importance often face vast exploitation and economic violence Experiencing first hand wildcat strikes organised blockades and boycotts the authors explore a diverse range of case studies from South China dockworkers to the transformation of the port of Piraeus in Greece and from the Southern California logistics sector to dock and logistical workers in Chile and unions in Turkey

The Handbook of Social Work and Social Development in Africa Mel Gray, 2016-10-26 All recent books on international social work mention Africa only briefly and few engage with the broader field of development studies This book focuses solely on the unique African context engaging with issues relating to social work and development more broadly thus enabling a deeper examination and more complex and nuanced picture to emerge Unlike most academic works this book highlights multiple practitioner voices with authors or co authors that have recently been or are currently practising social workers As an edited book it draws from both academic research as well as lived practice experience supported by strong theoretical positioning and guidance in introductory chapters drawing on African literature wherever possible Looking at case studies from Lesotho Botswana Kenya Zimbabwe Ethiopia Namibia Uganda Nigeria Kenya South Africa Rwanda Zambia and Tanzania and covering established areas of practice such as child protection working with older people working with people with disabilities mental health and mainstream services targeting women as well as emerging areas of developmental social work practice such as humanitarian assistance in post conflict situations work with immigrants and refugees and the training of community based workers this book takes a future oriented perspective that aims to move beyond well worn critiques to envision constructive and sustainable futures for social work and social development in Africa from a critical perspective

The Politics of Conducting Research in Africa Lyn Johnstone, 2018-08-29 This edited volume investigates the ethical and emotional challenges of conducting fieldwork in Africa It reflects on difficulties researchers face such as objectivity access gender issues and information risks Focusing across a wide range of states and themes the project makes an original contribution and builds upon existing strengths and insights in various disciplines by presenting research practical insights from contemporary cases of fieldwork As such the book is an accessible and useful guide for students and scholars alike

Freedom of Speech in International Law Amal Clooney, David Neuberger, 2024 Freedom of Speech in International Law charts the minimum protections for speech enshrined in international human rights law It not only addresses the problems facing free speech today but offers recommendations to give effect to the international law obligation to protect freedom of expression

Neo-Liberal Urban Development in Post-Colonial Zimbabwe Terence Tapiwa Muzorewa, 2025-07-14 This book investigates the role of private land developers in the development of Ruwa Town in post colonial Zimbabwe Whereas other post colonial established towns in the country emerged from direct public investment through the Growth Point policy Ruwa emerged from a public private partnership approach The development of Ruwa Town is therefore a valuable example of a new post colonial experience in urban planning and development which is a clear departure from the colonial town planning which was premised on racial segregation This book offers unique insights into the historical context the role of private developers in the growth of the city the impact of their involvement bringing a comparative analysis with state led development It offers a valuable contribution to the field of urban studies particularly within the context of urban development in post colonial Zimbabwe and in Africa

Professional Journal of the United States Army ,2016-05 Sharing the Burden of Stories from the Tutsi Genocide
Anna-Marie de Beer,2020-04-23 This book deals with literary representations of the genocide of the Tutsis in Rwanda The focus is a transnational polyphonic writing project entitled Rwanda crire par devoir de m moire Rwanda Writing by Duty of Memory undertaken in 1998 by a group of nine African authors This work emphasizes the Afropolitan cultural frame in which the texts were conceived and written Instead of using Western and Eurocentric tropes this volume looks at a so called minority trauma an African conflict situated in a collectivist society and written about by writers from African origin This approach enables a more situated study in which it becomes possible to draw out the local notions of ubuntu oral testimonies mourning traditions healing and storytelling strategies and the presence of the invisible As these texts are written in French and to date not all of them have been translated into English most academic research has been done in French This book thus assists in connecting English speaking readers not only to a set of texts written in French with significant literary and cultural value but also to francophone trauma studies research Seed system of Pakistan: Policy challenges and prospects
Rana, Abdul Wajid,Gill, Sitara,Akram, Iqra,2022-09-26 The seed industry in Pakistan has undergone significant developments since the 1950s and has transitioned from Green Revolution to Gene Revolution The 2015 amendment in the Seed Act 1976 and the enactment of Plant Breeders Rights Act and Rules have provided long awaited intellectual property protection for proprietary seed Notwithstanding this fundamental change the challenge of effective enforcement of intellectual property rights remains This paper presents how the seed industry has evolved over the years through evaluating the regulatory and institutional framework along with looking into the major challenges that still plague the seed system of Pakistan It also explores how the private sector can be incentivized to invest in the seed sector while protecting the farmers rights Findings reveal that there seems to be a lot of scope for strengthening the seed system of Pakistan via encouraging private sector participation mainly through developing proactive markets with strong institutional mechanism along with scientific and time bound regulatory approval framework An appraisal of the international best practices divulges that technological backstopping developing public private partnerships building institutional capacity for effective enforcement of regulatory regime and availability of information to farmers for selecting quality seed are equally vital for creating a well functioning seed system in Pakistan Multipurpose Prevention Technologies: Call for Innovative Strategies to Address Critical Priorities and Gaps Bethany Young Holt,Z. Mike Chirenje,Nomita Chandhiok,Ariane Van Der Straten,Jim Turpin ,Anke Hemmerling,2024-05-31 The HIV sexually transmitted infection STI syndemics and the unmet need for modern contraceptive methods continue to pose significant health risks for women and other people worldwide As awareness of the need to address these interlinked risks has increased the need for new technologies that combine protection against unintended pregnancy

HIV and other STIs is a growing research priority Multipurpose Prevention Technologies MPTs are products that simultaneously prevent HIV other STIs and or unintended pregnancy They have power to revolutionize women s health by providing prevention for multiple indications

Christian Warfare in Rhodesia-Zimbabwe Norman H

Murdoch, 2015-07-30 Christian Warfare in Rhodesia Zimbabwe takes a hard look at the history of the Salvation Army in Rhodesia Zimbabwe and its long history with both the government and the rest of the church Norman H Murdoch examines in depth the parallels between the events of the First Chimurenga an uprising against European occupation in 1896 97 and the Second Chimurenga in the 1970s the civil war that led to majority rule At the time of the first the Salvation Army was barely established in the country by the second it was fully entrenched in the ruling class Murdoch explores the collaboration of this Christian mission with the institutions of white rule and the painful process of disentanglement necessary by the late twentieth century Stories of martyrdom and colonial mythology are set in the carefully researched context of ecumenical relations and the Salvation Army s largely unknown and seldom accessible internal politics
