Ivory Keith Somerville,2019-10-30 Comprehensive exploration of history and politics of ivory in Africa Zimbabwe
International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2017-07-07 This 2017 Article IV Consultation highlights that Zimbabwe's economy is facing difficulties A severe drought and slow reform momentum have led to high expenditure levels since late 2015 despite subdued revenues With limited access to foreign inflows the ensuing fiscal imbalances have become unsustainable and are being financed by rising domestic borrowing Growth in 2017 is expected to be supported by a strong performance in agriculture mainly owing to exceptional rains However economic activity in the medium term is projected to remain subdued pending adjustment and reform that tackle the structural challenges and enable the economy to restore fiscal and external sustainability and achieve its growth potential Beyond Rigidity Mu Ren,2021-01-23 This book investigates China's foreign policy concerning the principle of non intervention in domestic affairs of other states in the post Cold War period The principle of non intervention has traditionally been central to Chinese foreign policy but as China's economy has boomed international attention to her foreign policy has been increasingly hostile Accordingly an exploration of China's non intervention policy is worthwhile to understand China's foreign policy and its international behavior This book will be of interest to China watchers scholars of geopolitics and Asian historians The End of an Era? Robert Mugabe and a Conflicting Legacy Munyaradzi, Mawere,Marongwe, Ngonidzashe,2018-11-17 Arguably one of the most polarising figures in modern times has been Robert Gabriel Mugabe the former President of the Republic of Zimbabwe The mere mentioning of his name raises a lot of debate and often times vicious if not irreconcilable differences both in Zimbabwe and beyond In an article titled Lessons of Zimbabwe Mahmood Mamdani succinctly captures the polarity thus It is hard to think of a figure more reviled in the West than Robert Mugabe and his land reform measures however harsh have won him considerable popularity not just in Zimbabwe but throughout southern Africa This together with his recent stylised ouster speaks volumes to his conflicted legacy The divided opinion on Mugabe's legacy can broadly be represented first by those who consider him as a champion of African liberation a Pan Africanist an unmatched revolutionary and an avid anti imperialist who literally spoke the truth to Western imperialists On the other end of the spectrum are those who seemingly paying scant regard to the predicament of millions of black Zimbabweans brutally dispossessed of their land and human dignity since the Rhodesian days have differentially characterised Mugabe as a rabid black fascist an anti white racist an oppressor and a dictator Drawing on all these opinions and characterisations the chapters ensconced in this volume critically reflect on the personality leadership style and contributions of Robert Mugabe during his time in office from 1980 to November 2017 The volume is timely in view of the current contested transition in Zimbabwe and with regard to the ongoing consultations on the Land Question in neighbouring South Africa It is a handy and richly documented text for students and practitioners in political science African studies economics policy studies development studies and global studies Kanyenze: Zimbabwe:

The Link Between Politics and ,2023-03-20 In this accessible and authoritative book Godfrey Kanyenze provides a comprehensive and far reaching analysis of the socio economic development in Zimbabwe in light of the expanding authoritarianism and the ongoing destruction of democratic institutions during the four decades after independence Kanyenze describes the various phases of the socio economic development starting with 1980 when the people of Zimbabwe saw their hard won independence and new democracy as a promise for a Transitional Justice and Socio-Economic Rights in Zimbabwe Prosper Maguchu,2019-07-26 This book addresses the issue of corruption as a socio economic rights concern at a national level Zimbabwe s widespread corruption inhibited its development in all aspects It weakened institutions especially those called upon to arbitrate political and economic contests leading to potential human rights violations However Zimbabwe saw a change of government in November 2017 Due to this there seemed to be an opening to work towards reform in relation to the anti corruption architecture Specifically the new era provides an opportunity to review how accountability mechanisms including but not limited to amnesties truth commissions institutional reforms and prosecutions can address corruption as a socio economic rights violation As the new government still tries to address competing priorities many moving parts and various matrixes this volume in the International Criminal Justice Series provides a timely frame for revisiting the debate and developing the strategic thinking regarding transitional justice options in Zimbabwe It will be of great interest to practitioners policy makers scholars and students in the fields of anti corruption socio economic and human rights and transitional justice Prosper Maguchu is Visiting Assistant Professor at the Centre for the Politics of Transnational Law of the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam The Netherlands Zimbabwe's Economy Kenneth Mahuni,James Zivanomoyo,Puruweti Siyakiya,Simba Mutsvangwa,2025-02-17 This book traces the economic history of Zimbabwe from independence to the present day Through a comprehensive historical examination it highlights the short lived successes in the early years after independence and the dwindling colonial economy as well as the economic problems of the decades that followed The authors identify crucial flaws in the country s economic policies and highlight several dilemmas in the implementation of policies that exacerbated the country s deep seated structural problems The book provides deep insights into the economic and social realities of post colonial states in Africa and offers important lessons for other African countries Multidisciplinary Humane Perspectives on Education Lawrence Ogbo Ugwuanyi,2024-01-16 While the majority of mankind access education and while different ideologies and philosophies may motivate education educational delivery and attainment it is important to discuss how through these humanity may become more human by realising its full potential This book addresses issues such as equality inclusiveness cosmopolitan worldviews and conflicting pressures in education in a manner that makes every member of the human community accountable to the others through education Social Media and Digital Dissidence in Zimbabwe Trust Matsilele,2022-08-29 This book proposes a new theorisation when studying cyber dissidents in an African digital sphere It argues that social media dissidents are a recent development in a long lineage of dissidents in African societies Using Zimbabwe as a case study the study locates contemporary dissidents in the same family with other historical dissident figures found in African orature the Chimurenga wars through music poetry and other forms of expression The book argues against techno deterministic approaches to studying social media born digital dissidence in Africa It is aimed at scholars dedicated to studying social media movements in African contexts and the global south generally prompting them to re evaluate their earlier conclusions and adopt a more nuanced and contextspecific approach

Fisheries responses to invasive species in a changing climate Azzurro, E.,Bahri, T. (ed.),Valbo-Jørgensen, J. (ed.),Ma, X. (ed.),Strafella, P. (ed.),Vasconcellos, M. (ed.),2024-07-04 Due to the increasing pressure of a globalized economy and under the effects of a changing climate biological invasions have become a frequent feature of marine and freshwater environments Global fisheries and aquaculture are therefore required to adjust to these changes with the dual aim of reducing the negative ecological consequences caused by these species and making the most of the advantages they might bring Here capitalizing on a wide spectrum of management actions which can be implemented to control and or adapt to aquatic invasions nine measures are presented they can be grouped under environmental social or socioeconomic strategies exploring their potential main challenges and enabling factors The nine measures provided with key recommendations are 1 Develop and manage a commercial fishery 2 Promote recreational harvesting 3 Explore market opportunities 4 Implement outreach programmes 5 Foster stakeholder engagement 6 Implement spatial control 7 Implement biological control 8 Restore ecosystems 9 Do nothing These suggestions discussed among a group of international experts and presented in a synthetic form may be used as a practical resource though not an exhaustive one to aid in the evaluation and identification of appropriate fisheries management responses to aquatic invasive species in the context of climate change While it may not address all the complexities of the subject it provides a starting point for adaptation strategies recognizing the diverse legal cultural and socioeconomic conditions in different fishery contexts offering valuable insights for policymakers fisheries managers and practitioners who have to deal with aquatic invasions

Tourism, Philanthropy and School Tours in Zimbabwe Kathleen Smithers,2024-08-05 This book explores the phenomena of school tours and tourism It explores tensions of authenticity and artificiality in the school site being both a place of community learning and a spectacle for tourism consumption Through the example of a school in Matabeleland North Zimbabwe the book examines the act of a school tour whose main aim is to providing fund for the school It offers a unique interdisciplinary lens that examines both the school as a tourism destination and as a site of learning By drawing on these two fields the book provides insights into the tensions inherent in a school that is also a tourism destination This book will demonstrate to readers the tensions present in tourism partnerships with schools that include some source of philanthropic funding and unpack the complexities of tourism that draws on stereotypical cultural images It explores these tensions through the lens of school leaders students teachers and tourism personnel The book provides a major and unique
