Dr Jacob Chikuhwa continues with his academic analysis of both the political and economic developments in Zimbabwe Supported by well researched historical narrative and economic data Zimbabwe The End of the First Republic examines the triumphs and tribulations of the Zimbabwean national project leading to the adoption of a home grown constitution and the July 31 2013 elections Although the war of liberation led to Zimbabwes independence in 1980 it has not established democracy functioning health and education systems and equal opportunities for Zimbabweans What Zimbabweans experience is decay of infrastructure with very little in the state coffers despite abundant natural resources The theme on economic performance focuses on numerous failed economic blueprints that began with the Economic Structural Adjustment Programme during the early 1990s The haphazard land reform programme and the exploitation of mineral resources take centre stage While Zimbabwe is poised to supply 25% of world diamond output the way tenders are being awarded for the diamond mining has highlighted the need for accountability and transparency Before the coalition government was formed in 2009 the country had gone from being one of Africas strongest economies to one of its weakest as Zimbabweans grappled with hyperinflation mass unemployment and widespread poverty Although the Short Term Emergency Recovery Programme brought some semblance of economic stability the way indigenisation and economic empowerment are being carried out make investors shun the southern African country Chikuhwas economic study focuses on how corruption and a lack of transparency and accountability in Zimbabwes governance have intensified social problems crime and poverty and have alienated the IMF and World Bank as well as potential foreign investors This study rich in statistical data and heartfelt commentary will serve as a useful introduction for those studying Zimbabwes recent history and economic development and entrepreneurs looking for investment opportunities Election Observation Mission, Zimbabwe 2000 SADC Parliamentary Forum, 2000 The Judicial Institution in Zimbabwe Karla Saller, 2004 The situation in Zimbabwe must surely be close to the top of the urgent agenda of the African Union in its bid to uphold good governance and the rule of law The Faculty of Law at the University of Cape Town has long played a role as a protagonist of the rule of law and the implementation of democratic rights Over the past three years the Department of Public Law in particular has undertaken research into the general state of good governance in Southern Africa with the aim of promoting the implementation of democratic rights This publication is one of the fruits of that work Prompted by the increasingly desperate situation in Zimbabwe it was decided early in 2003 that the position of the judiciary in that country should be examined This report is a record of what has been occurring in Zimbabwean administration of justice It reveals a situation that is critical but does so constructively with the objective of aiding as rapid a return to democratic governance and the rule of law as possible Hugh Corder Dean of the Faculty of Law UCT A Handbook of Zimbabwe Electoral Laws and Regulations, 2000, 2000 This book is intended to help electoral officers political party representatives polling station observers and any other people who need to understand the rules that
