Zimsec History Question On June 2015

Zimsec History Question On June 2015:

Reanimating Regions James Riding, Martin Jones, 2017-05-12 Writing regions undertaking a regional study was once a standard form of geographic communication and critique This was until the quantitative revolution in the middle of the previous century and more definitively the critical turn in human geography towards the end of the twentieth century From then on writing regions as they were experienced phenomenologically or arguing culturally historically and politically with regions was deemed to be old fashioned Yet the region is and always will be a central geographical concept and thinking about regions can tell us a lot about the history of the discipline called geography Despite taking up an identifiable place within the geographical imagination in scholarship and beyond region remains a relatively forgotten under used and in part under theorised term Reanimating Regions marks the continued reinvigoration of a set of disciplinary debates surrounding regions the regional and regional geography Across 18 chapters from international interdisciplinary scholars this book writes and performs region as a temporary permanence something held stable not fixed and absolute at different points in time for different purposes There is as this expansive volume outlines no single reading of a region Reanimating Regions collectively rebalances the region within geography and geographical thought In renewing the geography of regions as not only a site of investigation but also as an analytical framework through which to write the world what emerges is a powerful reworking of the geographic imagination Read against one another the chapters weave together timely commentaries on region and regions across the globe with a particular emphasis upon the regional as played out in the United Kingdom and regional worlds both within and beyond Europe offering chapters from Africa and South America Addressing both the political and the cultural this volume responds to the need for a consolidated and considered reflection on region the regional and regional geography speaking directly to broader intellectual concerns with performance aesthetics identity mobilities the environment and the body

The History and Political Transition of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Pedzisai Ruhanya, 2020-10-21 This book is the first to tackle the difficult and complex politics of transition in Zimbabwe with deep historical analysis Its focus is on a very problematic political culture that is proving very hard to transcend At the center of this culture is an unstable but resilient nationalist military alliance crafted during the anti colonial liberation struggle in the 1970s Inevitably violence misogyny and masculinity are constitutive of the political culture Economically speaking the culture is that of a bureaucratic parasitic primitive accumulation and corruption which include invasion and emptying of state coffers by a self styled Chimurenga aristocracy However this Chimurenga aristocracy is not cohesive as the politics that led to Robert Mugabe s ousting from power was preceded by dirty and protracted internal factionalism At the center of the factional politics was the first family Robert Mugabe and his wife Grace Mugabe This book offers a multidisciplinary examination of the complex contemporary politics in Zimbabwe taking seriously such issues as gender misogyny militarism violence media identity modes of accumulation the ethnicization of politics attempts to open lines of credit and FDI national healing and the national question as key variables not only of a complete political culture but also of difficult transitional politics The End of an Era? Robert Mugabe and a Conflicting Legacy Munyaradzi, Mawere, Marongwe, Ngonidzashe, 2018-11-17 Arguably one of the most polarising figures in modern times has been Robert Gabriel Mugabe the former President of the Republic of Zimbabwe The mere mentioning of his name raises a lot of debate and often times vicious if not irreconcilable differences both in Zimbabwe and beyond In an article titled Lessons of Zimbabwe Mahmood Mamdani succinctly captures the polarity thus It is hard to think of a figure more reviled in the West than Robert Mugabe and his land reform measures however harsh have won him considerable popularity not just in Zimbabwe but throughout southern Africa This together with his recent stylised ouster speaks volumes to his conflicted legacy The divided opinion on Mugabe's legacy can broadly be represented first by those who consider him as a champion of African liberation a Pan Africanist an unmatched revolutionary and an avid anti imperialist who literally spoke the truth to Western imperialists On the other end of the spectrum are those who seemingly paying scant regard to the predicament of millions of black Zimbabweans brutally dispossessed of their land and human dignity since the Rhodesian days have differentially characterised Mugabe as a rabid black fascist an anti white racist an oppressor and a dictator Drawing on all these opinions and characterisations the chapters ensconced in this volume critically reflect on the personality leadership style and contributions of Robert Mugabe during his time in office from 1980 to November 2017 The volume is timely in view of the current contested transition in Zimbabwe and with regard to the ongoing consultations on the Land Question in neighbouring South Africa It is a handy and richly documented text for students and practitioners in political science African studies economics policy studies development studies and global studies From African Peer Review Mechanisms to African Queer Review

Mechanisms? Nhemachena, Artwell, Warikandwa, Tapiwa Victor, 2019-04-22 Tracing recent bouts of globalised Mugabephobia to Robert Mugabe's refusal to be neoimperially penetrated this book juxtaposes economic liberalisation with the mounting liberalisation of African orifices Reading land repossession and economic structural adjustment programmes together with what they call neoimperial structural adjustment of African orifices the authors argue that there has been liberalisation of African orifices in a context where Africans are ironically prevented from repossessing their material resources Juxtaposing recent bouts of Mugabephobia with discourses on homophobia the book asks why empire prefers liberalising African orifices rather than attending to African demands for restitution restoration and reparations Noting that empire opposes African sovereignty autonomy and centralisation of power while paradoxically promoting transnational corporations centralisation of power over African economies the book challenges contemporary discourses about shared sovereignty distributed governance heterarchy heteronomy and ontology Arguing that colonialists similarly denied Africans of their human essence the tome problematises queer sexualities homosexuality ecosexuality cybersexuality and humanoid robotic sexuality all of which complicate supposedly fundamental distinctions between human beings and animals and machines Provocatively questioning queer sexuality and liberalised orifices that serve to divert African attention from the more serious unfinished business of repossessing material resources the book insightfully compares Robert Gabriel Mugabe Thomas Sankara and Julius Kambarage Nyerere who emphasised the imperatives of African autonomy ownership control and sovereignty over natural resources Observing Africans interest in repossessing ownership and control over their resources the book wonders why so much queer international attention is focused on foisting queer sexuality while downplaying more burning issues of resource repossession human dignity equality and equity craved by Africans for whom life is not confined to sexuality With insights for scholars in sociology development studies law politics African studies anthropology transformation decolonisation and decoloniality the book argues that liberal democracy is a fa ade in a world that is actually ruled through criminocracy

Joshua Mqabuko Nkomo of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2017-08-17 This book is a pioneering study of Joshua Mqabuko Nkomo a Zimbabwean nationalist whose crucial role in the country s anti colonial struggle has largely gone unrecognized These essays trace his early influence on Zimbabwean nationalism in the late 1950s and his leadership in the armed liberation movement and postcolonial national building processes as well as his denigration by the winners of the 1980 elections Mugabe s Zimbabwe African National Union Patriotic Front The Nkomo that emerges is complex and contested the embodiment of Zimbabwe s tortured trajectory from colony to independent postcolonial state This is an essential corrective to the standard history of twentieth century Zimbabwe and an invaluable resource for scholars of African nationalist liberation movements and nation building

The Dilemma of Children's Right to Education in the Era of the Fast Track Land Reform Programme in Zimbabwe Re-Visited Loveness Mapuva,2016-08-17 This book offers a critical analysis of the impact of the Fast Track Land Reform Programme FTLRP in Zimbabwe looking at the extent to which the politicization of the land question degenerated into chaos and violations of human rights with a special emphasis on children s right to education Additionally the book provides recommendations on how best to improve access to education even in times of conflict such as the one witnessed during the FTLRP Furthermore and most importantly it also re visits the question of the much hyped FTLRP and the enduring impact which it has left on the victims mostly children and how their quest for a bright future was obliterated within a few months of the programme s implementation

Civil Society Narratives of Violence and Shaping the Transitional Justice Agenda in Zimbabwe Chenai G. Matshaka,2022-08-01 In Civil Society Narratives of Violence and Shaping the Transitional Justice Agenda in Zimbabwe Chenai G Matshaka shows the shaping of the transitional justice agenda in Zimbabwe from a civil society perspective Based on the understanding that transitional justice approaches are seen through the lenses by which the violence and conflict is understood Matshaka explores the complexities that arise when particular narratives of violence dominate the agenda This book contributes to a discussion on how narratives intervene in the trajectory of a transitional justice process of a society in ways that may be beneficial or detrimental to breaking cycles of injustice and domination

Civil Society and the Party-state in Zimbabwe Zenzo Moyo,2024-08-21 The book utilises Gramsci s concepts of hegemony counter hegemony organic intellectuals and integral state to interrogate how modes of engagement between the state and civil society have contributed to a polarised polity in Zimbabwe and in turn how this has impacted democratisation processes This was achieved by analysing intra civil society interactions and state civil society relations which established deep polarised relationships that can be traced back to the liberation struggle It also interrogates ideologies that drive these polarised relations and how together with material benefits from donors and the party state these relations impact ordinary people s modes of existence One of the arguments that emerge from the book is that political polarisation in Zimbabwe has now morphed into an established political culture that has played a huge role in the retardation of democratic struggles It uses ideas of entangled modernities and travelling theory to cast doubt on the belief that civil society is the missing key in the democratisation of developing countries

Inventing the New Dispensation in Zimbabwe

Ezra Chitando, Lovemore Togarasei, Joram Tarusarira, 2024-11-14 How does a regime whose members have been actively involved in the previous one appropriate and deploy religious ideas and rhetoric to cast itself as born again and attractive Exploring intersections between politics religion and economics this book examines invention of Zimbabwe's New Dispensation the regime of Emmerson D Mnangagwa and how it has aimed to separate itself from the previous regime of Robert G Mugabe Utilizing the concept of invention contributors reflect on how Mnangagwa and his publicists deploy religious ideas concepts and rhetoric in the quest for legitimacy in a heavily contested political field The book also reflects on the ways opposing political actors have utilized the same template in their quests to secure power The contributors interrogate the use of time theological ideas and religious practices to separate Mnangagwa's regime from Mugabe's This book provides insight into how religious rhetoric is used not only to gain but also to contest legitimacy in Zimbabwe's political sphere

The Development of Africa Olayinka Akanle, Jimí Olálékan Adésinà, 2017-10-25 This volume analyses many of the real development challenges confronting the African continent presenting fresh and current objective examinations narratives interpretations and pathways to the continent's development It interrogates and answers established critical current and pragmatic problems confronting Africa today and provides workable pathways out of the development problems so that scholarship policy and practice will be positively impacted This volume adds great depth and extended breadth to the knowledge base on development of Africa It provides excellent resources for academics scholars student policy makers and all those interested in issues affecting Africa's development

The Rhodesian Air Force in Zimbabwe's War of Liberation, 1966-1980 Darlington Mutanda, 2016-11-22 This book evaluates the development of the Rhodesian Air Force during the Second Chimurenga or Bush War 1966-1980 Airpower in irregular conflict is effective at the tactical level because guerrilla warfare is not a purely military conflict The Rhodesian Air Force was deployed in a war winning versus a supporting role as a result of the shortage of manpower to deal with insurgency and almost all units of the Rhodesian Security Forces depended on its tactical effectiveness Technical challenges faced by the Air Force combined with the rate of guerrilla infiltration and the misuse of airpower to bomb guerrilla bases in neighboring countries largely negated the success of airpower

State, Land and Democracy in Southern Africa Arrigo Pallotti, Corrado Tornimbeni, 2016-03-03 Each country in southern Africa has a unique history but in all of them socio-economic inequalities and high poverty levels weaken the governments' legitimacy and represent a challenge to models of economic development One key issue appears to be the solution of the land question This vital concern affects both citizenship and democracy in the political systems of the region yet no government has shown the capacity or commitment to solve it In this volume leading European American and African scholars explore in detail the relationship between state land and democracy They examine the historical background of asset allocation and its impact on questions of nationality the definition of citizenship human rights and the current political and economic processes in southern Africa

African Perspectives on Poverty, Indigenous Knowledge Systems, and Innovation Oliver Mtapuri, 2022-11-15 This book examines the connections between poverty and innovation in Africa Through case studies and theorizations from a distinctly African perspective it stands in contrast to current theoretical works in the field which remain very much rooted in Western orientated thinking The book investigates the application of methodologies which explain numerous African contexts in connection with issues of poverty and inequality It reflects on comparative practices and praxes on the African continent including commonplace traditions and practices in alleviating poverty taken against a background of the failure of current prescriptions for poverty alleviation such as the Structural Adjustment Programmes SAPs and the Poverty Reduction Strategy Papers PRSP There is a dire need for new practical perspectives which move Africa forward using its indigenous knowledge Owing to a general lack of recorded African theories and methodologies on poverty inequality and innovation this book represents a pioneering corpus of African knowledge addressing poverty and inequality through local innovations Adopting a transdisciplinary approach it is relevant to students and scholars in development studies and economics African studies social studies political history and political economy climate studies anthropology and geography
