Zimsec Regetration For 2015:

The Conservation of Violence Tafadzwa Mushonga, 2025-07-14 The Conservation of Violence explores the governance of protected forests in Zimbabwe highlighting the structural and operational mechanism through which violent tactics are produced employed and sustained to promote nature conservation Drawing on political ecology geography and environmental politics it examines the central role of the state in conserving conservation violence The book presents contemporary cases studies of violence in conservation and introduces the concept of conservation of violence as an alternative framework for understanding the tenacity of violence in conservation areas across Africa It also delves into the constitutionalisation of environmental rights illustrating how these rights have been leveraged to enable and preserve conservation violence as well as the ways in which militarisation fosters and circulates violence By offering new ways for investigating violence in conservation the book interrogates the complexities of dismantling entrenched systems of violence and provides insights into the theoretical and practical obstacles of transforming conservation ideologies The explored include coloniality nature culture dichotomies resource governance extraction capitalism sustainability policy and conservation law regulation and policing environmental rights and environmental justice The Conservation of Violence will be a significant contribution to the fields of political ecology geography development environmental justice and the broader environmental humanities

Regime and Education in Zimbabwe Bekithemba Dube, Albert Mufanechiya, 2024-06-10 This collection focuses on the post independence educational development in Zimbabwe It shows how the ZANU PF regime has presided over the demise of education and covers a wide range of topics such as violence against teachers poor salaries student activism minority languages and curriculum innovations This volume argues that the regime has used education as a tool for repression Curriculum innovations introduced and implemented in Zimbabwe have little to do with improving the performance of the learners and more to do with stopping teachers from pushing the regime change agenda Consequently this has resulted in a nation in crisis marked with high turnover poor economy and mass exodus of teachers and learners The contributors to this volume make various suggestions which could recenter education towards addressing the experiences of the learners as opposed to being used as a tool to push repression and thwart democracy
