this intimate intellectual biography by a close friend and confidant Nubar Hovsepien offers fascinating insight into the evolution of Said's political thought Through analysis of Said's seminal works and the debates surrounding them Edward Said The Politics of an Oppositional Intellectual traces the influence of Foucault on Said and how Said eventually diverged from this influence to arrive at a more pronounced understanding of agency resistance and liberation He consequently affiliated more closely with Raymond Williams Antonio Gramsci and more contemporaneously with his friends the late Eghbal Ahmad and Ibrahim Abu Lughod Said held that it is the intellectual's responsibility to expose lies and deceptions of the holders of power A passionate advocate for the Palestinian cause his solidarity did not prevent him from launching a sustained critique of the Palestinian leadership Hovsepien charts both Said's engagement with the Palestinian national movement and his exchanges with a host of intellectuals over Palestine arguing that Said's interventions have succeeded in changing the parameters of the discourse in the humanities and among younger Jews searching for political affiliation Drawing on his diaries in which he recorded his meetings with Said as well as access to some of Said's private letters Hovsepien illuminates in rich detail the trajectory of Said's political thinking and the depth and breadth of his engagement with peers and critics over issues that continue to resonate to this day Edward Said Adel Iskandar, Adel Iskander, Hakem Rustom, 2010 This indispensable volume a comprehensive and wide ranging resource on Edward Said's life and work spans his broad legacy both within and beyond the academy The book brings together contributions from 31 luminaries to engage Said's provocative ideas

Resounding International Relations M.I. Franklin, 2016-09-23 This book explores a provocative area of inquiry for critical theory and research into world politics and popular culture music Not just because political science barely engages with anything musical but also because it is clear that many opportunities for critical scholarship and reflection on global politics and economics are present in the spaces and relationships created by organized sound It is easy to focus on the textual elements of music but there is more at stake than just the words Critical reflection on the intersections between music and politics also need to take into account the visceral and non verbal elements such as counterpoint and harmony polyphony and dissonance noise rhymes rhythms performance and the visual aural dimensions to music making Edward Said Debjani Ganguly, Ned Curthoys, 2015-03-25 This collection is an enterprise of discovery and critical inquiry into the legacy of one of late modernity's greatest public intellectuals Edward Said Noted contributors including Bill Ashcroft John Docker Lisa Lowe Hsu ming Teo and Patrick Wolfe address an array of intellectual political and cultural issues in their engagement with Said's oeuvre Exciting new scholarship highlights the ways in which humanities in the twenty first century can engage with Said's legacy which includes his imbrications of culture and imperialism his cosmopolitan critique of the idea of clash of civilisations and his belief that the intellectual needs to maintain intellectual performances on many fronts The individual chapters achieve a sense of balance between the two poles of Said's persona the brilliant and intimidating literary and music critic who invested deeply in an inclusive and democratic vision of humanism and the outspoken public intellectual who kept alive the truth of Palestine and the dangers of a settler colonial ethos Metaphor and Dialectic in Managing Diversity C. Schwabenland, 2012-06-12 Metaphor and dialectic are modes of thinking that influence the ways in which we identify what we have in common with others how we differ and how we manage this diversity to achieve organizational goals This book explores how we can become more aware of these unconscious processes and challenge stereotypes Our Civilizing Mission Nicholas Harrison, 2019 Our Civilizing Mission is both an exploration of colonial education and a response to current anxieties about the foundations of the humanities Focusing on the example of Algeria it asks what can be learned by treating colonial education not just as an example of colonialism but as a provocative uncomfortable example of education A Said Dictionary R. Radhakrishnan, 2012-03-05 This interpretive dictionary introduces the critical and theoretical world of distinguished literary and cultural critic Edward W Said through the crucial terms and concepts central to his work Compares and contrasts Said's perspective with other key theorists such as Derrida Spivak Foucault and Jameson Describes the crucial terms and concepts central to Said's work Places the development of Said's work within its historical context The Art of Record Production Simon Zagorski-Thomas, Katia Isakoff, Serge Lacasse, Sophie Stévanec, 2016-04-01 The playback of recordings is the primary means of experiencing music in contemporary society and in recent years classical musicologists and popular music theorists have begun to examine the ways in which the production of recordings affects not just the sound of the final product but also musical aesthetics more generally Record production can indeed be treated as part of the creative process of composition At the same time training in the use of these forms of technology has moved from an apprentice based system into university education Musical education and music research are thus intersecting to produce a new academic field the history and analysis of the production of recorded music This book is designed as a general introductory reader a text book for undergraduate degree courses studying the creative processes involved in the production of recorded music The aim is to introduce students to the variety of approaches and methodologies that are currently being employed by scholars in this field The book is divided into three sections covering historical approaches theoretical approaches and case studies and practice There are also three interludes of commentary on the academic contributions from leading record producers and other industry professionals This collection gives students and scholars a broad overview of the way in which academics from the analytical and practice based areas of the university system can be brought together with industry professionals to explore the ways in which this new academic field should progress Roll Over Adorno Robert Miklitsch, 2012-02-01 What happens when Theodor Adorno the champion of high classical artists such as Beethoven comes into contact with the music of Chuck Berry the de facto king of rock n roll In a series of readings and meditations Robert Miklitsch investigates the postmodern nexus between elite and popular culture as it occurs in the audiovisual fields of film music and television ranging from Gershwin to gangsta rap Tarantino to Tongues Untied Tony Soprano to Buffy the Vampire Slayer Miklitsch argues that the aim of critical theory in the new century will be to describe and explain these commodities in ever greater phenomenological detail without losing touch with those evaluative criteria that have historically sustained both Kulturkritik and classical aesthetics

A Philosophy of Schooling Julian Stern, 2018-02-19 This book provides an optimistic account of the value and role of schooling. Schooling is a common but not universal approach to education and has need of its own distinctive justification in contrast to other approaches such as home based or work based education. The book tackles and rejects the various large scale functional theories of schooling which continue to dominate current debates and policies such as schooling supporting employment and the economy or developing citizenship. Instead it argues that schooling and schools should be viewed as places to learn community within and through community. The lived reality of relationships within schools based on care and curiosity is as strong as ever and upon this foundation is built an original philosophy of schooling. This reflective book will appeal to students and scholars of philosophy of education and to all professionals concerned with schools.

Leading Beautifully Fenwick W. English, Lisa Catherine Ehrich, 2016-01-08 Leading Beautifully provides a new dimension to understanding effective leadership. Drawing from lessons in the arts and the humanities, English and Ehrich explore how educational decision making in schools can be informed by identity, personal competence, and an understanding of the field's intellectual foundations. Based on in-depth interviews of artists and educational leaders, this book provides insight into the inner world of successful leaders who have developed competencies and understandings that extend beyond the standard leadership tool box. This exciting new book explores the theory and practice of leadership connoisseurship as a human-centered endeavor and as an antidote to mechanistic business-oriented practices. The authors' well-grounded reconsideration of educational leadership will enliven and enhance any educational leader's practice.

Edward Said and Critical Decolonization Ferial J. Gbazoul, 2007 This book is dedicated to Edward Said (1935-2003), a major literary and cultural critic who has been instrumental in promoting decolonization through his analytical and critical writing. Scholarly articles tackle various aspects of Said's writing on fiction, criticism, politics, and music, and the volume includes an extensive bibliography of Edward Said. Edward Said and Critical Decolonization strives to cover the multifaceted career of Said with emphasis on his critical contribution to decolonization and resistance to hegemony. There are moving testimonies by friends and relatives, students, and colleagues which throw light on his personality. An article by Said himself on the idea of the university is published here for the first time. The volume also includes articles exploring in depth Said's political, critical, and aesthetic positions, including his views on intellectuals and secular criticism, on traveling theory, and on humanism. And Said's thought is explored in relation to other major thinkers such as Freud and Foucault.
