CHEMISTRY
PAPER 6 Practical Test

9189/6

INSTRUCTIONS

NOVEMBER 2008 SESSION

1 hour 10 minutes

Great care should be taken that any confidential information given does not reach the candidates either directly or indirectly

GENERAL

- In order to assist in making preparations for the examination, the Chemistry teacher responsible may study the question paper one working day before the examination. This copy of the question paper must be kept under security at all times before the examination; it is to be re-sealed and locked up with other copies of the question paper as soon as possible.

The teacher is strongly advised to try out all the experiments before the examination.

The 'General Apparatus' requirements and the 'Particular Requirements' are printed separately. It is especially important that the details of pages 3 and 4 are kept secure.
- The attention of Supervisors is drawn to the fact that the examination is one hour 10 minutes.
- Candidates are not allowed the use of reference material. All data for calculations will be provided in the question paper.
- Supervisors are advised to remind candidates that all substances in the examination should be treated with caution. Only those tests described in the question paper should be attempted, except where testing for a gas is necessary.
- In allocating bench spaces, the candidates must be placed in consecutive (not random) sequence by index number.

These instructions consists of 7 printed pages and 1 blank page.
