Fast Track Land Occupations in Zimbabwe Kirk Helliker, Sandra Bhatasara, Manase Kudzai

Chiweshe, 2021-01-11 This book offers the first detailed scholarly examination of the nation wide land occupations which spread across the Zimbabwean countryside from the year 2000 and led to the state's fast track land reform programme In an innovative way it highlights the decentralized character of the occupations by recognizing significant spatial variation around a number of key themes including historical memory modes of mobilization and gender A case study of the land occupations in Mashonaland Central Province based on original research adds empirical weight to the argument In further identifying and understanding the specificities and complexities of the land occupations the book also frames them by way of a nuanced comparative historical analysis of the three zimurenga It thus examines the land occupations referred to likely controversially as the third chimurenga with reference to the original anti colonial revolt from the 1890s the first chimurenga and the war of liberation in the 1970s the second chimurenga Further the book engages critically with the ruling party's chimurenga narrative and the hegemonic understanding of the land occupations within Zimbabwean studies This book is a crucial read for all scholars and students of post 2000 land and politics in Zimbabwe but also for those more broadly interested in historical comparative analyses of land struggles in Zimbabwe and beyond

Transformational Human

Resources Management in Zimbabwe Mervis Chiware, Bernard Nkala, Innocent Chirisa, 2022-09-19 This book is a stepping stone toward solving public sector human capital challenges in Zimbabwe as it equips human capital managers with solutions to key issues in the public sector In Zimbabwe the public sector human capital drives the economy as over half of the population access their services through public enterprises Government is the major agent in economic and infrastructure development as well as the production of goods and services However Zimbabwe's public service is underperforming due to poorly motivated and managed employees who do not respond to the needs of its clients This is a cause of concern as the public sector human capital is central to the overall performance of the public sector Often public sector managers and leaders lack advanced relevant and dynamic skills and knowledge to deal with human resource challenges within the New

Public Management environment It is critical for the public sector to transform its human resource management to suit twenty first century needs Effective human resource management in the public sector leads to economic growth and therefore the achievement of the Zimbabwe National Vision 2030 Therefore this book serves as a guide for public sector managers and those directly or indirectly involved in human capital management It provides in depth knowledge and guidance in effective human capital management within the context of the public sector in Zimbabwe

Literacies, Literature and Learning Karin Murris, Joanna Haynes, 2018-06-13 Literacies Literature and Learning Reading Classrooms Differently attends to pressing questions in literacy education such as the poor quality of many children s experiences as readers routine disregard for their thinking and the degrading impact of narrow skills measurement and comparison This cutting edge book moves beyond social psychological and scientific categories that focus on individualistic and linear notions of the knowing subject of progress and development and of child as less than fully human It adopts a posthumanist framework to explore new perspectives for teaching learning and research Authors from diverse disciplines and continents have collaborated to interrogate the colonising characteristics of humanism and to imagine a different more just reading of a literacy classroom Questions of de colonisation are tackled through the exploration of both education and research practices that seek to de centre the human and include the more than human Inspired by an example of high quality children s literature playful philosophical teaching and the power of the material the authors show how the chapters diffract with one another thereby opening up radical possibilities for a different doing of childhood The book hopes to help transform adult child relationships in schools and universities As such it should be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the areas of literacy philosophy law education the wider social sciences the arts health sciences and architecture It should also be essential reading for teacher educators and practitioners around the world

Regime and Education in Zimbabwe

Bekithemba Dube,Albert Mufanechiya,2024-06-10 This collection focuses on the post independence educational development in Zimbabwe It shows how the ZANU PF regime has presided over the demise of education and covers a wide range of topics such as violence against teachers poor salaries student activism minority languages and curriculum innovations This volume argues that the regime has used education as a tool for repression Curriculum innovations introduced and implemented in Zimbabwe have little to do with improving the performance of the learners and more to do with stopping teachers from pushing the regime change agenda Consequently this has resulted in a nation in crisis marked with high turnover poor economy and mass exodus of teachers and learners The contributors to this volume make various suggestions which could recenter education towards addressing the experiences of the learners as opposed to being used as a tool to push repression and thwart democracy
