Broeders, François Delerue, Frédéric Douzet, Aude Géry, 2023-05-11 This edited volume explores how artificial intelligence AI is transforming international conflict in cyberspace Over the past three decades cyberspace developed into a crucial frontier and issue of international conflict However scholarly work on the relationship between AI and conflict in cyberspace has been produced along somewhat rigid disciplinary boundaries and an even more rigid sociotechnical divide wherein technical and social scholarship are seldomly brought into a conversation This is the first volume to address these themes through a comprehensive and cross disciplinary approach With the intent of exploring the question what is at stake with the use of automation in international conflict in cyberspace through AI the chapters in the volume focus on three broad themes namely 1 technical and operational 2 strategic and geopolitical and 3 normative and legal These also constitute the three parts in which the chapters of this volume are organised although these thematic sections should not be considered as an analytical or a disciplinary demarcation This book will be of much interest to students of cyber conflict AI security studies and International Relations The Open Access version of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Unpacking the Death Penalty in ASEAN Sriprapha Petcharamesree, Mark P. Capaldi, Alan Collins, 2023-03-20 This book contributes conceptually theoretically and morally to a deeper understanding of the distinctive Asian perceptions of punishment justice and human rights Researched and prepared by scholars who have not only been conducting studies on the death penalty in the region but have also been advocating for legal reforms this edited book touches upon the different justifications for the use of capital punishment in the ASEAN region exposing the secrecy sensitivities and dilemmas that mask violations of international human rights laws The chapters bring in numerous new perspectives which have been overlooked in the traditional discourse surrounding the use of the death penalty such as that around crimes that do not meet the threshold of most serious the dignity of death row inmates and their families contradictions within religion and capital punishment and the way in which growing authoritarianism and the media are adversely influencing the public's perception and support for capital punishment in the region. In examining how public opinion shapes state policies towards the death penalty and how it varies according to different offences and different states, the authors critically analyse how the international human rights mechanisms have specifically called for ASEAN member states to refrain from extending the application of the death penalty and to limit it to the most serious crimes. Relevant to socio-legal scholars focused on crime and punishment in Southeast Asia and in the Global South more broadly, this is a landmark collection in criminology and human rights scholarship. International Wildlife Management John L. Koprowski, Paul R. Krausman, 2019-09-10. A call for wildlife conservationists to transcend the boundaries of locality, share best practices and unite with a common voice to influence global policy. Habitat loss, disease management, predator-human conflict, illegal trade: these are among the many conservation challenges faced by wildlife experts around the world. But how wildlife professionals approach these issues has historically been geographically fragmented. By providing a broad perspective on issues faced by wildlife on an international scale, the authors of International Wildlife Management make vital connections, drawing attention to underlying causes and strategies for mitigation that may look surprisingly similar from Montana to Zimbabwe. Bringing together wildlife professionals from around the globe to discuss shared challenges, International Wildlife Management examines widespread patterns of wildlife loss, covers key conservation strategies including species reintroduction, community engagement and wildlife commerce, explores the urgent concerns of climate change, habitat loss and fragmentation, invasive species and poaching, reviews major organizations involved in wildlife management at an international level, highlighting examples of cooperation among groups and nations in effective wildlife management efforts features stories of success and struggle from authors across 17 countries on 6 continents This timely and thorough overview thinks big by assessing threats to wildlife on a global scale Wild creatures don't recognize artificial geographic borders This useful compendium demonstrates that researchers and scientists should follow their lead      The Conventions on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations and Its Specialized Agencies August Reinisch, 2016 The Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations and the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the Specialized Agencies entered into force more than 60 years ago This Commentary offers for the first time a comprehensive discussion covering both Conventions in their entirety providing an overview of academic writings and jurisprudence for a legal field of particular practical relevance and gives both the academic researcher as well as the practitioner a unique source to understand the complexity of legal issues that the UN its Specialized Agencies their officials Member States representatives and experts face in today's world

Fombad, Nico Steytler, 2021-03-18 The third wave of democracy that reached African shores at the end of the Cold War brought with it a dramatic decline from 1990 onwards in dictatorships military regimes one party governments and presidents for life Multiparty democracy was at the core of the constitutional revolutions that swept through most of Africa in those watershed years However that wave is either losing momentum or receding or being reversed in its entirety This volume examines democracy and elections in Africa a focus motivated by two concerns First after 30 years it is important to take stock of the state of constitutional democracy on the continent The democratic gains of the 1990s and 2000s seem to be falling by the wayside with the evidence mounting that regimes are concealing authoritarianism under the veneer of elections doing so in an international context where populist regimes are on the rise and free and fair multiparty elections are consequently no longer a given It is becoming a battle to protect and retain constitutional democracy The second reason for this volume's focus on democracy and elections is that multiparty democracy is essential for the proper functioning of the state in addressing the major problems facing Africa internal conflict inequality and lack of development and poor governance and corruption The focus of this volume is thus on how competitive politics or multiparty democracy can be realized and how through competition such politics could lead to better policy and practice outcomes African Indigenous Medical Knowledge and Human Health Charles Wambebe, 2018-01-29 Despite the relevance of and empirical evidence for African Traditional Medicine based on African Indigenous Medical Knowledge AIMK research and development of new phytomedicines from this continent has been slow African Indigenous Medical Knowledge and Human Health aims to provide a catalyst for health innovations based on the rich African biodiversity and AIMK The book documents some of the success stories from the continent related to AIMK and serves as a one step reference for all professionals interested in the research and development of medical interventions including pharmacognosists ethnobiologists botanists phytochemists pharmacologists and medical scientists The African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights Rachel Murray, 2019-02-14 The African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights ACHPR is the principle regional human rights treaty for the African continent Adopted in 1981 there is now a significant body of jurisprudence and interpretation by its African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights and the recently established African Court This volume provides a comprehensive article by article legal analysis of the provisions of the Charter as it draws upon the documents adopted by the African Commission including resolutions case law and concluding observations Where relevant case law adopted by the African Court on Human and Peoples Rights and that of other sub regional courts and tribunals and domestic courts in Africa are also incorporated The book examines not only the substantive rights in the African Charter but also the work of the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights and provides a full examination of its mandate A critical analysis of each of the provisions of the ACHPR is led principally by the jurisprudence and documentation of the African Commission and African Court The text also identifies the overall development of the ACHPR within the broader regional and international human rights legal arena Carbon Politics and the Failure of the Kyoto Protocol Gerald Kutney, 2014-02-03 Carbon Politics and the Failure of Kyoto charts the framework and political evolution of the Kyoto Protocol negotiations and examines the ensuing failure of the international community to adequately address climate change The focus is not on the science or consequences of climate change but on the political gamesmanship of the major players throughout the UNFCCC negotiation process More than an updated history of the subject matter this book provides a detailed study of the carbon targets which became the biggest influencing factor on the reaction of nations to Kyoto s binding agreements The book provides an in depth analysis of the leading nations motives including the US China and Germany in entering the negotiations in particular their economic interests Despite the effort to combat climate change in politics that the negotiations represent the book concludes that an agreement which requires almost 200 very different nations to agree on a single protocol is doomed to failure The book offers a novel contribution to our understanding of this failure and suggests alternative frameworks and policies to tackle what is arguably the most complex political issue of our time Women's Rights and Religious Law

Fareda Banda, Lisa Fishbayn Joffe, 2016-02-12 The three Abrahamic faiths have dominated religious conversations for millennia but the relations between state and religion are in a constant state of flux This relationship may be configured in a number of ways Religious norms may be enforced by the state as part of a regime of personal law or conversely religious norms may be formally relegated to the private sphere but can be brought into the legal realm through the private acts of individuals Enhanced recognition of religious tribunals or religious doctrines by civil courts may create a hybrid of these two models One of the major issues in the reconciliation of changing civic ideals with religious tenets is gender equality and this is an ongoing challenge in both domestic and international affairs Examining this conflict within the context of a range of issues including marriage and divorce violence against women and children and women's political participation this collection brings together a discussion of the Abrahamic religions to examine the role of religion in the struggle for women's equality around the world The book encompasses both theory and practical examples of how law can be used to negotiate between claims for gender equality and the right to religion It engages with international and regional human rights norms and also national considerations within countries This book will be of great relevance to scholars and policy makers with an interest in law and religion gender studies and human rights law
