Zimsec June 2history Paper For O Level:

Papers Presented to the Conference on Zimbabwe, Held 21-22 June, 1980 at the University of Leeds ,1980

Developing a Transformation Agenda for Zimbabwe Shari Eppel,2009 Sets out the political and economic constraints followed by a discussion of the prospects of transitional justice processes Puts forth suggestions for a successful economic stabilization and key issues for security sector reform notable how to limit the strong military involvement in politics Resources in Education ,2001 The Oxfam Poverty Report Kevin Watkins,1995 Fifty years ago the United Nations Charter proclaimed universal rights to shared prosperity peace and security How far has that vision of world citizenship been realised Despite advances in human welfare and technology there is today a growing polarisation between rich and poor One in four of the world s people live in absolute poverty unable to meet their basic needs armed conflict is affecting millions of people and the global environment is under threat Yet there is a failure of political will to address the silent emergency of poverty The Oxfam Poverty Report draws on Oxfam s experience of working in over 70 countries to examine the causes of poverty and conflict It identifies the structural forces which deny people their basic rights and gives a wide range of examples of the ways in which men and women are bringing about positive change at every level from the household to the international arena Oxfam believes that it is time to renew the UN vision of universal basic rights The Report concludes by proposing policy and institutional reforms which would transform international institutions and trading relations and calls for a new commitment to work together to eradicate poverty and bring sustainable peace and security for all the world s people

Manufacturing in Colonial Zimbabwe, 1890-1979 Victor Muchineripi Gwande,2022 A key book on Zimbabwe s industrial policy and the relationship between manufacturing the state and economic interest groups Under pressure from local manufacturers and recognising that industrial policy was a legitimate instrument for development on 1 July 2016 to boost domestic production the Government of Zimbabwe passed Statutory Instrument 64 which limited imports and foreign manufactures allowing local producers satisfy demand Zimbabwe s neighbours immediately protested that this flouted the Southern Africa Development Community SADC s Protocol on Trade which aimed to increase trade across borders at regional and national levels This matter revived the conversation about protectionism as an instrument of industrial policy Protectionism in Africa is neither limited to Zimbabwe nor is it a new phenomenon This book brings a historical perspective to the conversation by exploring the policy proposals and political pressure exerted by manufacturing businesses on the trajectory of industrialisation in colonial Zimbabwe and reveals that the major point of contention between the state industry and other economic interest groups in this period was protection Tracing changing attitudes to the country s political economy the author examines the way in which industrialists advanced their interests through the Association of Rhodesian Industries ARnI and other trade bodies and shows how this pitted them not only against the state but other blocs of capital farmers miners and commerce He examines the impact of the post war Customs Union Agreement with South Africa manufacturing strategy under UDI and examines the impact of Southern Rhodesia's development on its trading partners in South Africa, Zambia and Malawi. Casting new light on the continuing debate on regional trade, this important book adds to our understanding of the settler colony's economic, business and political history in colonial Zimbabwe and reveals that the major point of contention between the state, industry and other economic interest groups in this period was protection. Tracing changing attitudes to the country's political economy, the author examines the way in which industrialists advanced their interests through the Association of Rhodesian Industries (ARI) and other trade bodies and shows how this pitted them not only against the state but other blocs of capital: farmers, miners and commerce. He examines the impact of the post-war Customs Union Agreement with South Africa, manufacturing strategy under UDI and examines the impact of Southern Rhodesia's development on its trading partners in South Africa, Zambia and Malawi. South Africa Zambia and Malawi Casting new light on the continuing debate on regional trade this important book adds to our understanding of the settler colony s economic business and political history Polarization and Transformation in Zimbabwe Erin McCandless,2011-08-16 Social movements and civic organizations often face profound strategy dilemmas that can hamper their effectiveness and prevent them from contributing to transformative change and peace In Zimbabwe two particular dilemmas have fed into and fueled destructive processes of political polarization dividing society leadership and decision makers well beyond its borders As conceptualized in this study the first is whether to prioritize political or economic rights in efforts to bring about nation wide transformative change rights or redistribution The second is whether and how to work with government and or donors given their political economic and social agendas participation or resistance This book investigates these issues through two social movement organizations the National Constitutional Assembly and the Zimbabwe National War Veterans Association and the movements they led to achieve constitutional change and radical land redistribution Through in depth case study analysis and peace and conflict impact assessment spanning the years 1997 2010 lessons are drawn for activists practitioners policy makers and scholars interested in depolarizing concepts underpinning polarizing discourses transcending strategy dilemmas and understanding how social action can better contribute to transformative change and peace Zimbabwe in transition Gary Bland,2010-09-28 The world s attention has remained focused on critical national events in Zimbabwe as the country has moved from the turmoil of 2008 to the establishment of the current Inclusive Government In the process the country s 90 newly elected local governments have been largely ignored This brief summarizes our effort to close that informational gap It provides the results of our extensive research on local governance in Zimbabwe from May to June 2009 Through survey interviews with more than 250 local officials in 15 local authorities we examined four areas First we found that local administration officials are much better educated and more experienced than local elected officials which has significant ramifications for local governance Second we discovered that local officials believe that public participation in local government is strong However we found that citizen involvement is actually quite weak Third local authorities are doing their best to operate with minimal resources Financial transfers from the central government dried up long ago and because of the economic situation revenue generation is poor Finally our research captures the poor state of public services especially health care and basic infrastructure We include some ideas for reform and recovery in the conclusion Zimbabwe National Bibliography ,1990 Kanyenze: Zimbabwe: The Link Between Politics and ,2023-03-20 In this accessible and authoritative book Godfrey Kanyenze provides a comprehensive and far reaching analysis of the socio economic development in Zimbabwe in light of the expanding authoritarianism and the ongoing destruction of democratic institutions during the four decades after independence Kanyenze describes the various phases of the socio economic development starting with 1980 when the people of Zimbabwe saw their hard won independence and new democracy as a promise for a International African Bibliography ,1994 Infrastructures for Peace in Sub-Saharan Africa Mediel Hove, Geoff Harris, 2019-06-14 Cultures of violence are characteristic of many countries in sub Saharan Africa and attempts to move towards cultures of peace have often proved difficult and ineffectual And yet the wide variations in levels of violence within and between countries show that it is not inevitable rather it is the result of choices made at individual community and societal levels This book examines the potential of peace infrastructures as vehicles to strengthen and spread progress towards cultures of peace Peace infrastructures vary hugely in sophistication and level The examples examined in this book range from tiny structures which help resolve conflicts between individuals and within community organisations peace committees which serve local communities peace education and peace club programmes in schools mediation mechanisms to prevent election violence and to ministries of peace to coordinate government and non government efforts in peacemaking and peacebuilding The overall finding is that the development of peace infrastructures at all levels has great potential to build cultures of peace 1 It is the only book available which documents the experience and potential of nonviolence in post independence sub Saharan Africa 2 It makes a persuasive case for the development of various peace infrastructures in order to make peace sustainable 3 It explains how strategic planning can be utilised both to bring about change and to institutionalise it Natural Resources and Sustainability Daniel E. Vasey, Sarah E. Fredericks, Lei Shen, Shirley Thompson, 2011-12-08

Natural Resources and Sustainability explores how human needs and desires from sustenance and shelter to recreation and travel have spurred the consumption of Earth's material resources Scientists ecologists and other expert authors present the historical impact of commercial activities in industries as varied as fisheries agriculture energy and mineral extraction discuss the global distribution and use of renewable and nonrenewable resources and focus on innovative approaches for the future Readers will learn why renewal doesn't necessarily put a resource beyond harm and why the no free lunch adage applies to all natural resources AF Press Clips, 1987 AF Press Clips United States Department of State. Go Back to Where You Came From Sasha Polakow-Suransky, 2017-10-16 From Europe to the United States and beyond opportunistic politicians have exploited economic crisis terrorist attacks and an influx of refugees to bring hateful and reactionary views from the margins of political discourse into the corridors of power This climate has already helped propel Donald Trump to the White House pushed Britain out of the European Union and put Marine Le Pen within striking distance of the French presidency Sasha Polakow Suransky's on the ground reportage and interviews with the rising stars of the new right tell the story of how we got here tracing the global rise of anti immigration politics and the ruthlessly effective rebranding of Europe's new far right as defenders of Western liberal values Go Back to Where You Came From is an indispensable account of why xenophobia went mainstream in countries known historically as defenders of human rights and models of tolerance The Annual Report of the National Museums and Monuments of Zimbabwe for the Year Ended 30th June ... National Museums and Monuments (Zimbabwe)., 1980 Shades of Globalization in Three Early Childhood Settings Ailie

Cleghorn, Larry Prochner, 2010-01-01 Shades of Globalization casts an ethnographic eye on the interplay between local and global influences on the organization and activities within three early childhood settings each of which is located in a context of rapid social change. Stemming from a four year study of early childhood thought and practice each of the eight chapters touches on a different aspect of the three case study preschools one each in India South Africa and an aboriginal community in Canada. The authors take a critical perspective on taken for granted assumptions about what constitutes the most appropriate preschool experience for children querying for example the meaning of school readiness within local communities. This book will appeal to those who have an interest in the diversity of children's lives and preschool experiences throughout the world: education and social policy makers, teacher educators, teachers, pre-service student teachers, day care workers, parents, community leaders, governmental and non governmental organizations and consultants, early childhood program planners and evaluators, community development workers, university lecturers and developmental psychologists.

Ailie Cleghorn is Professor of Education at Concordia University in Montreal. She teaches in the Educational Studies Masters Program and conducts research that is grounded in her field of comparative sociology of education. Earlier publications include Issues in African Education: Sociological Perspectives with Ali A Abdi (Palgrave MacMillan) and Missing the Meaning: The Development and Use of Print and Non Print Text Materials in Diverse School Settings with Alan Peacock (Palgrave MacMillan).

Larry Prochner is Professor of Early Childhood Education at the University of Alberta. His research centres on the historical and comparative study of education. Recent publications include The History of Early Childhood Education in Canada, Australia and New Zealand (University of British Columbia Press) and Early Childhood Care and Education: Theory and Practice with Prerana Mohite (Concept Publishers). The Afterword is written by Professor Jessica Ball, School of Child and Youth Care, University of Victoria, British Columbia. Professor Ball is the Principal Investigator on projects in the Early Childhood Development Intercultural Partnerships program at the University of Victoria. She is also Coordinator of First Nations Partnership Programs, a two year diploma program in early childhood education and youth care delivered through partnerships with Indigenous communities and post secondary institutions in western Canada. She has worked extensively to protect cultural diversity and support development of community based services to promote optimal child health and development.

Black Power in the Caribbean Kate Quinn, 2014-01-20 Black Power studies have been dominated by the North American story but after decades of scholarly neglect the growth of New Black Power Studies has revitalized the field. Central to the current agenda are a critique of the narrow domestic lens through which U.S. Black Power has been viewed and a call for greater attention to international and transnational dimensions of the movement. Black Power in the Caribbean masterfully answers this call. This volume brings together a host of renowned scholars who offer new analyses of the Black Power demonstrations in Jamaica and Trinidad and Tobago as well as of the little studied cases of Guyana, Barbados, Antigua, Bermuda, the Dutch Caribbean and the U.S. Virgin Islands. The essays in this collection highlight the unique origins and causes of Black Power mobilization in the Caribbean its relationship to Black Power in the United States and the local and global aspects of the movement ultimately situating the historical roots and modern legacies of Caribbean Black Power in a wider international context Field Staff Reports ,1990 Rural Development Abstracts ,1994
