The Digital Divide and Electronic Voting in Third World Countries Teckshawer Tom,2023-07-26 The objective of this book was to establish if Zimbabwe has the potential and Information Communication Technology ICT capacity to implement e voting methods in the country s often discredited electoral process The study adopted qualitative methods and secondary data collected from relevant reports questionnaires randomly distributed to the general populace as well as interviews with Zimbabwe Electoral Commission ZEC and the Postal and Telecommunications Regulatory Authority of Zimbabwe POTRAZ officials The book highlights the global and national status of ICT adoption in Zimbabwe which is the key driver to the successful implementation of e voting internet coverage and use in the country The research also investigated how Zimbabwe citizens in the diaspora through new Internet platforms can exercise their right to participate in the country s political discourse and vote using the e voting model The findings indicate that though it can be done it is not being practiced Hence citizens in the diaspora are being excluded from the electoral process

The Anatomy of Inclusive Cities Hangwelani Hope Magidimisha-Chipungu,Lovemore Chipungu,2023-04-27 Creating cities inclusive of immigrants in Southern Africa is both a balancing act and a protracted process that requires positive attitudes informed by accommodative institutional frameworks This book revolves around two key contemporary issues that cities around the globe are trying to achieve viz the need to build inclusive cities and the need to accommodate immigrants The search for building inclusive cities is an on going challenge which most cities are grappling with This challenge is complicated by the need to include immigrants who are always side lined by policies of host countries This book discusses the host immigrant interface by providing a detailed insight of anchors of inclusive cities and a holistic picture of who immigrants are These are then discussed contextually within the Southern African region where insight into selected cities is provided to some depth using empirical evidence The discussion on inclusive cities and immigrants is a universal narrative targeting practitioners and students in town and regional planning urban studies urban politics migration and international relations The Southern African region once more provides an opportunity to further interrogate and understand the dynamics of immigration in selected cities This book will also be of interest to policy makers dealing with challenges of inclusivity in the light of immigrants

Inventing the New Dispensation in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Lovemore Togarasei, Joram

Tarusarira, 2024-11-14 How does a regime whose members have been actively involved in the previous one appropriate and deploy religious ideas and rhetoric to cast itself as born again and attractive Exploring intersections between politics religion and economics this book examines invention of Zimbabwe's New Dispensation the regime of Emmerson D Mnangagwa and how it has aimed to separate itself from the previous regime of Robert G Mugabe Utilizing the concept of invention contributors reflect on how Mnangagwa and his publicists deploy religious ideas concepts and rhetoric in the quest for legitimacy in a heavily contested political field The book also reflects on the ways opposing political actors have utilized the same template in their quests to secure power The contributors interrogate the use of time theological ideas and religious practices to separate Mnangagwa's regime from Mugabe's This book provides insight into how religious rhetoric is used not only to gain but also to contest legitimacy in Zimbabwe's political sphere

Regime and Education in Zimbabwe

Bekithemba Dube, Albert Mufanechiya, 2024-06-10 This collection focuses on the post independence educational development in Zimbabwe It shows how the ZANU PF regime has presided over the demise of education and covers a wide range of topics such as violence against teachers poor salaries student activism minority languages and curriculum innovations This volume argues that the regime has used education as a tool for repression Curriculum innovations introduced and implemented in Zimbabwe have little to do with improving the performance of the learners and more to do with stopping teachers from pushing the regime change agenda Consequently this has resulted in a nation in crisis marked with high turnover poor economy and mass exodus of teachers and learners The contributors to this volume make various suggestions which could recenter education towards addressing the experiences of the learners as opposed to being used as a tool to push repression and thwart democracy
