National Action Plan for Orphans and Vulnerable Children ,2011      2017 Regional Overview of Food Security and Nutrition in Africa Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2018-04-17 This year s edition of the Africa Regional Overview of Food Security and Nutrition reports that after a prolonged decline hunger appears to be on the rise In sub Saharan Africa there were about 224 million undernourished people in sub Saharan Africa in 2016 up from 200 million in 2015 In many countries the worsening situation in 2015 and 2016 can be attributed to adverse climatic conditions often linked to the El Ni o phenomenon resulting in poor harvests and the loss of livestock Conflict sometimes in combination with drought or floods also contributed to severe food insecurity in several countries Lower commodity prices and a difficult global economic environment have furthermore contributed to the worsening food security situation The worrying trend in undernourishment is not yet reflected in the series of indicators referring to nutritional outcomes in the region with the prevalence of stunting and wasting for children under the age of five continuing to decline gradually However progress towards the World Health Assembly global nutrition targets has been generally poor While a relatively large proportion of countries are on track to meeting the target for overweight in children the rates for adult obesity are soaring in all regions and are especially high in Southern Africa The report also finds that across the board countries have developed and are developing policy frameworks and investment plans that are aligned or efforts are being made to align them with the goals of the Malabo Declaration and SDG 2 Through CAADP policy processes are coherent and this initiative has raised the profile of agriculture and heavily influenced agricultural policy at regional and national levels However the worrying trends in undernourishment underline the need for even greater efforts to achieve the SDG 2 by 2030 The thematic part of the report focuses on the food security and nutrition conflict nexus Conflict is not only an increasingly important cause of food insecurity and malnutrition but food insecurity and malnutrition can also become conflict multipliers Addressing the causes of conflicts and supporting food security and livelihoods can help build resilience to conflict and contribute to sustaining peace      Military Assistance on Request and the Use of Force Erika De Wet,2020-03-26 In countries such as Syria Iraq South Sudan and Yemen internationally recognized governments embroiled in protracted armed conflicts and with very little control over their territory have requested direct military assistance from other states These requests are often accepted by the other states despite the circumvention of the United Nations Security Council and extensive violation of international humanitarian law and human rights In this book Erika De Wet examines the authority entitled to extend a request for or consent to direct military assistance as well as the type of situations during which such assistance may be requested notably whether it may be requested during a civil war Ultimately De Wet addresses the question of if and to what extent the proliferation of military assistance on the request of a recognized government is changing the rules in international law applying to the use of force      The JSE Handbook ,1996      Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015,

Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events      Trade Policy Review - Sierra Leone World Trade Organization, 2017-11-13 Each Trade Policy Review consists of three parts a report by the government under review a report written independently by the WTO Secretariat and the concluding remarks by the chair of the Trade Policy Review Body A highlights section provides an overview of key trade facts 15 to 20 new review titles are published each year The reviews consist of detailed chapters examining the trade policies and practices of the member and describing trade policy making institutions and the macroeconomic situation these chapters are preceded by the Secretariat s Summary Observations which summarize the report and presents the Secretariat s perspective on the member s trade policies The Secretariat report and the member s policy statement are published after the review meeting along with the minutes of the meeting and the text of the Chairperson s Concluding Remarks      ICAO Bulletin International Civil Aviation Organization, 1989      The Official SADC Trade, Industry, and Investment Review , 2007      The New York Times Index , 2008      Country Trade Sourcebook , 2007
