

In 2025, Pope Francis declared a Jubilee Year of Hope...

Today, the Church celebrates both the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Jubilee of Priests - a providential convergence that invites priests to rediscover the source of their vocation. St. Josemaria's homily Finding Peace in the Heart of Christ offers a timely reflection on the Heart of Jesus as a wellspring of strength, humility, and self-giving love. In this Jubilee Year of Hope, his words call priests to renewal through deeper union with Christ.

Time Readings for Solemnities of the Lord in Ordinary Time How Christ Saves Souls—with Us: The Mystery of Co-Redemption Fr. Michael E. Giesler, 2022-04-08 There is an important truth too many Christians don't know we are called to actively participate in the redemption Christ won for us on the Cross. This is at once simple and complex: how can we be co-redeemers? With a clear and lively style How Christ Saves Souls with Us: The Mystery of Co-Redemption calls the everyday Catholic to embrace their role as a partaker in Christ's redeeming grace. Fr. Michael Giesler uses sound theological and scriptural backing to illustrate in practical terms how each of us can truly be another Christ. Christ Himself, ipse Christus, in our words and actions. Jesus shared His redeeming power with His followers from the beginning of the Church, and He continues doing so throughout the centuries. We see co-redemptive grace in the lives of the Church's greatest saints, but it also radiates in the lives of countless unknown and unsung followers of Christ in many different places and times. A little known topic with a transforming message, How Christ Saves Souls with Us shows us that by bringing Christ's truth and joy to society, we help to establish His kingdom on earth. We aid in preparing for His glorious second coming, the Parousia, when He will establish His definitive Kingdom, the new Heavens and earth, where God will be all in all. Rejoice and Be Glad! Fr. Mark Toups, 2024-11-21 Find lasting peace at the manger this Christmas season. In this new installment of the Rejoice series, Fr. Mark Toups guides you on a transformative journey through the Christmas season, reflecting on significant scriptural events following Jesus' birth. Drawing inspiration from the Holy Family, shepherds, and magi, you'll learn to recognize God's presence and find peace that only He can provide. Each day, in a few short pages, Fr. Toups provides you with aids to help guide your prayer. A word focus on a single word each day to help you enter more deeply into the theme of that week's readings. A reflection. Read a short reflection and meditate on Scripture. A prompt. Journal every day. Write down your thoughts and the stirrings in your heart as Our Lord speaks to you this Christmas. Emmanuel is with you, whether your life is tranquil or troubled, messy or merry. He wants to give you peace. Join the Holy Family, shepherds, and magi at the manger, and don't be afraid to open your heart to the joy of His presence this Christmas season. 26 Champions of the Rosary Donald H. Calloway, MIC, Read this book and learn all about the greatest heroes of the rosary in Church history. Prepare yourself to join their ranks and respond to the challenges of the present age by taking up the spiritual sword of Heaven, the rosary.

Divine Insights Lucas Buch, 2021 This book focuses on the interior insights that St. Josemaría Escrivá received in his early priestly life. Many of these insights were the fruits of his meditations on Scripture, with a focus on God as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, as well as the fruits of a deep devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary. The author points out that we, much like St. Josemaría, can also be vessels of perceptive interior insights. Our diligent seeking and pondering can prepare our soul to receive these lights. Themes include God's fatherhood, the sense and strengthening of divine filiation, abandoning oneself in God's hands, identifying with Christ through the Cross, having real friendship with Jesus Christ, and placing oneself into His wounds in order to serve others, listening to the Holy Spirit, and seeking Jesus through a strong devotion to His Blessed Mother Go to Joseph: Meditations with saint Joseph Patricio Olmos, 2021-09-28 With his extraordinary figure and so close to our human condition Pope Francis Saint Joseph is very close to those of us ordinary people without for this reason our lives lack of importance for God and others The Holy Patriarch teaches us much more than what may appear at first glance It shows us paths of holiness faith prayer love of family humility workmanship detachment This book offers meditations on the biblical text about God's man of trust they are designed for those who do a few days of retreat as well as for the personal prayer and spiritual reading

The Roots of Pope Francis's Social and Political Thought Thomas R. Rourke, 2016-08-30 In The Roots of Pope Francis's Social and Political Thought Thomas R. Rourke traces the development of Pope Francis's thinking from his time as a Jesuit provincial through today Meticulously researched the book draws on decades of previously untranslated writings from Father Jorge Bergoglio SJ who went on to become archbishop and cardinal this volume also references his recent writings as pope The book explores the deepest roots of Pope Francis's thinking beginning with the experience of the Jesuit missions in Argentina 1500s 1700s showing how both the success and tragedy of the missions profoundly formed his social and political views Subsequent chapters explore influences from the Second Vatican Council through today regarding culture politics and economics In Pope Francis's understanding there is a perpetual tension between the attempts to redeem the social order through the Gospel and the never ending attempts to dominate peoples and their lands through a variety of imperial projects that come from the powerful What emerges is a profoundly Christian approach to the social political and economic problems of our time The Pope is portrayed as an original thinker independent of ideological currents rooted in the Gospels and the tradition of Catholic social thought In a time of division and violence the writings of Pope Francis often point to the path of peace and justice

Jesus and the Jubilee: The Biblical Roots of the Year of God's Favor John Bergsma, 2024-12-01 Jubilee means joy a joy that's not fleeting a joy that lasts In biblical times a jubilee was a time to rejoice And this is still the case when the Church announces a jubilee In Jesus and the Jubilee biblical scholar John Bergsma gets to the roots of the jubilee showing how this practice was established in order to preserve freedom family and the fullness of God's blessing for the ancient Israelites But what the Israelites were promised by God and experienced partially was truly fulfilled by Jesus As Jesus and the Jubilee reveals the Catholic Church is the perpetual jubilee offering redemption release from spiritual bondage return to our true home and family and rest in God's fullness Discover how the jubilee is the very center of Jesus's mission and how we can fully participate in this ongoing year of favor of Catholic identity and doctrine have profoundly shaped the politics surrounding contraception and human trafficking in the Philippines. In the global politics of morality the Catholic Church is one of the world's foremost practitioners shaping not only the language of transnational moral norms but also how they are implemented at the domestic level. Through norm thickening connecting transnational norms to deeply held local identities and religious teachings and institutionalizing those connections in policies, practices and organizations the book argues that the Church can build a more coherent and locally credible moral basis for transnational norms than international consensus alone. While in some cases this can strengthen transnational norms and facilitate cooperation between the Church and the government in other cases it can instead harden opposition to those norms and facilitate polarization with significant consequences for Philippine society. Drawing on field interviews in the Philippines as well as Vatican and UN documents Chow paints a compelling picture of how one of the world's largest religions shapes the global moral landscape. This book will be of particular interest to students of religion, Catholic theology, human rights, international relations theory and Asian studies and anyone seeking to better understand the transnational politics of morality.

The Catholic Church and Transnational Moral Norms in the Philippines Jonathan T. Chow, 2025-06-30 Jonathan T. Chow explores the Roman Catholic Church's engagement with transnational human rights norms and how its understandings

Family Virtues Jose M. Martin, 2017-03-31 Helping young people to form their character is an exciting endeavor that God has entrusted first of all to parents. It requires delicacy and strength, patience and joy and is not lacking in challenges. It means helping children develop a concern for others, teaching them to form relationships that are truly human and overcoming the fear of commitment. Educating children involves preparing them for the future, a future that will always involve difficulties but also joys. In the end it means preparing each child to respond fully to God's plan for his or her life. The twenty-one essays contained in this book will help parents in this great task. Whether dealing with adolescent development issues, discipline, modesty, passing on the faith or other parenting matters, this book covers it all with supernatural outlook and common sense. Written in an open-ended style that empowers parents to find their own solutions, it can be read straight through from beginning to end or by skipping to specific chapters according to one's interests and needs. Both young parents and those with more experience will benefit from the insights found here.

Education in the Family J. M. Martin (Editor), In the context of the Synod on the Family convoked by Pope Francis the 21 articles on the family and educating children available on www.opusdei.org are now being offered as an eBook for smartphones and tablets.

Humanism in Economics and Business Domènec Melé, Martin Schlag, 2015-02-25 This book offers different perspectives on Humanism as developed by Catholic Social Teaching with a particular focus on its relevance in economics and business. The work is composed of three sections covering what is meant by Christian Humanism, how it links with economic activity and its practical relevance in the business world of today It reviews the historical development of Christian Humanism and discusses the arguments which justify it in the current cultural context and how it contributes to human development The book argues that the current recognition of human dignity and the existence of innate human rights are both ultimately rooted in Christian Humanism It sets out the importance of the concept for economic activities and how Christian Humanism can serve as a metaphysical foundation and ethical basis for a social market economy Applying Christian Humanism to business leads to the centrality of the person in organizations and to seeing the company as a community of persons working together for the common good Three thought provoking case studies illustrate the wide reaching positive impacts of applying Christian Humanism in the organization

Bl. John Duns Scotus and His Mariology ,2009 Commemoration of the Seventh Centenary of His Death The hope of this Symposium is to set in relief the importance of the mystery of Mary in understanding the thought of Bl John Duns Scotus a mystery so much neglected by many students of Scotus today as in yesteryear Without that profound veneration of the Immaculate Virgin and an appreciation of her uniqueness as the Immaculate Conception the theology and metaphysics of Scotus will remain merely the abstruse delight of an elite academy and Mariology will be lacking its securest instrument of reflection

The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2007 We Are at War Vitalis Chi. Nwaneri,2012-10-09 OUR MISSION IN THESE SIX BOOKS 1 Growing Decline in World Peace We started our long journey in these six Books with an expression of concern over the growing decline in world peace Our Mission throughout our Six Books had therefore focused on our views on how the state of World Peace can be advanced 2 Enhancing unity between Christianity and Secularity We expressed at the beginning of our first Book that one major source of the growing decline in world peace is the on going wars and crises between the Religious and Secular worlds of today This source of global crises had been acknowledged in a recent conference of global Religious Leaders held in Assisi at the invitation of Pope Benedict XVI The Conference participants resolved unanimously to address this source of crises in world peace Global Secular Leaders had also expressed much concern on the growing decline in world peace They did so again at the last meeting of the United Nations General Assembly in New York 3 Our Mission to contribute to Pope Benedict XVI's New Evangelization In our view the recent launching of the New Evangelization by Pope Benedict XVI reflected in part the resolution of Religious Leaders in the Assisi Conference to find ways of addressing the growing decline in world peace due partly to Religious conflicts with Secularity across the world The Pope called on all Lay members of the Catholic Church and Christians in general to contribute to the success of the Popes New Evangelization PCNE As we expressed throughout our six books our mission in these Books is to respond to the call by Pope Benedict XVI 4 Military and Secular Perspectives on the Religious and Secular Peace We stated clearly from the start that our contribution would reflect on the military and secular aspects of the growing conflicts between Christianity and Secularity using the global experience in both sectors by our Author throughout his career We had to take these perspectives because we must identify the source leadership and strategies in the wars and conflicts between the Religious and Secular worlds Unless we know the leaders in the conflicts and their missions we cannot achieve any progress in resolving these wars and crises and enhance the level of world peace 5 My Background A few words of introduction on my background may enable the Reader understand my perspectives in these Books I started the project of writing the Books because I am convinced that I can contribute to the PCNE by bringing my African background in Nigeria education at the London School of Economics and exposure to global secular governance through my position as a former Economic Adviser with The U K Government and a Senior Economist at The World Bank 6 Is anything wro
