Cool Conduct Helmut Lethen, 2002-03-27 Lethen brilliantly interprets New Objectivity as a tactical response to the need for a code of conduct in an age of anxiety about values and normative judgments. Moving effortlessly between analysis of philosophical texts and literary works, he charts an increasingly popular field of cultural studies: how cultural discourses shape behavior. One of the most original and daring contributions to Weimar scholarship and to the study of modernity in general in a decade.

Anton Kaes, University of California, Berkeley. Lethen is probably the most original and outstanding scholar writing in German today about Weimar literature and culture. He traces the figure of the cold persona as part of a broader discourse of anthropological, ethical, and aesthetic dimensions. The book is written in a personal voice, witty, lucid, and unpretentious.

Miriam Hansen, University of Chicago.

Sharon C. Seelig, 2021-12-14 The poetry of Herbert Vaughan and Traherne represents an attempt to shape their lives and verse around the fact of divine presence and influence writes Sharon Seelig The relationship between belief and expression in these three metaphysical poets is the subject of this deeply perceptive study Each of these poets held to some extent the notion of dual reality of the world as indicative of a higher reality but their responses to this tradition vary greatly from the ongoing struggle between God and the poet of The Temple which finally transforms the materials of everyday life and worship to the more difficult unity of Silex Scintillans with its tension between illumination and resignation to the ecstatic proclamations of Thomas Traherne whose sense of divine reality at first seems so strong as to destroy the characteristic metaphysical tension between this world and the next Seelig's study proceeds from individual poems to the whole work exploring the relation of cosmology and religious experience to poetic form      Slippery Pastimes Joan Nicks, Jeannette
