

How to introduce yourself in the interview?

You're in the reception of your dream company for a job interview, dressed in the best formal you had with good hair and polished shoes, but one thing in mind will you be able to crack this interview and get this JOB?

These happen almost to everyone and it is very common. Few things are quite as dismaying as job interviews. You approach them knowing that unless you match the employer's expectations you're not going to land that sweet gig. Luckily, there are plenty of things you can do to ensure you'll make a good impression when the stakes are high. Below are few points that one should ponder while giving any interview.

- Introduce yourself to the interviewer in a professional way.
- Be straight and valid when describing you in a job interview.
- Practice your reply but make one thing sure it should be natural and not sound rehearsed.
- Tell the only information you want to convey. Begin by talking about past job experiences and achievement.
- Mention your strengths and abilities.
- Days before the interview check the details of the desired company properly on company's website and glassdoor.
- Make sure you avoid politics or anything potentially divisive.
- Tell them how your skills have made a distinction in your professional life.

And at last let's talk about what you don't have to tell the interviewer when they ask you "Tell Me Some Thing About Yourself". Most people get nervous & they don't
