Innovation in Africa Fernando dos Santos, 2024-01-03

Technology is key to the development of nations yet is not freely or easily accessible This book aims to contribute to the debate about empowering Africa to play a more meaningful role in the global innovation system It emphasizes the important role of technology transfer in assisting Least Developed Countries LDCs in Africa to expand their technological capabilities The book surveys IP and innovation policies in Africa s past and present providing theoretical policy and legal frameworks as well as specific measures that will help African LDCs It proposes solutions to overcome challenges currently posed by inefficiencies in the flow of technologies to LDCs and by the fragmentation of the international legal framework that regulates technology transfer Notably the book proposes maximal implementation of the TRIPS Agreement provisions related to technology transfer and recommends the adoption of a uniform international legal instrument under the framework of the WTO to be designated as the Agreement on Trade Related Issues of Technology Transfer and Innovation TRITTI The book advocates for proactivity from African LDCs and urges them to cultivate environments that attract and enable technology transfer into their respective states This will facilitate technological learning accelerate absorption and adaptation fit to an African context and will catapult African LDCs down the road of innovation Parliamentary Debates, House of the People India. Parliament. Lok Sabha,2009-12-14 Inside Indian Schools Vimala Ramachandran,2018-03-05 After 70 years after independence the tragic reality of Indian schools is that who we are where we live how much we earn and our gender influences the kind of education we will get In this collection of essays the author explores the contours of a school system that is facing a crisis of legitimacy While India aspires to march towards a knowledge driven society and economy millions of young people are left behind Those who can afford march out of government schools only to realize that the private schools are no better The schools they attend leaves them with little knowledge or skill a very low self esteem and a bleak future This book argues that the struggle for equality in education is ultimately a struggle for quality both being two sides of the same coin Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka
