The Department of Criminal Justice Services (DCJS), under the direction of the Criminal Justice Services Board, is the policy-making body for carrying out the duties and powers relative to criminal justice standards and training. The Department is empowered by the Code of Virginia to establish policy as well as compulsory minimum entry-level, in-service and advanced training standards for criminal justice officers and certified training academies.

As part of our ongoing goal to provide all members of the criminal justice community current standards and policy, the Criminal Justice Training Reference Manual has been completely revised in content and design. A few highlights of the revision include the online only format to better ensure the content is always current and all users have the same version, elimination of unnecessary duplication of information and the ability to automatically notify users of any changes. The 2012 edition supersedes all previous versions.

We will no longer distribute hard copy manuals. Users who choose to print a copy of the manual are accountable for the most current version available only through the DCJS Web site.

Comments regarding style or content are always welcome and should be directed to Kenny Adcock, Law Enforcement Program Coordinator, at Kenneth.Adcock@dcjs.virginia.gov or 804-786-3923.

Sincerely,
