Selected Poems of August Strindberg Lotta M. Löfgren, 2002 August

Strindberg 1849 1912 was one of the great innovators of modern drama as well as a novelist poet and master of the Swedish language In this collection Selected Poems of August Strindberg editor and translator Lotta M Lofgren has chosen poems from all three volumes of Strindberg's verse Poems in Verse and Prose Sleepwalking Nights on Awake Days and Word Play and Minor Art to illustrate to the English speaking reader the development strengths and versatility of Strindberg the poet Lofgren explains Although August Strindberg is internationally acknowledged as a pioneering realist expressionist and surrealist playwright his poetry is still relatively unknown outside Sweden The only English translation of his poems to date is the 1978 translation of Sleepwalking Nights by Arvid Paulson that gives an incomplete and misleading picture of Strindberg's poetry Lofgren's translation seeks to correct that picture Strindberg's stature as a dramatist alone may be adequate justification for offering a translation of his verse but his poetry stands well on its own All three volumes broke new ground and paved the way for younger generations of poets Lofgren hopes that her translation will not only introduce Strindberg's verse to English speaking readers but will also inspire other scholars to revisit his poetry and give it the attention it deserves

Selected Poems of August Strindberg received the American Scandinavian Foundation's Translation Prize     Teaching African Literature Today Ernest Emenyonu, 2011 Focuses on theoretical and pedagogical approaches to the teaching of African literature on both sides of the Atlantic and beyond The publication of Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart in 1958 drew universal attention not only to contemporary African creative imagination but also established the art of the modern African novel In 1986 Wole Soyinka became the first African to win the Nobel Prize for Literature and opened the gate for other African writers By the close of the 20th century African literature had gained world wide acceptance and legitimacy in the academy and featured on the literature curriculum of schools and colleges across the globe This special issue of African Literature Today examines the diverse experiences of teachers of African literature across regional racial cultural and national boundaries It explores such issues as student responses productive pedagogical innovations the impact of modern technology case studies of online teaching teaching criticism of African literature and teaching African literature in an age of multiculturalism It is intended as an invaluable teacher's handbook and essential student companion for the effective study of African literature     Incomplete Knowledge Jeffrey Harrison, 2006 This collection consists at its core of a sequence of poems that speak to the loss of the writer's brother to suicide These poems stun us by their restraint and simplicity and by their astonishment that this life so important to so many could be extinguished in such a manner Harrison's poems are impeccably crafted and move through narrative seamlessly dry naive vulnerable always accessible
