Singh, 2019-03-07 Entropy theory has wide applications to a range of problems in the fields of environmental and water engineering including river hydraulic geometry fluvial hydraulics water monitoring network design river flow forecasting floods and droughts river network analysis infiltration soil moisture sediment transport surface water and groundwater quality modeling ecosystems modeling water distribution networks environmental and water resources management and parameter estimation Such applications have used several different entropy formulations such as Shannon Tsallis R nyi Burg Kolmogorov Kapur configurational and relative entropies which can be derived in time space or frequency domains More recently entropy based concepts have been coupled with other theories including copula and wavelets to study various issues associated with environmental and water resources systems Recent studies indicate the enormous scope and potential of entropy theory in advancing research in the fields of environmental and water engineering including establishing and explaining physical connections between theory and reality The objective of this Special Issue is to provide a platform for compiling important recent and current research on the applications of entropy theory in environmental and water engineering The contributions to this Special Issue have addressed many aspects associated with entropy theory applications and have shown the enormous scope and potential of entropy theory in advancing research in the fields of environmental and water engineering Star Trek and Sacred Ground Jennifer E. Porter, Darcee L. McLaren, 2016-02-24 Drawing on a number of methodologies and disciplinary perspectives this book boldly goes where none has gone before by focusing on the interplay between Star Trek religion and American culture as revealed in the four different Trek television series and the major motion pictures as well Explored from a Trek perspective are the portrayal and treatment of religion the religious and mythic elements the ritual aspects of the fan following and the relationship between religion and other issues of contemporary concern Divided into three sections this detailed study of religion myth and ritual in the Star Trek context extends the boundaries of the traditional categories of religious studies and explores the process of the re creation of culture The first section explores the ways in which religion has primarily been understood in the Star Trek franchise in relationship to science technology scientism and secular humanism What do Star Trek and its creator Gene Roddenberry have to say about religion and what does this reveal about changing American perceptions about the role value and place of religion in everyday life Section Two examines the mythic power and appeal of Star Trek and highlights the mythic and symbolic parallels between the series story lines and themes taken from both western religious tradition and the scientific and technological components of contemporary North American Society In the final section contributors discuss the mythic and ritual aspects of Star Trek fandom How have Star Trek fans found meaning and value in the television programs and how do they express that meaning in their lives Contributors include Robert Asa Michael Jindra Larry Kreitzer Jeffrey S Lamp Peter Linford Ian Maher Anne Pearson Gregory Peterson and Jon Wagner universes on reality and identity the Borg as transhumanists Federation Treconomics Star Trek's secular society and much much more An enterprising and enlightening voyage into deep space that will appeal to hardcore fans and science fiction enthusiasts alike Publishing in time to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the original TV series Fighting Global Neo-Extractivism Jasper Finkeldey,2022-08-02 Fighting Global Neo Extractivism Fossil Free Social Movements in South Africa analyzes social struggles over damaging new fossil fuel projects in the Global South with a focus on South Africa Africa's biggest fossil fuel emitter Fossil fuel extraction in South Africa has reached a new accelerated phase in which the fossil fuel frontier is moving beyond historical sacrifice zones into non traditional spaces such as conservation parks and middle class neighbourhoods and provoking fervent opposition from grassroots activists This book examines campaigns such as Frack Free South Africa and Save our iMfolozi Wilderness viewing them as struggles against neo extractivism driven by the state and industry Through a series of detailed case studies it highlights the shaping of mobilisation patterns by prior land use practices and the capacity to mobilize different social groups across race and class Developing the notion of the fossil fuel frontier as the material and political boundary that activists in South Africa and elsewhere in the world render visible this volume provides a theoretical framework to understanding global mobilization patterns This timely and impassioned book will appeal to students and researchers interested in a range of subjects including environmentalism social movements political ecology and development studies Dodging the Bullet M.F. Leon,2016-01-15 Bored with city life Roy answers an ad to crew on a yacht to the islands off the coast of Mozambique Never in his wildest dreams did he imagine the adventures and dangers that would befall him and his three friends This story takes you from the exotic islands in the vast and turbulent Indian Ocean through the savanna of wild Mozambique where they clash with unscrupulous ivory poachers Despite the danger romance blossoms as they search along the shores of Lake Niassa for a kidnapped missionary and children taken hostage by Islamic insurgents Flexibility in the Migration Strategies of Animals Nathan R. Senner,Yolanda E. Morbey,Brett K. Sandercock,2020-06-29 Country Experiences in Economic Development, Management and Entrepreneurship Mehmet Huseyin Bilgin,Hakan Danis,Ender Demir,Ugur Can,2016-11-09 This volume brings together selected papers from the 17th EBES Conference organized in Venice in winter 2015 The theoretical and empirical papers present the latest research in diverse areas of business economics and finance from many different regions They chiefly focus on the interactions between economic development entrepreneurship and financial institutions especially putting the spotlight on cross country evidence Topics range from women's entrepreneurship and economic regulation to sustainability and climate change This book provides researchers professionals and students a great opportunity to catch up on the latest studies in different fields and empirical findings on many countries and regions Urban Mobility in a Global Perspective Oliver Schwedes,2017 For the first time in human history the majority of the world's population is now no longer living in rural areas but in cities Whereas in the industrialised countries urban and transport development has now reached a certain degree of saturation it is proceeding in other regions of the world with an enormous dynamism The primary concern of this study is to present for the first time a survey of global urban and transport development in order to gain an overview of the magnitude of the global challenges Against this background the study concludes by proposing a direction for future deliberations in the name of determining an adequate response to the looming problems Oliver Schwedes has the professorship in Integrated Transport Planning at the Technische Universität Berlin in Germany His research areas include urban and transport policy and planning Ebook Download The Statesman's Year-Book S. Steinberg,2016-12-28 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world Holding My Breath Ace Moloi,2016-01-01 In this book Ace Moloi writes a letter to his deceased mother This book this letter is an important and necessary look at the state of our country 21 years into our democracy It is the story of constantly holding your breath hoping nothing else goes wrong In a searing and beautiful narrative Moloi manages to take the reader through various South African issues like the trials of child headed families in South Africa the volatile issue of service delivery in townships the story of broken families why fees must fall and racial division in universities Funny in parts and tragic in others this is the ultimate South African story The Sale Catalogues of British Government Publications, 1836-1921: 1836-1889 Great Britain. Her Majesty's Stationery Office,1977 Exploring the Next Frontier Matthew Wilhelm Kapell,2016-02-19 The 1960s and early 70s saw the evolution of Frontier Myths even as scholars were renouncing the interpretive value of myths themselves Works like Joe Haldeman's The Forever War exemplified that rejection using his experiences during the Vietnam War to illustrate the problematic consequences of simple mythic idealism Simultaneously Americans were playing with expanded and revised versions of familiar Frontier Myths though in a contemporary context through NASA's lunar missions Star Trek and Gerard K O'Neill's High Frontier This book examines the reasons behind the exclusion of Frontier Myths to the periphery of scholarly discourse and endeavors to build a new model for understanding their enduring significance This model connects NASA's failed attempts to recycle earlier myths wholesale to Star Trek's revision of those myths and rejection of the idea of a frontier paradise to O'Neill's desire to realize such a paradise in Earth's orbit This new synthesis defies the negative connotations of Frontier Myths during the 1960s and 70s and attempts to resuscitate them for relevance in the modern academic context

Encyclopedia of African Colonial Conflicts Timothy J. Stapleton,2016-11-07 Two volumes introduce the history of colonial wars in Africa and illustrate why African countries like the Democratic Republic of Congo Nigeria Somalia and Sudan continue to experience ethnic political and religious violence in the early 21st century This sweeping study examines the wars of colonial conquest fought in Africa during the 19th and early 20th centuries From Britain's efforts to wrest control of the Sudan from military leader Muhammad Ahmad al Mahdi to Italy's decisive defeat at the Battle of Adowa in Ethiopia to Leopold II's brutal reign over the Belgian Congo the work surveys the devastation reaped upon the continent by colonization and illustrates how its combative influence continues to resonate in Africa today Written by scholars in the fields of history
