The Cambridge Companion to British Fiction: 1980–2018 Peter Boxall,2019-06-27 Gives a comprehensive critical picture of the development of British fiction from the election of Thatcher to the present New Horizons in Prescriptivism Research* Nuria Yáñez-Bouza,María E. Rodríguez-Gil,Javier Pérez-Guerra,2024-04-16 This book investigates the connections between evaluative judgements on language and the larger social cultural and political issues that shed light on the practice of prescriptivism The chapters cover three main areas language which represents the traditional roots of the study of linguistic norms in authoritative historical manuals and judgemental attitudes to language usage literary and scripted texts which illustrates the enregisterment of the values of linguistic prescriptivism as a social and cultural phenomenon and speech communities which reflects the growth in scope of the field to consider geographical contexts beyond mainstream British and American English to include varieties of English and other languages worldwide The book also discusses recent theoretical and methodological advances in the study of prescriptivism American and English Annotated Cases, 1918

The Exotic Woman in Nineteenth-century British Fiction and Culture Piya Pal-Lapinski,2005 A fresh and provocative approach to representations of exotic women in Victorian Britain NYS Route 17--Elmira to Chemung from RM 17-6205-1134 to RM 17-6205-1179 and from RM 17-6205-1189 to RM 17-6205-1210, Chemung County, New York ,2007 Mythmaking across Boundaries Züleyha Çetiner-Öktem,2016-04-26 This volume explores the dynamics of myths throughout time and space along with the mythmaking processes in various cultures literatures and languages in a wide range of fields ranging from cultural studies to the history of art The papers brought together here are motivated by two basic questions How are myths made in diverse cultures and literatures And do all different cultures have different myths to be told in their artistic pursuits To examine these questions the book offers a wide array of articles by contributors from various cultures which focus on theory history space place philosophy literature language gender and storytelling

Mythmaking across Boundaries not only brings together classical myths but also contemporary constructions and reconstructions through different cultural perspectives by transcending boundaries Using a wide spectrum of perspectives this volume instead of emphasising the different modes of the mythmaking process connects numerous perceptions of mythmaking and investigates diversities among cultures languages and literatures viewing them as a unified whole As the essays reflect on both academic and popular texts the book will be useful to scholars and students as well as the general reader The Urologic and Cutaneous Review ,1917 The Bibliographer's Manual of English Literature William Thomas The Works of the British Poets Ezekiel Sanford, 1819 Lowndes.1878 The New Pastoral in Contemporary British Writing Deborah Lilley, 2019-10-10 This book identifies a major turn in contemporary British literature in response to environmental crisis It argues that the pastoral is emerging as a new critical framework in which to explore the understanding of people and place in this context The New Pastoral in Contemporary British Writing explores how the pastoral tradition has transformed as authors respond to our changing relationships with place in this period Analysing the features common to new pastoral writing it brings together a corpus of works from major authors including Ali Smith Jim Crace John Burnside Kathleen Jamie and Robert Macfarlane This book argues that crises such as pollution and climate change have shifted our understandings of the key relationships of pastoral and the terms upon which they are based giving new senses to its older oppositions between the human and the natural the urban and the rural and the past and the present Furthermore it shows that the versions of pastoral that ensue align with current ecocritical arguments produced by thinking through the individual cultural and ecological implications of environmental crisis As a result pastoral emerges as the crucial strategy in the re imagining of the environment underway in contemporary British writing the resurgence of interest in nature writing the increasing attention towards place in literary fiction and the development of ecological or climate fiction This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of English as well as those concerned with the interdisciplinary topics of the environmental humanities including literary geographies new nature writing cultures of climate change and the Anthropocene and ecologically oriented theory The Living Church ,1911
