The Planets Diane Ackerman, 1976 The Planets Diane Ackerman, 2026-02-24 From Marginalian Editions comes a gorgeous reissue of celebrated poet essayist and naturalist Diane Ackerman's debut collection a whimsical and wonderful ode to our solar system planet to planet blending science and imagination astronomy and cosmology as well as fantasy satire myth confession and bawdiness galore First published in 1973 The Planets A Cosmic Pastoral introduced not only a splendid new poet but a whole new adventure in poetry With bravura style unbridled imagination and a connoisseur's eye for precise scientific detail Diane Ackerman gives us an unforgettable ode to each of the planets in our solar system as well as for the moon the comet Kohoutek asteroids and strange voyages to the stars the bottom of the sea through the human body and into the mind But The Planets is more than a book of poetry It is also a major work on the solar system illustrated with drawings and photographs of the galaxy Diane Ackerman herself says I've always been baffled by people who write about nature only in terms of say junipers and cornfields eschewing all things so called scientific as if science were per se the spoil sport of feeling So wonderless a view of nature really doesn't appeal to me I don't see the Universe divided up that way into The Junipers on the one hand and The Amino Acids on the other Astronomy fantasy satire myth confession and bawdiness meet imagination and lyrical sweep to create this enticing collection the world of The Planets Lyrical Poetry and Space

Oakes, 2004 American Writers focuses on the rich diversity of American novelists The Zephyrs of Najd Jaroslav Stetkevych, 1993-12-15 Arabs have traditionally considered classical Arabic poetry together with the Qur'an as one of their supreme cultural accomplishments Taking a comparatist approach Jaroslav Stetkevych attempts in this book to integrate the classical Arabic lyric into an enlarged understanding of lyric poetry as a genre Stetkevych concentrates on the places of lost bliss that furnish the dominant motif in the lyric elegiac opening section nasib of the classic Arab code or qusidah In defining the Arabic lyrical genre he shows how pre-Islamic lamentations over abandoned campsites evolved in Arabo-Islamic mystical poetry into expressions of spiritual nostalgia Stetkevych also draws intriguing parallels between the highlands of Najd in Arabic poetry and Arcadia in the European tradition He concludes by exploring the degree to which the pastoral paradisiacal archetype of the nasib pervades Arabic literary perception from the pre-Islamic ode through the Thousand and One Nights and later texts Enhanced by Stetkevych's sensitive translations of all the Arabic texts discussed The Zephyrs of Najd brings the classical Arabic ode fully into the purview of contemporary literary and critical discourse NASA EP.
