Youth Movements and Generational Politics, 19th-21st Centuries Richard G. Braungart,Margaret M.
 Braungart,2023-04-11 Youth Movements and Generational Politics 19th 21st Centuries by Richard and Margaret Braungart is a collection of 19 of their previously published research articles on youthful political activism generational conflict and social change After assessing 1960s student groups on the political left right and center generations of youth movement activity are identified in each world region from the first student movement in Germany in 1815 to the global surge in youth unrest and demonstrations in the 21st century Representing more than 50 years of research youth movements and generational politics are explored from historical generational and global perspectives As a collection these articles are theoretically grounded empirically based interdisciplinary and comparative Exploring youth movements at individual group societal and international levels a variety of methodological approaches for studying youth activism are illustrated In a concluding chapter the Braungarts update youth movement activity in the 21st century and discuss how their previous decades of international research informs the global rise in youthful mobilization over politics The trends and changes in youth unrest and generational politics are assessed now and into the future Violent Protest, Contentious Politics, and the Neoliberal State Seraphim Seferiades,2016-02-11 This volume of cutting edge research comparatively analyzes violent protest and rioting furthering our understanding of this increasingly prevalent form of claim making Hank Johnston and Seraphim Seferiades bring together internationally recognized experts in the field of protest studies and contentious politics to analyze the causes and trajectories of violence as a protest tactic Crossnational comparisons from North America Britain France
