Rift in Evil Ken X. Briggs, 2010-09-02 Mine accident or murder The town of Zuideville is dropped into a spiral of evil causing a young man and a beautiful but abused woman to launch into an investigation that unveils an evil conspiracy Can they cause a rift in evil Is there time A horrific mining accident results in Joshua Robyns father being killed Joshua struggles both with himself and his townsfolk as he tries to make sense of an incomprehensible situation Is it an accident or a murder Why is there a seeming link to evil Why is his work environment suddenly threatening What is the conspiracy about and what are they trying to do As action moves dramatically from exotic African grasslands to the heart of North America's cities the plot unfolds and the pace quickens Will there be time Why is a beautiful abused young woman in the center of this plot Evil tendrils tighten on their lives and the interplay between the visible and invisible world shows opposing forces at work Will there be a rift in evil Will they be able to stop the evil in time Artmaking in the Age of Global Capitalism Bryant Jan Bryant, 2019-09-11 Jan Bryant looks at the strategies visual artists and filmmakers are using to criticise the social and economic conditions shaping our historical moment She then assesses how the world is being positively reimagined through their work today Located at the intersection of practice and theory Bryant argues that an effective contemporary political aesthetics encompasses more than just analysis of a work's conceptual or aesthetic reality It should also consider the impact the artwork has at the point of reception the methods adopted by the artists and the relationships they engender with communities Eclectic Magazine, and Monthly Edition of the Living Age John Holmes Agnew, Walter Hilliard Bidwell, 1873 The Age of Catastrophe Heinrich August Winkler, 2015-09-28 Characterized by global war political revolution and national crises the period between 1914 and 1945 was one of the most horrifying eras in the history of the West A noted scholar of modern German history Heinrich August Winkler examines how and why Germany so radically broke with the normative project of the West and unleashed devastation across the world In this total history of the thirty years between the start of World War One and the dropping of atomic bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki Winkler blends historical narrative with political analysis and encompasses military strategy national identity class conflict economic development and cultural change The book includes astutely observed chapters on the United States Japan Russia Britain and the other European powers and Winkler's distinctly European perspective offers insights beyond the accounts written by his British and American counterparts As Germany takes its place at the helm of a unified Europe Winkler's fascinating account will be widely read and debated for years to come The Rift Seth C. The Age of Sex Corrie Decker,2025 As in much of the world societies in precolonial East Africa what is today Kenya Tanzania and Uganda used rites of passage to chart an individual s social and developmental progress toward adulthood Under European colonialism from the 1890s to the 1960s colonial judicial systems and the emerging genre of ethnography converged to subject African people to standardized definitions of childhood and adulthood The coexistence of rites of passage and chronological age regulations generated confusion well into the postcolonial era and the question of when childhood ends sparked extensive debate about gender race and development Corrie Decker argues that ultimately these debates came down to the age of sex The age of sex a term Decker conceptualizes in this carefully researched monograph refers to the hypothetical moment when a girl becomes a woman capable of engaging in heterosexual activity and a boy becomes a man imbued with the right and responsibility to have heterosexual intercourse Colonial ethnographic studies reduced complex precolonial rites of passage to puberty rites fixated on these sexual transformations The resulting stereotypes influenced in turn how colonial and postcolonial court officials decided age of consent and other sex crime cases Court rituals thus legally transformed girls into women by ruling on their sexual maturity and boys into men by sentencing them to corporal punishment marking their acceptance of sexual responsibilities Ecology and Power in the Age of Empire Corey Ross,2017 Ecology and Power in the Age of Empire provides the first wide ranging environmental history of the heyday of European imperialism from the late nineteenth century to the end of the colonial era It focuses on the ecological dimensions of the explosive growth of tropical commodity production global trade and modern resource management strategies that still visibly shape our world today and how they were related to broader social cultural and political developments in Europe s colonies Covering the overseas empires of all the major European powers Corey Ross argues that tropical environments were not merely a stage on which conquest and subjugation took place but were an essential part of the colonial project profoundly shaping the imperial enterprise even as they were shaped by it The story he tells is not only about the complexities of human experience but also about people s relationship with the ecosystems in which they were themselves embedded the soil water plants and animals that were likewise a part of Europe s empire Although it shows that imperial conquest rarely represented the signal ecological trauma that some accounts suggest it nonetheless demonstrates that modern imperialism marked a decisive and largely negative milestone for the natural environment By relating the expansion of modern empire global trade and mass consumption to the momentous ecological shifts that they entailed this book provides a historical perspective on the vital nexus of social political and environmental issues that we face in the twenty first century world Littell's Living Age Eliakim Littell,Robert S. Littell,1895

Journalism in the Age of Virtual Reality John V. Pavlik,2019-09-17 With the advent of the internet and handheld or wearable media systems that plunge the user into 360o video augmented or virtual reality technology is changing how stories are told and created In this book John V Pavlik argues that a new form of mediated communication has emerged experiential news Experiential media delivers not just news stories but also news experiences in which the consumer engages news as a participant or virtual eyewitness in immersive multisensory and interactive narratives Pavlik describes and analyzes new tools and approaches that allow journalists to tell stories that go beyond text and image He delves into developing forms such as virtual reality haptic technologies interactive documentaries and drone media presenting the principles of how to design and frame a story using these techniques Pavlik warns that although experiential news can heighten user engagement and increase understanding it may also fuel the transformation of fake news into artificial realities and he discusses the standards of ethics and accuracy needed to build public trust in journalism in the age of virtual reality Journalism in the Age of Virtual Reality offers important lessons for practitioners seeking to produce quality experiential news and those interested in the ethical considerations that experiential media raise for journalism and the public
