Textual Transformations in Children's Literature Benjamin Lefebvre, 2013 This book offers new critical approaches for the study of adaptations abridgments translations parodies and mash ups that occur internationally in contemporary children's culture It follows recent shifts in adaptation studies that call for a move beyond fidelity criticism a paradigm that measures the success of an adaptation by the level of fidelity to the original text toward a methodology that considers the adaptation to be always already in conversation with the adapted text This book visits children's literature and culture in order to consider the generic pedagogical and ideological underpinnings that drive both the process and the product Focusing on novels as well as folktales films graphic novels and anime the authors consider the challenges inherent in transforming the work of authors such as William Shakespeare Charles Perrault L M Montgomery Laura Ingalls Wilder and A A Milne into new forms that are palatable for later audiences particularly when for perceived ideological or political reasons the textual transformation is not only unavoidable but entirely necessary Contributors consider the challenges inherent in transforming stories and characters from one type of text to another across genres languages and time offering a range of new models that will inform future scholarship Families and Functioning in Childhood and Adolescence Liane Simon, Olaf Kraus De Camargo, 2022-12-12 Honey for a Child's Heart Gladys Hunt, 2010-06-01 A modern classic with over 250 000 copies sold Honey for a Child's Heart is a compelling essential guide for parents who want to find the best books for their children ages 0-12 A good book is a gateway into a wider world of wonder, beauty, delight and adventure. But children don't stumble onto the best books by themselves. They need a parent's help. The Mother's Assistant, and Child's Friend, 1844 Briefing and Open Forum on Children and Youth Services, 1993 The Child's Zoological Garden Beata Francis, 1881 Peel's Bibliography of the Canadian Prairies to 1953 Ernest Boyce Ingles, Bruce Braden Peel, Norman Merrill Distad, 2003-01-01 The Prairie Provinces cover Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba Children and Cultural Memory in Texts of Childhood Heather Snell, Lorna Hutchison, 2013-11-07 The essays in this collection address the relationship between children and cultural memory in texts both for and about young people. The collection overall is concerned with how cultural memory is shaped, contested, forgotten, recovered and re-circulated, sometimes in opposition to dominant national narratives and often for the benefit of young readers who are assumed not to possess any prior cultural memory. From the innovative development of school libraries in the 1920s to the role of utopianism in fixing cultural memory for teen readers, it provides a critical look into children and ideologies of childhood as they are represented in a broad spectrum of texts including film, poetry, literature and architecture from Canada, the United States, Japan, Germany, Britain, India and Spain. These cultural forms collaborate to shape ideas and values in turn contributing to dominant discourses about national and global citizenship. The essays included in the collection imply that childhood is an oft-imagined idealist construction based in large part on participation, identity and perception. Childhood is invisible and tangible, exciting and intriguing and at times elusive even as cultural and literary artifacts recreate it. Children and Cultural Memory in Texts of Childhood is a valuable resource for scholars of children's literature and culture, readers interested in childhood and ideology and those working in the fields of diaspora and postcolonial studies.
