The Reenactments A Memoir:

The Reenactments Nick Flynn, 2013 Nick Flynn chronicles the surreal experience of being on set during the making of the film Being Flynn from his best selling memoir Another Bullshit Night in Suck City and watching the central events of his life reenacted his father's long run of homelessness and his mother's suicide

A Field Guide for Immersion Writing Robin Hemley, 2012-03-01 For centuries writers have used participatory experience as a lens through which to better see the world at large and as a means of exploring the self Considering various types of participatory writing as different strains of one style immersion writing Robin Hemley offers new perspectives and practical advice for writers of this nonfiction genre Immersion writing can be broken down into the broad categories of travel writing immersion memoir and immersion journalism Using the work of such authors as Barbara Ehrenreich Hunter S Thompson Ted Conover A J Jacobs Nellie Bly Julio Cortazar and James Agee Hemley examines these three major types of immersion writing and further identifies the subcategories of the quest the experiment the investigation the infiltration and the reenactment Included in the book are helpful exercises models for immersion writing and a chapter on one of the most fraught subjects for nonfiction writers the ethics and legalities of writing about other people A Field Guide for Immersion Writing recalibrates and redefines the way writers approach their relationship to their subjects Suitable for beginners and advanced writers the book provides an enlightening provocative and often amusing look at the ways in which nonfiction writers engage with the world around them A Friends Fund Publication

The Oxford Companion to American Military History, After Visiting Friends Michael Hainey, 2013-02-19 Michael Hainey had just turned six when his uncle knocked on his family's back door one morning with the tragic news Bob Hainey Michael's father had been found dead near his car on Chicago's North Side of an apparent heart attack Thirty five years old a young assistant copy desk chief at the Chicago Sun Times Bob was a bright and shining star in the competitive hard living world of newspapers one that involved booze soaked nights that bled into dawn And then suddenly he was gone leaving behind a young widow two sons a fractured family and questions surrounding the mysterious nature of his death that would obsess Michael throughout adolescence and long into adulthood Finally roughly his father's age when he died and a seasoned reporter himself Michael set out to learn what happened that night Adapted from publisher description

The Feminist Memoir Project Rachel Blau DuPlessis, Ann Barr Snitow, 2007 The women of The Feminist Memoir Project give voice to the spirit the drive and the claims of the Women's Liberation Movement they helped shape beginning in the late 1960s These thirty two writers were among the thousands to jump start feminism in the late twentieth century Here in pieces that are passionate personal critical and witty they describe what it felt like to make history to live through and contribute to the massive social movement that transformed the nation What made these particular women rebel And what experiences ideas feelings and beliefs shaped their activism How did they maintain the will and energy to keep such a struggle going for so long and continuing still Memoirs and responses by Kate Millett Vivian Gornick Michele Wallace

Andy Rice, 2023-05-30 What mental and physical distress do actors camerapersons and reporters experience when working on reenactments of traumatic moments in history In Political Camerawork D. Andy Rice theorizes that the intense feelings produced while creating these performed scenarios called simulation documentaries connect difficult pasts to the present Building on his background as a nonfiction film director producer editor and cinematographer Rice analyzes performance techniques to gain insight into the emotional toll of simulation documentaries including those reliving the Vietnam War the US military's embodied training in California during the Iraq War and an annual quadruple lynching reenactment organized by Black civil rights activists in Georgia Investigating the lasting impact of these productions Political Camerawork reveals that by performing a simulation of a traumatic event they didn't directly experience those involved become carriers of the trauma

Polubojarinova, 2018 The Sum of Trifles Julia Ridley Smith, 2021-11-01 When Julia Ridley Smith's parents died they left behind a virtual museum of furniture books art and artifacts Between the contents of their home the stock from their North Carolina antiques shop and the ephemera of two lives lived Smith faced a monumental task What would she do with her parents' possessions Smith's wise and moving memoir in essays The Sum of Trifles peels back the layers of meaning surrounding specific objects her parents owned from an eighteenth-century miniature to her father's prosthetics A vintage hi-fi provides a view of her often tense relationship with her father whose love of jazz kindled her own artistic impulse A Japanese screen embodies her mother's principles of good taste and good manners while an antebellum quilt prompts Smith to grapple with her family's slaveholding legacy. Along the way she turns to literature that illuminates how her inheritance shaped her notions of identity and purpose. The Sum of Trifles offers up dark humor and raw feeling mixed with an erudite streak. It's a curious, thoughtful look at how we live in and with our material culture and how we face our losses as we decide what to keep and what to let go.

The Cinema of Wang Bing Bruno Lessard, 2023-11-02 Having made documentary films screened at the most prestigious film festivals in the West, Chinese documentary filmmaker Wang Bing presents a unique case of independent filmmaking. In The Cinema of Wang Bing, Bruno Lessard examines the documentarian's most important films focusing on the two obsessions at the heart of his oeuvre: the legacy of Maoist China in the present and the transformation of labor since China's entry into the market economy and how the crucial figures of survivor and worker are represented on screen. Bruno Lessard argues that Wang Bing is a minjian grassroots intellectual whose films document the impact of Mao's Great Leap Forward on Chinese collective memory and register the repercussions of China's turn to neoliberalism on workers in the post-Reform era. Bringing together Chinese documentary studies and China studies, the author shows how Wang Bing's practice reflects the minjian ethos when documenting the survivors of the Great Famine and those who have not benefitted from China's neoliberal policies, from laid-off workers to migrant workers. The films discussed include some of Wang Bing's most celebrated works such as West of the Tracks and Dead Souls, as well as neglected documentaries such as Coal Money and Bitter Money. Bruno Lessard analyzes Wang Bing's documentary masterpieces through the twin lens of history and labor, incisively framing them as a sustained critical intervention in how China understands itself through the legacy of Maoism and Deng Xiaoping's neoliberal reform project. The Cinema of Wang Bing makes me want to watch the films again. Chris Berry, King's College London. Professor Lessard offers an original and comprehensive study of Wang Bing's contribution to Chinese documentary as a mode of observation and reflection on some of the most crucial periods of China's recent and present history. I certainly felt that reading the films through a sociohistorical approach produced a more vibrant understanding of Wang Bing's oeuvre. Cecilia Mello, University of São Paulo.

Tapestry of Memory Nanci Adler, 2017-07-28 In this volume contributors present narratives and explore the way they influence the perception of the past. While acknowledging the debate about the validity of qualitative research based on narratives, this volume aims to illuminate how truth and evidence form part of a much wider debate on the representation of history. The volume includes the work of historians, but the interdisciplinary nature of the contributions shows that the validity debate also applies to the broader fields of cultural studies, sociology, and other social sciences. The distinction between memory and testimony is a crucial theme. Memory, though selective, is the basis of testimony. Testimony provides an audience with information that becomes evidence of what was seen or experienced. Such evidence can form the basis of legal truth. Nanci Adler and Selma Leydesdorff divide the volume into three core sections: Official Testimony and Other Facts and Evidence; The Creation of New History; and the Integration of Collective Memory in the Story of One's Self and Claims Based on Narratives vs Official History After a comprehensive introduction by the editors the volume offers twelve essays by leading scholars This work is a new offering in Transaction s acclaimed Memory and Narrative series De Niro Shawn Levy,2014-10-28 REMARKABLE BIOGRAPHY OF AN ICON There s little debate that Robert De Niro is one of the greatest if not the greatest screen actors of his generation perhaps of all time His work particularly in the first 20 years of his career is unparalleled Mean Streets the Godfather Part II Taxi Driver the Deer Hunter and Raging Bull all dazzled moviegoers and critics alike displaying a talent the likes of which had rarely if ever been seen De Niro become known for his deep involvement in his characters assuming that role completely into his own life resulting in extraordinary chameleonic performances Yet little is known about the off screen De Niro he is an intensely private man whose rare public appearances are often marked by inarticulateness and palpable awkwardness It can be almost painful to watch at times in powerful contrast to his confident movie personae In this elegant and compelling biography bestselling writer Shawn Levy writes of these many De Niros the characters and the man seeking to understand the evolution of an actor who once dove deeply into his roles as if to hide his inner nature and who now seemingly avoids acting challenges taking roles which make few apparent demands on his overwhelming talent Following De Niro s roots as the child of artists his father the abstract painter Robert De Niro Sr was widely celebrated who encouraged him from an early age to be independent of vision and spirit to his intense schooling as an actor the rise of his career his marriages his life as a father restaurateur and businessman and of course his current movie career Levy has written a biography that reads like a novel about a character whose inner turmoil takes him to heights of artistry His many friendships with the likes of Martin Scorsese Meryl Streep Harvey Keitel Shelley Winters Francis Ford Coppola among many others are woven into this extraordinary portrait of DeNiro the man and the artist also adding a depth of understanding not before seen Levy has had unprecedented access to De Niro s personal research and production materials creating a new impression of the effort that went into the actor s legendary performances The insights gained from DeNiro s intense working habits shed new perspective on DeNiro s thinking and portrayals and are wonderful to read Levy also spoke to De Niro s collaborators and friends to depict De Niro s transition from an ambitious young man to a transfixing and enigmatic artist and cultural figure Shawn Levy has written a truly engaging insightful and entertaining portrait of one of the most wonderful film artists of our time a book that is worthy of such a great talent The Wound Laurent Mauvignier,2015-02 Where is your wound asks Jean Genet in the lines Laurent Mauvignier uses as an epigraph to The Wound By the time we have finished this four part novel we realize that for many the wound lies four decades back in the Events that people have tried to not talk about ever since the Algerian War Chronicling the lives of two cousins Bernard and Rabut both in the present and at the time of the Algerian War of Independence in the 1960s we get a full picture of the lasting effects this event had on the men who were involved Through the fragments of their stories we see the whole history of the war its atrocities its horrors and its hatreds Mauvignier shows readers how the Algerian War always present yet always repressed has sickened the emotional and moral life of everyone it touched and France itself perhaps The epigraph like the novel suggests that wounded men may even become the wound itself The Art of Return James Meyer, 2019-09-11 More than any other decade the sixties capture our collective cultural imagination And while many Americans can immediately imagine the sound of Martin Luther King Jr declaring I have a dream or envision hippies placing flowers in gun barrels the revolutionary sixties resonates around the world China's communist government inaugurated a new cultural era African nations won independence from colonial rule and students across Europe took to the streets calling for an end to capitalism imperialism and the Vietnam War In this innovative work James Meyer turns to art criticism theory memoir and fiction to examine the fascination with the long sixties and contemporary expressions of these cultural memories across the globe Meyer draws on a diverse range of cultural objects that reimagine this revolutionary era stretching from the 1950s to the 1970s including reenactments of civil rights antiwar and feminist marches paintings sculptures photographs novels and films Many of these works were created by artists and writers born during the long Sixties who were driven to understand a monumental era that they missed These cases show us that the past becomes significant only in relation to our present and our remembered history never perfectly replicates time past This Meyer argues is precisely what makes our contemporary attachment to the past so important it provides us a critical opportunity to examine our own relationship to history memory and nostalgia

Documentary Film Patricia Aufderheide, 2007-11-28 Documentary film can encompass anything from Robert Flaherty's pioneering ethnography Nanook of the North to Michael Moore's anti Iraq War polemic Fahrenheit 9/11 from Dziga Vertov's artful Soviet propaganda piece Man with a Movie Camera to Luc Jacquet's heart tugging wildlife epic March of the Penguins In this concise crisply written guide Patricia Aufderheide takes readers along the diverse paths of documentary history and charts the lively often fierce debates among filmmakers and scholars about the best ways to represent reality and to tell the truths worth telling Beginning with an overview of the central issues of documentary filmmaking its definitions and purposes its forms and founders Aufderheide focuses on several of its key subgenres including public affairs films government propaganda particularly the works produced during World War II historical documentaries and nature films Her thematic approach allows readers to enter the subject matter through the kinds of films that first attracted them to documentaries and it permits her to make connections between eras as well as revealing the ongoing nature of documentary's core controversies involving objectivity advocacy and bias Interwoven throughout are discussions of the ethical and practical considerations that arise with every aspect of documentary production A particularly useful feature of the book is an appended list of 100 great documentaries that anyone with a serious interest in the genre should see Drawing on the author's four decades of experience as a film scholar and critic this book is the perfect introduction not just for teachers and students but also for all thoughtful filmgoers and for those who aspire to make documentaries themselves About the Series Combining authority with wit accessibility and style Very Short Introductions offer an introduction to some of life's most interesting topics Written by experts for the newcomer they demonstrate the finest contemporary thinking about the central problems and issues in hundreds of key topics from philosophy to Freud quantum theory to Islam

Travel Writing and Re-Enactment Lucas Tromly, 2023-09-07 Travel Writing and Re Enactment Echotourism explores the popular subgenre of travel narratives that re enact historically prominent journeys Drawing on philosopher Walter Benjamin this monograph reads such re enactments as quests for aura in which travellers seek to capture a sense of distinction and historical profundity Travel Writing and Re Enactment frames the re enactment of past journeys in a number of contexts including Benjamin s writing on mechanical reproduction Judith Butler s work on gender performance and postmodern parody Echotourist journeys are surprisingly contingent and precarious and force travellers to navigate historical changes involving empire gender and travel practice in densely performative ways Through close readings of contemporary travel narratives this monograph considers the legacies of Lord Byron Charles Darwin Graham Greene Mary Kingsley and Ernest Shackleton among others Travel Writing and Re Enactment examines the way literary re enactment expresses and sometimes confounds the desire to find meaning through travel in the contemporary world

Custerology Michael A. Elliott, 2008-08-26 On a hot summer day in 1876 George Armstrong Custer led the Seventh Cavalry to the most famous defeat in U S military history Outnumbered and exhausted the Seventh Cavalry lost more than half of its 400 men and every soldier under Custer s direct command was killed It s easy to understand why this tremendous defeat shocked the American public at the time But with Custerology Michael A Elliott tackles the far more complicated question of why the battle still haunts the American imagination today Weaving vivid historical accounts of Custer at Little Bighorn with contemporary commemorations that range from battle reenactments to the unfinished Crazy Horse memorial Elliott reveals a Custer and a West whose legacies are still vigorously contested He takes readers to each of the important places of Custer s life from his Civil War home in Michigan to the site of his famous demise and introduces us to Native American activists Park Service rangers and devoted history buffs along the way Elliott shows how Custer and the Indian Wars continue to be both a powerful symbol of America s bloody past and a crucial key to understanding the nation s multicultural present Elliott is an approachable guide as he takes readers to battlefields where Custer fought American Indians to the Michigan town of Monroe that Custer called home after he moved there at age 10 to the Black Hills of South Dakota where Custer led an expedition that gave birth to a gold rush Steve Weinberg Atlanta Journal Constitution By Custerology Elliott means the historical interpretation and commemoration of Custer and the Indian Wars in which he fought not only by those who honor Custer but by those who celebrate the Native American resistance that defeated him The purpose of this book is to show how Custer and the Little Bighorn can be and have been commemorated for such contradictory purposes Library Journal Michael Elliott s Custerology is vivid trenchant engrossing and important The American soldier George Armstrong Custer has been the subject of very nearly incessant debate for almost a century and a half and the debate is multicultural multinational and multimedia Mr Elliott s book provides by far the best overview and no

McMurtry Hosay Trinidad Frank J. Korom, 2012-05-26 The multivocalic rite known as Hosay in the Caribbean developed out of earlier practices originating in Iraq and Iran which diffused to Trinidad by way of South Asian indentured laborers brought to the Caribbean by the British from the mid 1800s to the early decades of the twentieth century The rituals are important as a Shi'i religious observance but they also are emblems of ethnic and national identity for Indo Trinidadians Frank Korom investigates the essential role of Hosay in the performance of multiple identities by historically and ethnographically situating the event in Middle Eastern South Asian and Caribbean contexts Hosay Trinidad Muharram Performances in an Indo Caribbean Diaspora is the first detailed historical and ethnographic study of Islamic muharram rituals performed on the island of Trinidad Korom's central argument is that the annual rite is a polyphonic discourse that is best understood by employing multiple levels of interpretation On the symbolic level the observance provides esoteric meaning to a small community of Indo Trinidadian Muslims On another level it is perceived to be representative of transplanted Indian culture as a whole Finally the rituals are becoming emblematic of Trinidad's polyethnic population Addressing strategies used to resist integration and assimilation Hosay Trinidad is engaged with theories concerning the notion of cultural creolization in the Caribbean as well as in the general study of global diasporas She Matters Susanna
