Vision Machines Paul Julian Smith, 1996-04-17 Over the last decade visibility and sexuality have become a major theme in Spanish and Cuban cinema literature and art Vision Machines explores this development in the light of contemporary history and recent theoretical accounts of sight by writers including Paul Virilio Gianni Vattimo and Teresa de Lauretis The very visible women of Almod var s cinema are Paul Julian Smith s first subject He shows how in his early Dark Habits lesbianizes the look putting women s pleasure at the centre of the frame and then examines Almod var s recent film Kika where the conflict between cinema and video is played out in the bodies of women good bad and ugly Moving the focus to Cuba Smith discussed the reception in Europe and North America of Nestor Almendro s remarkable documentary on gays in Cuba Improper Conduct and traces the trial of visibility to which effeminate men were exposed He compares Amendor s work with the autobiography of exile novelist Reinaldo Arenas which revels in graphic sex and also looks at the first Cuban film with a gay theme Gutierrez Alea s Strawberry and Chocolate Smith returns to Spain to consider the response of artists and intellectuals to the public invisibility of AIDS in a country with one of the highest rates of HIV transmission in the European Union Drawing on Anglo American debates on the representation of AIDS he concentrates on the one major intervention by Spanish scholars and artists Love and Rage and on the only figure in any medium to address AIDS in his aesthetic practice the conceptual artist and video maker Pepe Espaliu He concludes with a fascinating account of Julio Medem s pathbreaking film from 1993 The Red Squirrel which has opened up a new approach to two formerly taboo subjects Basque nationalism and female sexuality
