Mothering Outside the Lines: BettyAnn Martin, Michelann Parr, 2023-09-21 In this collection authors transgress and uphold their maternal integrity as they dance at the edge of comfort and take up the challenge of exploring the boundaries of maternal practice their own their mothers and those found in literature media or popular culture These mothers assume a hopeful stance actively choose courage over comfort push through what is fun fast or easy and show how they come to mother outside the lines in all its simplicity and complexity As they bust outdated tired and ambiguous boundaries they find and re set new boundaries that restore dignity and self respect for themselves their children their families and for the matricentric feminist collective particularly those whose voices may continue to be silenced and marginalized by structures and limits beyond their control Thirteen stories are threaded together to form a compelling tale showing how and why some mothers when faced with ambiguous and untenable boundaries resist the urge to accept the assumed the unpredictable even the demanded whether they be internal or external visible or invisible real or imaginary

Mothers in Children's and Young Adult Literature Lisa Rowe Fraustino, Karen Coats, 2016-05-05 Winner of the Children s Literature Association s 2018 Edited Book Award Contributions by Robin Calland Lauren Causey Karen Coats Sara K Day Lisa Rowe Fraustino Dorina K Lazo Gilmore Anna Katrina Gutierrez Adrienne Kertzer Kouen Kim Alexandra Kotanko Jennifer Mitchell Mary Jeanette Moran Julie Pfeiffer and Donelle Ruwe Living or dead present or absent sadly dysfunctional or merrily adequate the figure of the mother bears enormous freight across a child s emotional and intellectual life Given the vital role literary mothers play in books for young readers it is remarkable how little scholarly attention has been paid to the representation of mothers outside of fairy tales and beyond studies of gender stereotypes This collection of thirteen essays begins to fill a critical gap by bringing together a range of theoretical perspectives by a rich mix of senior scholars and new voices Following an introduction in which the coeditors describe key trends in interdisciplinary scholarship the book s first section focuses on the pedagogical roots of maternal influence in early children s literature The next section explores the shifting cultural perspectives and subjectivities of the twentieth century The third section examines the interplay of fantasy reality and the ethical dimensions of literary mothers The collection ends with readings of postfeminist motherhood from contemporary realism to dystopian fantasy The range of critical approaches in this volume will provide multiple inroads for scholars to investigate richer readings of mothers in children s and young adult literature

The Maternal Voice in Victorian Fiction Barbara Z. Thaden, 2013-10-28 This is the first full length study to focus specifically on representations of motherhood in fiction by such Victorian writers as Elizabeth Gaskell Margaret Oliphant Caroline Norton and Ellen Price Wood These authors presented an idealized view of motherhood as part of a campaign to gain social and legal status for mothering in a society in which married women were not legal entities and children born in wedlock were the inalienable property of their fathers These writers used dead mother plots which reversed New Testament parables so that the mother plays the leading role and maternal circle plots which portray adult daughters and their mothers raising children outside marriage This fiction which showed how children benefit from good mothering was instrumental in married mothers eventually obtaining equal parental rights
