Richard Rorty Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick      Latin America and the Shifting Sands of Globalization Sean W. Burges, 2016-01-22 Latin America occupies an increasingly prominent position within the global political economic and cultural consciousness with intra regional governance structures and multilateral processes now a key topic of interest to foreign policy and international business circles It has become abundantly clear that outside of Latin America there is a poor understanding of how the shifting sands of regional power are impacting not only on how regional countries fit into the global system but also on how intra regional relations are viewed and managed The contributions to this collection investigate these issues examining how changing global power dynamics are in turn impacting on national foreign policies and regional governance structures The book focuses first and foremost on the Latin American view outwards not the US or European view to the south This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Iberian and Latin American Research      American Political Ideologies Brian R. Farmer, 2014-11-01 For many people the world of politics is defined by ideologies The average voter rarely takes time to research a policy issue thoroughly relying instead on a set of beliefs set forth by his or her chosen political organization to make important decisions These publicly promoted ideologies play an important role in international as well as domestic political development yet many adherents to a particular belief may have a poor understanding of competing ideologies From right wing to the far left this text dissects eight prominent political ideologies traditional conservatism classic liberalism libertarianism conservative extremism contemporary liberalism communism dependency theory and Islamism In plain terms it describes the basic doctrine and inherent contradictions of each creed along with its particular relevance to today's political landscape An in depth discussion of the political socialization processes that form and perpetuate ideologies is also included Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here      2015 U.S. Higher Education Faculty Awards, Vol. 1 Faculty Awards, 2015-11-30 FacultyAwards.org is the first and only university awards program in the United States based on faculty peer evaluation Faculty Awards was created to recognize outstanding faculty members as viewed by their Faculty peers at colleges and universities across the United States Faculty members voted through the 2014 2015 academic year for their peers at their academic departments and schools within a number of categories Access to FacultyAwards.org to nominate and vote for Faculty was limited to university professors or faculty members at accredited U S institution of higher education Faculty members were nominated and voted for by other faculty members in their own academic departments and schools We strove to maintain an accurate peer review process Voting was not open to students or the public at large In addition faculty members voted for educators only at their own college or university Winners for the 2014 2015 academic year in all departments and colleges across U S institutions of higher education were announced in March 2015 and are permanently archived at FacultyAwards.org as well as recognized in this 2015 print edition of the Faculty Awards Compendium For the academic year 2014 2015 votes were cast to nominate and vote for Faculty members and no self voting was allowed to assure the integrity of the whole process This volume of the Faculty Awards Compendium includes Faculty awardees within Fine Arts Humanities Liberal Arts and Social Sciences Disciplines for the 2014 2015 academic year A total of 1608 winning Faculty members in 584 higher education institutions were determined after tallying the votes We would like to thank all Faculty members who participated in the voting process and to wish all the Faculty awardees continued success in their academic endeavors We look forward to resuming the voting process for the 2015 2016 academic year awards

Germanics Under Construction Jörg Roche, Thomas Salumets, 1996      Conflict, International Intervention and Local Agency Ervjola Selenica, 2025-03-31 This book analyses international interventions in the education sector of conflict affected countries in a world order shifting towards multipolarity The work presents a genealogy of interventions in the education sector and unravels which agendas among security peace humanitarianism and emergency underpin such interventions By using a comparative case study analysis across three regional expanses and more specifically three countries Kosovo Niger and Jordan the book aims to contribute to reflections on the interaction between the national and the international The research finds that an overarching stabilization imperative has informed international projects on education reform in the three respective countries As the world is becoming increasingly multipolar and new threats are being framed as challenging and threatening the security of Western donors local actors have more agency towards international templates of intervention The book shows how contemporary processes of state and nation building in conflict affected global peripheries are shaped by substantial forms of external intervention in which practices of sovereignty and statehood are continuously supervised and negotiated The author advocates for a re adaptation of International Relations theoretical lenses which goes beyond the methodological nationalism and disciplinary parochialism that has characterized much of the existing literature on state making unmaking and international interventions in a globalized world This book will be of much interest to students of education international intervention peace studies security studies and International Relations      Rethinking Neo-Institutional Statebuilding Peter Finkenbusch, 2017-05-18 This book examines the paradox by which Western policymakers are doing more statebuilding while knowing less about it and thereby critically examines neo institutional approaches to intervention      The Politics of International Intervention Mandy Turner, Florian P. Kühn, 2015-09-16 This book critically explores the practices of peacebuilding and the politics of the communities experiencing intervention The contributions to this volume have a dual focus First they analyse the practices of western intervention and peacebuilding and the prejudices and politics that drive them Second they explore how communities experience and deal with this intervention as well as an understanding of how their political and economic priorities can often diverge markedly from those of the intervener This is achieved through theoretical and thematic chapters and an extensive number of in depth empirical case studies Utilising a variety of conceptual frameworks and disciplines the book seeks to understand why something so normatively desirable the pursuit of and building of peace has turned out so badly From Cambodia to Afghanistan Iraq to
