Parliamentary Assembly Official Report of Debates 1998 Ordinary session (Second Part, Volume II), 2024 April 1998 Council of Europe, Post-Holocaust Politics Arieh J. Kochavi, 2003-01-14 Between 1945 and 1948 more than a quarter of a million Jews fled countries in Eastern Europe and the Balkans and began filling hastily erected displaced persons camps in Germany and Austria As one of the victorious Allies Britain had to help find a solution for the vast majority of these refugees who refused repatriation Drawing on extensive research in British American and Israeli archives Arieh Kochavi presents a comprehensive analysis of British policy toward Jewish displaced persons and reveals the crucial role the United States played in undermining that policy Kochavi argues that political concerns not human considerations determined British policy regarding the refugees Anxious to secure its interests in the Middle East Britain feared its relations with Arab nations would suffer if it appeared to be too lax in thwarting Zionist efforts to bring Jewish Holocaust survivors to Palestine In the United States however the American Jewish community was able to influence presidential policy by making its vote hinge on a solution to the displaced persons problem Setting his analysis against the backdrop of the escalating Cold War Kochavi reveals how ironically the Kremlin as well as the White House came to support the Zionists goals albeit for entirely different reasons Key Resolutions of the United Nations General Assembly 1946-1996 Dietrich Rauschnig,Katja Wiesbrock,Martin Lailach,1997-08-28 Key resolutions from the first fifty years of the United Nations General Assembly The Persistence of the Palestinian Question Joseph Massad,2006-09-27 In this erudite and groundbreaking series of essays renowned author Joseph Massad takes a radical departure from mainstream analysis in order to expose the causes for the persistence of the Palestinian Question Jihad in Palestine Shaul Barta,2015-07-24 The 21st century exists in the shadow of the return of extremist Islam to the center of the world s political stage a process that began at the end of the previous century While researchers have focused on the rise of Hamas this return has in fact manifested itself in a range of independent Islamic extremist groups with their own philosophies Jihad in Palestine provides a comprehensive study of the variety of Islamic extremist groups operating inside Israel Palestine today examining their philosophies and views concerning martyrdom as well as their attitudes to the Israeli Palestinian conflict These ideologies are presented in their own words thanks to the author s extensive translations and commentary of primary sources in Arabic including the writings of the Islamic Jihad al Jama a al Islamiya Hizbal Tahrir al Islami Hamas and the Islamic Movement The book studies the attitudes of these organisations towards the fundamental issues surrounding Jihad including the concept of personal obligation the relationship of the movement to the peace agreements and attitudes towards Jews expressed in the movement s writings Exploring the basic theories of sacrifice and analysing modern day Palestinian society it promotes a greater understanding of the religious angle of the Israeli Palestinian conflict The book will be of interest to students and scholars of Middle East Studies Jewish Studies Political Islam and Terrorism Political Violence LIFE ,1946-08-19 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today s people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use The Palestinian Issue in Middle East Peace Efforts United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Special Subcommittee on Investigations,1976 The Palestinian Refugees J. Ginat,Edward Joseph Perkins,2001 As violence escalates in the Middle East a peace agreement between Israel and Palestine seems more elusive than ever Yet one thing remains clear without constructive dialogue such an agreement cannot occur This timely volume presents just such a dialogue It brings together opinions perspectives and research focused on one of the region s most complex and volatile problems the Palestinian refugee situation Based on a 1999 conference at the University of Oklahoma International Program Center Palestinian Refugees combines contributions from Israelis Palestinians Jordanians Egyptians Americans and Europeans In addition to focusing on the Palestinian refugees the essays present various proposals for solving the Palestinian problem Organized in two parts the volume presents both scholarly essays and position papers The scholarly essays place current issues in historical context and explore the Palestinian belief in the right of return and questions of appropriate compensation The position papers focus on policy and offer a variety of perspectives Concluding the volume is a special essay on public polls that gauge how Palestinians and Israelis view the circumstances of Palestinian refugees and what they feel about possible solutions

Dance and Authenticity in Israel and Palestine Elke Kaschl, 2003-08-01 Dance and Authenticity is an ethnography of dance performance and cultural form It describes how dabkeh a type of dance performed at Palestinian weddings became a model for the Israeli Jewish debkha as a means of affirming Israeli Jewish belonging and common society The Palestinian dabkeh in turn acquired nationalist meanings especially after the 1967 war and the occupation of the West Bank The book traces the history of these competing and conflicting dance forms basing the argument principally on the ethnographic study of two Palestinian and one Israeli Jewish dance group conducted between 1998 and 1999 The result is a fascinating parallel ethnography showing how the ethnography of dance forms contributes to evolving notions of collective national and political identity in a context of unequal power
