Sir Doughty, 2022-06-13 In Under the Lily and the Rose Arthur G Sir Doughty explores the profound interplay between personal and collective memory against the backdrop of the Canadian landscape employing a lyrical prose style that resonates with both poetic and narrative techniques The book intricately weaves historical reflections with personal anecdotes making it a salient work in Canadian literature that highlights the tensions between identity and the land At once modern and richly traditional Doughty's storytelling captures the essence of the past while framing it within contemporary consciousness inviting readers to ponder their own connections to history and place Arthur G Sir Doughty a noted Canadian historian and a prominent figure in the formation of the Canadian historical narrative draws from his extensive background in archival research and historical writing His deep seated curiosity about Canada's multifaceted identity and his dedication to preserving its stories are evident throughout the text Doughty's background enables him to approach the subject matter with both scholarly rigor and emotional depth

Roses Down Under Dawn Eagle, 2013-10-31 The rose is undoubtedly the most popular garden flower in the world When settlers came from the Northern Hemisphere to Australia and New Zealand they brought their treasured roses with them Roses Down Under follows the way roses may have been introduced into both countries where they are not indigenous In each country enthusiastic gardeners and Rosarians such as Alister Clark and Ron Bell in Australia and Ken Nobbs and Sam McGredy in New Zealand were inspired to develop their own varieties There is a chapter dealing with the complexities of hybridisation going through the process step by step so the reader can follow in their footsteps Various rose breeders from both countries both professional and amateur are listed together with numerous photographs of their significant varieties These illustrate the differences as well as the similarities of roses produced in Australia and New Zealand since the days of the first settlers The Victoria State Rose Garden at Werribee outside Melbourne has been chosen to represent the large number of rose gardens in Australia with many photographs illustrating the diverse collection of roses growing there In New Zealand the Trevor Griffiths Rose Garden in Timaru was chosen because of the comprehensive nature of roses planted in that very interesting garden The final chapter asks where roses will be in the future Will varieties produced in each country be similar or very different One thing is sure They will always be for gardeners the Queen of Flowers
