Extending Play Alyxandra Vesey,2024 Despite the hypervisibility of a constellation of female pop stars the music business is structured around gender inequality As a result women in the music industry often seize on self branding opportunities in fashion cosmetics food and technology for the purposes of professional longevity Extending Play examines the ubiquity of brand partnerships in the contemporary music industry through the lens of feminized labor to demonstrate how female artists use them as a resource for artistic expression and to articulate forms of popular feminism through self commodification In this book author Alyxandra Vesey examines this type of promotional work and examines its proliferation in the early 21st century Though brand partnerships exist across all media industries they are a distinct phenomenon for the music business because of their associations with fan club merchandise concert merchandise and lifestyle branding often foregrounding women s participation in shaping these economies through fan labor and image management Through textual and discourse analysis of artists songs music videos interviews social media usage promotional campaigns marketing strategies and business decisions Extending Play investigates how female musicians co create branded feminine coded products like perfume clothes makeup and cookbooks and masculine coded products like music equipment as resources to work through their own ideas about gender and femininity as workers in industries that often use sexism and ageism to diminish women s creative authority and diminish the value of the recording in order to incentivize musicians to internalize the demands of industrial convergence By merging star studies popular music studies and media industry studies Extending Play proposes an integrated methodology for approaching contemporary cultural history that demonstrates how female identified musicians have operated as both a hub for industrial convergence and as music industry professionals who use their extramusical skills to reassert their creative acumen

Change We Can Believe In? Anthony Livingston Hall, 2010-08-02 ANTHONY L HALL takes aim at every important issue of our time with a unique and refreshing perspective He comments on Obama accepting the Nobel Prize Many people are still wondering what that mysterious light hovering over Norway was on the night before he arrived But despite claims that it was generated by a UFO or the failed test launch of a Russian missile die hard believers like me will tell you that it was just a celestial sign heralding the Nobel coming of Barack Obama The swine flu pandemic that wasnt An Obama advisor has been quoted saying You never want a serious crisis to go to waste It is instructive to note that the pharmaceutical companies that produce vaccines as well as the peddlers of surgical masks and other flu paraphernalia appear to be heeding this advice Movie about Nehrus affair with the wife of a British diplomat One can only imagine the physical passion they shared especially in light of Edwins reputed nymphomania which notwithstanding Nehrus efforts she reportedly satiated by making scandalous booty calls on a black man for over 30 years Christmas Day underwear bomber We had the secretary of Homeland Security Janet Napolitano assuring us on Sunday that the system worked in this case If this good job Brownie faux pas doesnt suggest that our whole airline security system is devoid of logic nothing does Cartoon of Obama kneeling and kissing shoe of Chinese leader To be sure the cartoon takes some creative license But the essential point it conveys is undeniable America cannot stand like a superpower with China squeezing its balls in a financial vise grip Expenses scandal that rocked UK Parliament Who knew that the only swine flu Britons had to worry about was an epidemic of MPs feeding at the public trough like pigs Tiger Woodss Thanksgiving Day spat with his wife Cheating Tiger fuming dragon Reports of Cases Decided in the Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia at the Georgia. Court of Appeals, 2012 Victimology Leah E. Daigle, 2012 This book provides an overview of the field of victimology including a collection of carefully selected articles that have previously appeared in leading journals along with original material in a mini chapter format that contextualizes the concepts It provides the history and development of the field of victimology explains who is victimized and why explains how the criminal justice system and other social services interact with victims and each other and provides information about specific types of victimization Back cover West's Federal Reporter , 2002 The Body Language of Liars Lillian Glass, 2013-10-21 Being fooled or conned can happen to anyone It doesnt matter how intelligent old rich or famous you are Whether you have been scammed in business swindled out of money betrayed by a friend relative or coworker or cheated on by a spouse rest assured you are not alone The world is full of these most toxic people liars You can never be sure if people are lying until you analyze their body language facial expressions speech patterns even their online writing patterns Now world renowned body language expert Dr Lillian Glass shares with you the same quick and easy approach she uses to unmask signals of deception from innocent little white lies to life changing whoppers Featuring photographs of celebrities and newsmakers such as Bill Clinton Lance Armstrong O J Simpson Kim Kardashian Lindsay Lohan and many others at the actual moment they were lying their specific signals of deception will be permanently etched in your mind Analyzing the body language of troubled or divorced couples such as Arnold Schwarzenegger and Maria Shriver Katie Holmes and Tom Cruise and Ashton Kutcher and Demi Moore you ll learn the obvious signs to look for As Resident Aliens Kathleen

Kern,2010-01-01 As the crucifixes drenched with Jewish blood drop from our hands we stand impotent and wordless before this tragedy of Israel and Palestine In the name of the crucified Messiah we must struggle against the conditions which make history a trail of crucifixions Only then in solidarity with Jews and Palestinians can we dream of Messianic times of a shalom without victims With these words theologian Rosemary Radford Reuther laid out the pitfalls for Christians entering the arena of the Palestinian Israeli conflict Nevertheless in 1995 a small cohort of pacifist Christians decided to paddle against the currents of history against the crusades pogroms and colonial enterprises of their co religionists toward that goal of a shalom without victims Setting up a project in the West Bank city of Hebron over the next ten years Christian Peacemaker Teams forged relationships with Palestinians Israelis and internationals who were resisting the Israeli military occupation of Palestine As resident aliens See Exodus 23 9 they have sojourned in the Holy Land to support Palestinians and Israelis who reject violence as a means of solving the conflict who think that one nation has no right to subjugate and exploit another and who believe all the residents of the region are entitled to the same exactly the same human rights This book charts the growth of CPT in Palestine how it adapted to changing political conditions spread to locations outside of Hebron and developed networks with activists throughout Palestine and Israel Trying to Remember, Forced to Forget Judy

Raphael Kletter,2001-03-12 Dear Reader I have spent the past 52 years forgetting and remembering one small part of one day of my life that has affected me for my entire life Memories are tucked away asleep in your mind waiting for some outside stimuli to awaken them But what happens to a memory when you have been told over and over it was just a bad dream yet you really really know it was not What happens to your mind what happens to your life What happens when the memory does awake and surfaces for a brief time and then returns to sleep waiting for the next stimuli My story my life my thoughts my insights are revealed in my book my autobiography The day was January 19 1948 the time was very early morning I was four years old I got out of bed to go to the bathroom and discovered my father s body hanging from a rope tied to a pipe over the toilet He had committed suicide I remember this very vividly even though my mother tried to convince me for the rest of my life that I never saw what happened My mother even went so far as to make imaginary visits to the hospital every week for five months bringing me a present each time and telling me it was from my father How could this have been he was dead I saw him hanging My mother was protecting me and protecting herself from a tragedy she only could deal with by denying its very existence And by doing so denying me the opportunity to grieve and put the tragedy behind me My young mind could not cope with this confusion so my response was hostility towards my mother hostility that must have been so intense my mother s only recourse was to have me institutionalized Most of my past tragedy has been asleep except for brief periods when my daughters each turned four years old and when I turned 43 the age my father ended his life When my mother died at age 88 the trauma once again awakened within me and this time I had this inner energy to discover all that I had either forgotten repressed did not know and or did not understand Please join me on my emotional journey to rediscover my past including the agonizing return to where I was institutionalized realizing and facing the fact that even after all these years I am a survivor of suicide and I have all the scars that go along with it I have been driven to tell my story a story I never shared with anybody until now The telling all began with my daughters Elisa and Jenny age 26 and 24 they never knew how their grandfather died I had never told them for fear that they would consider suicide in a moment of despair The only way I felt comfortable telling my story was through the written word Well the words just kept coming and coming and soon I had a book I still don t know where the energy came from but it did I like to think that my mother was guiding me Looking for answers about suicide I became involved with the American Association of Suicidology They encouraged me to tell my story at their annual conference in Los Angeles It was a very emotional experience but I learned and so did the psychologists psychiatrists and other survivors it was an eye opener few days Most importantly this book is dedicated to my mother whose love courage and strength even with her unnecessary denial and repression had conquered all I know my autobiography will be as rewarding a journey for you as it finally has been for me The American Association of Suicidology Publications Committee has placed my book on their recommended reading list Judy Raphael Kletter
