Crime Films Thomas Leitch,2002-08-15 This book surveys the entire range of crime films including important subgenres such as the gangster film the private eye film film noir as well as the victim film

the erotic thriller and the crime comedy Focusing on ten films that span the range of the twentieth century Thomas Leitch traces the transformation of the three leading figures that are common to all crime films the criminal the victim and the avenger Analyzing how each of the subgenres establishes oppositions among its ritual antagonists he shows how the distinctions among them become blurred throughout the course of the century This blurring Leitch maintains reflects and fosters a deep social ambivalence towards crime and criminals while the criminal victim and avenger characters effectively map the shifting relations between subgenres such as the erotic thriller and the police film within the larger genre of crime film that informs them all

Hollywood's Melodramatic Imagination Geoff Mayer, 2021-12-23 Melodrama is the foundation of American cinema It is however a poorly understood term While it is a pervasive and persuasive dramatic mode it is not tied to any specific moral or ideological system It is not a singular genre rather it operates as a genre generating machine capable of determining the aesthetics and structure of the drama within many genres Melodrama centers the conflict around the clash between good and evil and provides a sense of poetic justice but the specific values embedded in notions of good and evil are determined by the culture and they shift from nation to nation region to region and period to period This book explores the populist westerns of the 1930s the propaganda films that followed the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor and the popularity of Sax Rohmer's master villain Fu Manchu Melodramas of passion and film noir also offer a challenge to melodrama with its seemingly alienated protagonists and downbeat endings Yet with few exceptions Hollywood was able to assimilate these genres within its melodramatic imagination

Perplexing Plots David Bordwell, 2023-01-17 Nominated 2024 Edgar Allan Poe Award in the category of best critical biographical Mystery Writers of America Shortlisted 2024 Agatha Awards Best Mystery Nonfiction Malice Domestic Posthumous Winner 2023 IFCA Book Prize International Crime Fiction Association Narrative innovation is typically seen as the domain of the avant garde However techniques such as nonlinear timelines multiple points of view and unreliable narration have long been part of American popular culture How did forms and styles once regarded as difficult become familiar to audiences In Perplexing Plots David Bordwell reveals how crime fiction plays and films made unconventional narrative mainstream He shows that since the nineteenth century detective stories and suspense thrillers have allowed ambitious storytellers to experiment with narrative Tales of crime and mystery became a training ground where audiences learned to appreciate artifice These genres demand a sophisticated awareness of storytelling conventions they play games with narrative form and toy with audience expectations Bordwell examines how writers and directors have pushed pulled and collaborated with their audiences to change popular storytelling He explores the plot engineering of figures such as Raymond Chandler Agatha Christie Dashiell Hammett Patricia Highsmith Alfred Hitchcock Dorothy Sayers and Quentin Tarantino and traces how mainstream storytellers and modernist experimenters influenced one another's work A sweeping kaleidoscopic account written in a lively conversational style Perplexing Plots offers an ambitious new understanding of how movies literature theater and popular culture have evolved over the past century The New Yorker, 1952-06 The Cinematic City David Clarke, 2005-08-19 The Cinematic City offers an innovative and thought provoking insight into cityscape and screenscape and their inter connection Illustrated throughout with movie stills a diverse selection of films from Blade Runner to Little Caesar genres cities and historical periods are examined by leading names in the field The key dimensions of film and urban theory are introduced before detailed analysis of the various cinematic forms which relate most significantly to the city From early cinema and documentary film to film noir New Wave and postmodern cinema the contributors provide a wealth of empirical material and illustration whilst drawing on the theoretical insights of contemporary feminism Benjamin Baudrillard Foucault Lacan and others The Cinematic City shows how the city has been undeniably shaped by the cinematic form and how cinema owes much of its nature to the historical development of urban space Engaging with current theoretical debates this is a book that is set to change the way in which we think about both the nature of the city and film Contributors Giuliana Bruno Iain Chambers Marcus Doel David Clarke Anthony Easthope Elisabeth Mahoney Will Straw Stephen Ward John Gold James Hay Rob Lapsley Frank Krutnik A Companion to Film Noir Andre Spicer, Helen Hanson, 2013-06-27 An authoritative companion that offers a wide ranging thematic survey of this enduringly popular cultural form and includes scholarship from both established and emerging scholars as well as analysis of film noir's influence on other media including television and graphic novels Covers a wealth of new approaches to film noir and neo noir that explore issues ranging from conceptualization to cross media influences Features chapters exploring the wider noir mediascape of television graphic novels and radio Reflects the historical and geographical reach of film noir from the 1920s to the present and in a variety of national cinemas Includes contributions from both established and emerging scholars Reinventing Hollywood David Bordwell, 2017-10-02 In the 1940s American movies changed Flashbacks began to be used in outrageous unpredictable ways Soundtracks flaunted voice over commentary and characters might pivot from a scene to address the viewer Incidents were replayed from different characters viewpoints and sometimes those versions proved to be false Films now plunged viewers into characters memories dreams and hallucinations Some films didn't have protagonists while others centered on anti heroes or psychopaths Women might be on the verge of madness and neurotic heroes lurched into violent confrontations Combining many of these ingredients a new genre emerged the psychological thriller populated by women in peril and innocent bystanders targeted for death If this sounds like today's cinema that's because it is In Reinventing Hollywood David Bordwell examines the full range and depth of trends that crystallized into traditions He shows how the Christopher Nolans and Quentin Tarantinos of today owe an immense debt to the dynamic occasionally delirious narrative experiments of the Forties Through in depth analyses of films both famous and virtually unknown from Our Town and All About Eve to Swell Guy and The Guilt of Janet Ames Bordwell assesses the era's unique achievements and its legacy for future filmmakers Reinventing Hollywood is a groundbreaking study of how Hollywood storytelling became a more complex art and essential reading for lovers of popular cinema

Gangster Films Michael L. Stephens, 2024-12-10 The conventions of gangster movies have become well known the gum chewing moll the kiss of death incorruptible G men and well dressed gangsters toting machine guns The genre was first popularized in the silent era and has continued with such contemporary releases as Billy Bathgate and Bugsy Films actors directors producers cinematographers plot devices themes and more are included in this encyclopedic reference work to gangster films For people there are biographical sketches that focus on their work in gangster films The film entries include year of release distributor cast and production credits and a brief synopsis Terms are placed in context of the genre with relevant examples from gangster films given Motion Picture Story Magazine, 1928 Encyclopedia of Pulp Fiction Writers Lee Server, 2014-05-14 Provides an introduction to American pulp fiction during the twentieth century with brief author biographies and lists of their works The Routledge Handbook of Crime Fiction and Ecology Nathan Ashman, 2023-10-27 The Routledge Handbook of Crime Fiction and Ecology is the first comprehensive examination of crime fiction and ecocriticism Across 33 innovative chapters from leading international scholars this Handbook considers an emergent field of contemporary crime narratives that are actively responding to a diverse assemblage of global environmental concerns whilst also opening up classic crime fictions and writers to new ecocritical perspectives Rigorously engaged with cutting edge critical trends it places the familiar staples of crime fiction scholarship from thematic to formal approaches in conversation with a number of urgent ecological theories and ideas covering subjects such as environmental security environmental justice slow violence ecofeminism and animal studies The Routledge Handbook of Crime Fiction and Ecology is an essential introduction to this new and dynamic research field for both students and scholars alike Vanity Will Get You Somewhere Joseph Cotten, 2000-03-24 Joseph Cotten's story begins in Tidewater Virginia moves on to an episode as a Miami potato salad tycoon and then brings us to his first big break as an actor in the New York theatre Cotten describes how he met the flamboyant Orson Welles at a radio audition at which Welles set a wastepaper basket on fire and their involvement with the Mercury theatre This led to Cotten's first film role as Orson's co star in Citizen Kane quickly followed by parts in The Magnificent Ambersons and The Third Man Orson perhaps the only man to use Churchill as a stooge while trying to set up a film deal was a lifelong friend of Cotten's and this autobiography was one of the last works he read before his untimely death in 1985 Cotten takes us behind the scenes of his stage plays and films recalling amusing and intimate stories of his adventures with Ingrid Bergman Marilyn Monroe Katharine Hepburn David Niven David O Selznick Alfred Hitchcock and many others Sensitive to his own motivations frank about his marriages and warmly revealing about himself and his friends Cotten has written much more than the usual film star biography His skills as an actor have made him a master of character and dramatic momentum and he brings the same talents to his writing Vanity Will get You Somewhere is a generous loving and humorous portrait of a man without a shred of vanity in his nature and of his friends and colleagues in the larger than life world of show business
