The Public City Essays In Honour Of Paul Mees:

Public City Beau B Beza, Brendan Gleeson, 2014-11-25 Paul Mees urban ideal counted on watchful confident and well informed citizenry to work collectively in a quest for fair and just cities As such The Public City is largely a critique of neo liberalism and its arguably negative influence on urban prospects As Mees explained it neo liberal urbanism was much more than a political aberration it was a threat that imposed many costly failures in an age overshadowed by grave ecological challenges Fifteen of Australia and New Zealand s leading urban scholars including Professor Emeritus Jean Hillier and Professor Brendan Gleeson have contributed to this collection The Public City includes a foreword by the late Professor Sir Peter Hall a world leader in urban planning from Britain Kenneth Davidson one of Australia s top economic columnists has also contributed a chapter The collective works in this book extend beyond an analysis of urban patterns to provide a blueprint for the improvement of civic and institutional purpose in the creation of the public city Sustainability

Citizenship in Cities Ralph Horne, John Fien, Beau B. Beza, Anita Nelson, 2016-04-28 Urban sustainability citizenship situates citizens as social change agents with an ethical and self interested stake in living sustainably with the rest of Earth Such citizens not only engage in sustainable household practices but respect the importance of awareness raising discussion and debates on sustainability policies for the common good and maintenance of Earth s ecosystems Sustainability Citizenship in Cities seeks to explain how sustainability citizenship can manifest in urban built environments as both responsibilities and rights Contributors elaborate on the concept of urban sustainability citizenship as a participatory work in progress with the aim of setting its practice firmly on the agenda This collection will prompt practitioners and researchers to rethink contemporary mobilisations of urban citizens challenged by various environmental crises such as climate change in various socio economic settings This book is a valuable resource for students academics and professionals working in various disciplines and across a range of interdisciplinary fields such as urban environment and planning citizenship as practice environmental sociology contemporary politics and governance environmental philosophy media and communications and human geography Geelong's Changing Landscape David Jones, Phillip Roös, 2019-11-01 Geelong s Changing Landscape

Lawrence, 2023-05-09 This expansive Handbook guides readers through a multi layered landscape of the interpretations and uses of transdisciplinary thinking and practices worldwide It advances understanding of the strengths and limits of transdisciplinary research in the context of societal power relations institutional structures and social inequalities This title contains one or more Open Access chapters Motor Vehicles, the Environment, and the Human Condition Hans A. Baer, 2019-10-09 The world now has more than a billion motor vehicles and this number continues to increase as developing countries imitate developed societies in their adoption of the culture of automobility This book explores the political ecology of motor vehicles in an era of growing social disparities and environmental crises the latter of which are most manifest in anthropogenic climate change to which motor vehicles constitute a major contributor A political ecological perspective recognizes that motor vehicles perhaps more than any other machine embody the social structural cultural and environmental contradictions of the capitalist world system In addition to highlighting many of the environmental social and health environmental consequences of humanity s increasing reliance on motor vehicles particularly private automobiles this book argues that ultimately we need as a species to move beyond motor vehicles as much as possible but that such an effort will have be part and parcel of creating an alternative world system based on social justice democratic processes environmental sustainability and a safe climate one termed democratic eco socialism Urban Space: experiences and Reflections from the Global South Hernández García, Jaime, Cárdenas-O'Byrne, Sabina, García Jerez, Adolfo, BB Beza, 2018-12-14 The structuring of Urban Space is as topical as ever in this era of climate change hyper urbanisation post digital labour markets and geo political power shifts Scholarship of the contemporary urban condition is dominated by studies and examples drawn from the global north Yet cities of the global south are distinctive from those of the global north Socio political conditions structure patterns and practices of urban reproduction and in turn Urban Space reflects conditions in the Global South Th e result is different space related outcomes Th is is the central topic of this collection In this book a unique collection of case study based accounts posits both English and Spanish academic literature to interpret and reinterpret the appropriation negotiation and reconfiguration of Urban Space in cities from Colombia to Namibia This collection will be of particular interest to urban scholars and others interested in contemporary urban change especially those with an interest in the Global South Readers will encounter new perspectives on the State s enduring influence in urban land and territory reconfiguration and the contrasting wider rhetoric that affords and legitimises a key role for the private sector Th e case studies also illuminate opportunities and possibilities for grassroots organising to challenge prevailing city actor hierarchies They also highlight the political economic consequences of particular cases of bus rapid transport projects for spatial and social segregation Across these and other topics recurring themes of inequality governance and environment are investigated in contested urban terrains Th e result is a unique collection of viewpoints with a common critical narrative on the present and future challenges facing cities of the Global South Planning After Petroleum Jago Dodson, Neil Sipe, Anita Nelson, 2016-10-04 The past decade has been one of the most volatile periods in global petroleum markets in living memory and future oil supply security and price levels remain highly uncertain This poses many questions for the professional activities of planners and urbanists because contemporary cities are highly dependent on petroleum as a transport fuel How will oil dependent cities respond and adapt to the changing pattern of petroleum supplies What key strategies should planners and policy makers implement in petroleum vulnerable cities to address the challenges of moving beyond oil How might a shift away from petroleum provide opportunities to improve or remake cities for the economic social and environmental imperatives of twenty first century sustainability Such questions are the focus of contributors to this book with perspectives ranging across the planning challenge overarching petroleum futures governance transition and climate change questions the role of various urban transport nodes and household responses ways of measuring oil vulnerability and the effects on telecommunications ports and other urban infrastructure This comprehensive volume with contributions from and focusing on cities in Australia the UK the US France Germany the Netherlands and South Korea provides key insights to enable cities to plan for the age beyond petroleum The Politics and Practices of Apartment Living Hazel

Easthope, 2019 The majority of people now live in cities and for many that means apartment living Apartments are where we spend our time make our homes raise our families and invest our money Apartment living requires that we try to get along with our neighbours and make decisions collectively about the management of our buildings This book examines how different housing markets development practices planning regimes legal structures and social and cultural norms affect people s everyday experiences of apartment living Everyday Equalities Ruth Fincher, Kurt Iveson, Helga Leitner, Valerie Preston, 2019-08-13 A timely new look at coexisting without assimilating in multicultural cities If city life is a being together of strangers what forms of being together should we strive for in cities with ethnic and racial diversity Everyday Equalities seeks evidence of progressive political alternatives to racialized inequality that are emerging from everyday encounters in Los Angeles Melbourne Sydney and Toronto settler colonial cities that established through efforts to dispossess and eliminate indigenous societies have been destinations for waves of immigrants from across the globe ever since Everyday Equalities finds such alternatives being developed as people encounter one another in the process of making a home earning a living moving around the city and forming collective actions or communities Here four leading scholars in critical urban geography come together to deliver a powerful and cohesive message about the meaning of equality in contemporary cities Drawing on both theoretical reflection and urban ethnographic research they offer the formulation being together in difference as equals as a normative frame to reimagine the meaning and pursuit of equality in today s urban multicultures As the examples in Everyday Equalities indicate much emotional labor combined with a willingness to learn from each other negotiate across differences and agitate for change goes into constructing environments that foster being together in difference as equals

Importantly the authors argue a commitment to equality is not only a hope for a future city but also a way of being together in the present
