The Red Notebook:

Beyond the Red Notebook Dennis Barone, 1995 The novels of Paul Auster have captured the imagination of readers and the admiration of many critics of contemporary literature In Beyond the Red Notebook the first book devoted to the works of Auster an international group of scholars provide a rich and insightful examination of Auster's writings The Red Notebook Henry Miller, 1967 Anatomy of Murder Carl Darryl Malmgren, 2001 Mystery fiction takes place in a centered world one whose most distinctive characteristic is motivation of behavior and signs Built on a faith in foundations it insists upon the solidity of social life the validity of social conventions and the sanctity of signs Mystery assures us that motives exist for both words and deeds Red Notebook Benjamin Constant, 2018-01-01 A spirited look at life and Romantic sensibilities on the eve of the nineteenth century this narrative is a priceless document and a fine example of early autobiographical writing The Sublime Today Gillian B. Pierce, 2013-01-04 The Sublime Today considers contemporary applications of aesthetic philosophy and earlier theories of the sublime from Longinus Boileau Burke Kant and Hegel to current literary and cultural contexts Today aesthetic experience itself seems to be changing given the rise of new media and new conditions for the viewing and the reception of works of art How might the rhetoric of the sublime be used to both describe our current situation and help formulate constructive responses to it The Sublime Today collects the work of scholars in literature film art and media studies and provides a forum for investigating the contemporary relevance of the sublime both as it has been understood historically and as it has been formulated by more recent theorists such as Jameson Lyotard Kristeva and others The volume includes essays on literary readings of the sublime in Coetzee Eggers Lahiri and Auster essays on film and the visual arts in the work of Francois Ozon and in recent participatory art and essays on how new technologies and media as in media representations of 9/11 re frame our relationship to the aesthetics of the sublime especially as they intersect with questions of gender the postcolonial and the uneasy politics of terror Starring the Text Alan G. Gross, 2006 In this deep revision of his important Rhetoric of Science Gross examines how rhetorical analyses have a wide range of application effectively exploring the generation spread certification and closure that characterize scientific knowledge Gross anchors his position in philosophical rather than in rhetorical arguments and maintains there is rhetorical criticism from which the sciences cannot be excluded My Husband Dacia Maraini, 2004-03-04 In Italy as in most Western cultures the 1960s was a dynamic and turbulent decade of social change Dacia Maraini in this short story collection explores the vexing tragic and often humorous experiences of women living in modern urban Italy With a style as lean as Samuel Beckett's and a love of the absurd that rivals Eugène Ionesco Maraini's stories are both poignant and wickedly funny The writer's ironic lens zooms in to examining sexual relations working conditions women's issues and family dynamics illuminating the lives of an entire generation With classic existential angst Maraini's characters are often profoundly dissatisfied with their situations but also ill equipped to initiate any real change This feminist version of the absurd is deliciously wry and terrible The stories have a real bite Originally published as Mio marito in 1968 this is the first English translation of My Husband The World that is the Book Alike Varvogli,2001-01-01 This critical analysis offers an in depth study of Paul Auster s fiction It explores the literary and cultural sources that Auster taps into and it emphasises the continuity in Auster s writing The Red Notebook Charles Darwin,1980 The Language of Public and Private Communication in a Historical Perspective Nicholas Brownlees,Gabriella Del Lungo,John Denton,2010-04-16 This volume examines a fundamental concept of language within a historical perspective The concept is that of public and private communication the historical period ranges from the late middle ages to the late modern and the language is English In short what are the linguistic traits discursive practices communicative settings and intentions which identify and contrast public from private communication supposing it is possible to make such a fine distinction The volume contains contributions from top international scholars working in the fields of for example historical correspondence seventeenth and eighteenth century print news sixteenth century liturgy and political discourse the language of quack doctors late modern travel writing personal notebooks and even the eighteenth century public discourse of shopping As this ground breaking volume is not just about key concepts in the history of the English language but also examines at a more general level the concept of private and public communication the various chapters will interest scholars working in language and communication generally as well as English historical discourse

Ethics of Literary Forms in Contemporary American Literature Rüdiger Heinze,2005 This work links ethics and the formal arrangement of literary texts It shows that specific formal techniques and devices and the overall form of literary texts always have an ethical dimension and beg certain ethical questions Covering the three main genres of narrative drama and poetry the discussion addresses aspects of syntax line breaks mise en scene and narrative situation as well as the table of contents list of characters and chapter structure in six texts by contemporary American authors Paul Auster Don DeLillo Tony Kushner Suzan Lori Parks John Ashbery and Jorie Graham Narrative Turns and Minor Genres in Postmodernism ,1995

Literature and the Writer ,2016-08-09 Literature and the Writer was first conceived with the hope the essays would shed light on several dimensions of the authorial craft It was the hope of the editor that the selected essays would examine not only writers choice of vocabulary but also their deliberate selection of grammatical constructions and word order and their seamless weaving together of plots and imagery Moreover the analyses would also draw attention to how the writing process impacts the development of characters and the formulation of thematic strands in fiction Thus a wide variety of authors are deliberately selected to give the text depth writers of popular fiction as well as modern classics are included and contrasts are established between traditional writers and those who prefer to follow experimental trends Modernists are set against postmodernists absurdists vs realists minority ethnicities vs majority cultures and dominant genders appear in contrast to subordinated ones Clearly the major tenet of the collection is that the writing profession provides an unending dilemma that deserves to be explored in more detail as readers try to determine how authorial voices confuse while simultaneously elucidating their audience how texts are constructed by authors and yet deconstructed by the very words they choose to include how silence functions as inaudible yet audible discourse and how authorial self concept shapes not only itself but is also echoed in the fictional characters writers who appear in the texts , Gender and Entrepreneurship Attila Bruni, Silvia Gherardi, Barbara Poggio, 2004-12-16 This groundbreaking new study considers both gender and entrepreneurship as symbolic forms looking at their diverse patterns and social representation The New York Trilogy Paul Auster, 2008-09-04 The contemporary classic from our supreme post modernist Ian McEwan expanding the possibilities of the noir detective novel whose writing shines with intelligence and originality Don DeLillo The New York Trilogy is the most astonishing work by America's most consistently astonishing writer three interconnected novels that exploit the riveting elements of classic detective fiction to achieve a radical new genre a profound and unsettling existentialist enquiry in the tradition of Kafka or Borges In each story the search for clues leads to remarkable coincidences in the universe as the simple act of trailing a man ultimately becomes a startling investigation of what it means to be human The result is the modern novel at its finest which will shock transfix and astound every reader Marks a new departure for the American novel Observer A shatteringly clever piece of work Utterly gripping written with an acid sharpness that leaves an indelible dent in the back of the mind Sunday Telegraph One of the great American prose stylists of our time New York Times Auster really does possess the wand of the enchanter New York Review of Books Reference Grammar of Amharic Wolf Leslau, 1995

American Poetry as Transactional Art Stephen Fredman, 2020-06-02 Explores the ways American poetry engages with visual art music fiction spirituality and performance art Many people think of poetry as a hermetic art as though poets wrote only about themselves or as if the subject of poetry were finally only poetry its forms and traditions Indeed much of what constitutes poetry in the lyric tradition depends on a stringently controlled point of view and aims for a timeless intransitive utterance Stephen Fredman's study proposes a different perspective American Poetry as Transactional Art explores a salient quality of much avant garde American poetry that has so far lacked sustained treatment namely its role as a transactional art Specifically Fredman describes this role as the ways it consistently engages in conversation talk correspondence going beyond the scope of its own subjects and forms its existential interactions with the outside world Poetry operating in this vein draws together images ideas practices rituals and verbal techniques from around the globe and across time not to equate them but to establish dialogue to invite as many guests as possible to the World Party which Robert Duncan has called the symposium of the whole Fredman invites new readers into contemporary poetry by providing lucid and nuanced analyses of specific poems and specific interchanges between poets and their surroundings He explores such topics as poetry's transactions with spiritual traditions and practices over the course of the twentieth century the impact of World War II on the poetry of Charles Olson and George Oppen exchanges between poetry and other art forms including sculpture performance art and ambient music the battle between poetry and prose in the early work of Paul Auster and in Lyn Hejinian's My Life

The epilogue looks briefly at another crucial transactional occasion teaching American poetry in the classroom in a way that demonstrates that it is at the center of the arts and at the heart of American culture Urban Space and Representation
Maria Balshaw,Liam Kennedy,1999-12-20 Theories of urban space have become the focus of a great deal of work by scholars in cultural geography urban studies and critical theory This volume contributes to that debate by analysing the relationship between theories of urban space and literary and visual representations of the city an emergent area of confluence in literary film and cultural studies The contributors address themes such as visual culture and spectacle class and capital community and public space and nation diaspora and belonging Cities covered include New York Chicago Jerusalem Paris London Birmingham and Freetown Sierra Leone Artists and writers discussed include Piet Mondrian Nella Larsen Rudolph Fisher Amos Oz David Grossman Sarah Schulman Jonathan Larsen Charles Dickens Wilkie Collins Paul Auster and Wayne Wang
