indomitable figure Scottish Field Crucible of Secrets Shona MacLean, 2011 Krimi Aberdeen 1631 University librarian Robert Sim has been found murdered in the college courtyard It falls to his colleague and good friend Alexander Seaton to look into Sim's private life for clues as to his killer's motive Prizing Scottish Literature Stevie Marsden, 2021-02-15 This cultural history of the Saltire Society Literary Awards demonstrates the significance the awards have had within Scottish literary and cultural life It is one piece of the wider cultural award puzzle and illustrates how far from being parochial or niche lesser known awards whose histories may be yet untold play their own role in the circulation of cultural value through the consecration of literary value The study of the Society's Book of the Year and First Book of the Year Awards not only highlights how important connections between literary awards and national culture and identity are within prize culture and how literary awards and their founding institutions can be products of the socio political and cultural milieu in which they form but this study also illustrates how existing literary award scholarship has only begun to scratch the surface of the complexities of the phenomenon This book promotes a new approach to considering literary prizes proposing that the concept of the literary awards hierarchy can contribute to emerging and developing discourses pertaining to literary and indeed cultural prizes more broadly Cultural Ecologies of the Land Patrick J. Dillon, 2025-04-15 Cultural Ecologies of the Land is a radical and challenging reassessment of the way we relate to the land and to infrastructure There was a time when the land defined us Now with each passing year we are increasingly detached from it It was once the centre stage of humanity now it is the setting for a technological drama What has happened and why does it matter This book is a multi layered account of people and environment shaping each other through cumulative moment to moment day to day change and a template for thinking about place locality belonging and identity Cultural Ecologies of the Land presents the existential crisis that many believe we now face as a systemic problem arising from social institutions and forms of behaviour that have been marginalised with our dependency on modern infrastructure It explains the part people have played in contributing to the crisis and how regenerating relationships with the land offers a route towards alleviating it This is not only about acknowledging our impact on Earth but also about understanding ourselves in relation to it how we engage with our surroundings make sense of them live and work in them and create narratives that connect and sustain us The Seeker S.
