Praise for Facilitating Group Learning In this engaging and accessible book George Lakey draws on a lifetime's experience to provide a highly practical resource to anyone seeking to understand and respond to the complexities of group work. The book will be invaluable to anyone trying to effect social change through groups while striving to stay simultaneously sane and employed. Stephen D. Brookfield, Distinguished University Professor, University of St. Thomas. I've been working with forms of direct education for many decades and I found new ideas and inspirations in every chapter. For anyone involved in teaching, training, sharing skills, or leading groups, this book is an invaluable resource. Starhawk, author The Earth Path, Dreaming the Dark, and Webbs of Power. George Lakey has inspired our union to engage in education in a way that challenges us to redefine social justice and equality in new and exciting ways. This book helps us to continue our journey to touch the souls of union members. Denis Lemelin, national president, Canadian Union of Postal Workers. Facilitating Group Learning will ease the way of all who venture into the white waters of facilitation. George clarifies the most basic, complex, and nagging challenges of facilitation while honoring the realities of individual and social power dynamics and providing real-life examples from the path of continued growth and mastery. A rare gift. Niyonu D. Spann, founding president, TRV Consulting and Beyond Diversity 101. This book is a must-read for people who teach adults of any age, no matter what the subject and care about doing it in ways that yield deep and abiding learning. Wonderfully well-written and rich with psychological and spiritual insights as well as practical strategies, it represents the fruits of a lifetime of transformational teaching and learning by one of the foremost adult educators of our time. Parker J. Palmer, author The Courage to Teach, Let Your Life Speak, and The Heart of Higher Education.

The Cinema of Generation X Peter Hanson, 2010-06-28 When Steven Soderbergh exploded onto movie screens with sex, lies, and videotape in 1989, it represented more than the arrival of an important new director; it heralded the arrival of an entire generation of important new directors. Quentin Tarantino, Pulp Fiction; Kevin Smith, Dogma; David Fincher, Fight Club; M. Night Shyamalan, The Sixth Sense; Ben Stiller, Reality Bites; Michael Bay, Pearl Harbor; and dozens of others are all members of Generation X, the much-talked-about but much-misunderstood successors to baby boomers. This book is a critical study of the films directed by Gen Xers and how those directors have been influenced by their generational identity. While Generation X as a whole sometimes seems to lack direction, its filmmakers have devoted their careers to making powerful statements about contemporary society and their generation's role in it. Each section of the book deals with an aspect of Gen X filmmaking, including the influence of popular culture, postmodern narrative devices, slackerdom, and the lack of direction, disenfranchisement, and nihilism; the ever-evolving role of technology; gender issues and sexuality; the question of race; the influence of older filmmakers; and visions of the future.

Fictions of Integration Naomi Lesley, 2017-03-03 This book examines how children's and young adult literature addresses and interrogates the legacies of American school desegregation. Such literature narrates not only the famous battles to implement desegregation in the South in places like

Little Rock Arkansas but also more insidious and less visible legacies such as re segregation within schools through the mechanism of disability diagnosis Novelizations of children s experiences with school desegregation comment upon the politics of getting African American children access to white schools but more than this as school stories they also comment upon how structural racism operates in the classroom and mutates over the course of decades through the pedagogical practices depicted in literature for young readers Lesley combines approaches from critical race theory disability studies and educational philosophy in order to investigate how the educational market simultaneously constrains how racism in schools can be presented to young readers and also provides channels for radical critiques of pedagogy and visions of alternative systems The volume examines a range of titles from novels that directly engage the Brown v Board of Education decision such as Sharon Draper s Fire From the Rock and Dorothy Sterling s Mary Jane to novels that engage less obvious legacies of desegregation such as Cynthia Voigt s Dicey s Song Sharon Flake s Pinned Virginia Hamilton s The Planet of Junior Brown and Louis Sachar s Holes This book will be of interest to scholars of American studies children s literature and educational philosophy and history

Southerners on Film Andrew B. Leiter,2011-08-31 The representation of Southerners on film has been a topic of enduring interest and debate among scholars of both film and Southern studies These 15 essays examine the problem of Southern identity in film since the civil rights era Fresh insights are provided on such familiar topics as the redneck image transitions to modernity and the prevalence of the Southern gothic Other essays reflect the reinvigorated and expanding field of new Southern studies and topics include the transnational South the intersection of ethnicity and environment and the cultural significance of Southern identity outside the South
