Transformative Talk Gavin Grift, 2014-12-03 Transformative Talk assists an aspirant Coach in building their personal capabilities. It draws upon each of the insights and experiences of Cognitive Coaching Training Associates and Agency Trainers who are making it work. Each chapter at varying degrees reflects personal journeys shared with the explicit intention to assist you the reader in making connections to your own work and your growth as a coach. The material has been strategically selected to support educators who fulfill a variety of different roles. You will find information, insights, and strategies to assist your growth from a variety of perspectives. These include reflections to assist classroom teachers, school leaders and principals, support staff, coaches, systems leaders, and researchers. It encourages you to unleash the power of Cognitive Coaching for the students and colleagues you work with and in your ongoing goal to build both your identity and capacity as a mediator of thinking. Talking is critical to the complex, challenging, and intrinsically satisfying work of educators. This book provides the reader with the opportunity to continue transforming their talk so they can transform the thinking of others in the process of education.

Unlocking your Potential Christina E Foxwell, 2022-08-17 Christina E Foxwell's life can be defined as a series of hardships setbacks and decisions made from fear or to meet the expectations others had of her The daughter of a Pentecostal minister the South African born author Mother wife daughter grandmother business woman and Performance Transformation coach allowed other's opinions of her no matter how wrong or cruel to define who she was as a young child young woman and ultimately well into adulthood Thus began a lifetime of self doubt shame and self sabotage Often overlooked and underappreciated she learned early on that her innermost thoughts and dreams and even her well being weren't of much importance to those around her She was often ridiculed for her thoughts and perceived bad behavior She had to cope with name calling cruel taunts and scorn for even minor infractions or for no reason at all In time Christina did what so many in her situation would've done She donned a proverbial shield of armor to protect herself from pain just to get through day to day life and have some semblance of a life even if it wasn't of her own design How she saw herself was shaped by what others said about her and how they treated her The Glass Angel details the years she lived under the weight of those unfounded and incredibly harmful notions This book is part memoir part cautionary tale part inspirational how to for anyone who has ever felt like the world was against them In it she shares her journey from the darkest moments of her life to finding herself learning to forgive the past and seek light and clarity and let them lead the way forward Her story will open your eyes and mind to what s possible It proves that even when you are at your absolute lowest and fear you ll never find your way out of despair shame or a lifetime of guilt there is hope on the other side While there are many reasons for her to feel sorry for herself she chose another path one that helped her heal from the trauma and discover who she was and what she had to do to feel comfortable in her skin and heal from all the things that weighed her down for years She found a path forward She made a pact with herself to stop living the life of a broken angel and embrace what she calls her alchemy That s how this book came to be It s her way of helping others who ve known pain and made it to the other side She is giving readers permission to not only survive but thrive by igniting their own alchemy and using it to transform their lives from the inside out

Evocative Coaching Bob Tschannen-Moran, Megan Tschannen-Moran, 2010-06-18 There s a lot of conversation about how to make schools better Unfortunately the nature of those conversations often makes things worse Evocative Coaching Transforming Schools One Conversation at a Time maps out a way to change that By taking a teacher centered no fault strengths based approach to performance improvement the Evocative Coaching model generates the motivation and movement that enables teachers and schools to achieve desired outcomes and enhance quality of life Viewed as a dynamic dance the model is choreographed in four steps Story Empathy Inquiry Design which are each laid out in its own chapter with powerful illustrative materials and end of chapter discussion questions to prompt further reflection Bringing together the best research and wisdom in educational leadership and professional coaching authors Bob and Megan Tschannen Moran have developed a simple yet profound way of facilitating new conversations in schools through Story Listening Expressing Empathy Appreciative Inquiry and Design Thinking It s an iterative process that moves beyond old ways of thinking doing and being It s an inspirational process that reinvigorates the passion for making schools better one conversation at a time This happens when coaches give teachers our full undivided attention accept and meet teachers where they are right now without making them wrong ask and trust teachers to take charge of their own learning and growth make sure teachers are talking more than we are enable teachers to appreciate the positive value of their own experiences harness the strengths teachers have to meet challenges and overcome obstacles reframe difficulties and challenges as opportunities to learn and grow invite teachers to discover possibilities and find answers for themselves dialogue with teachers regarding their higher purpose for teaching uncover teachers natural impulse to engage with colleagues and students assist teachers to draw up a personal blueprint for professional mastery support teachers in brainstorming and trying new ways of doing things maintain an upbeat energetic and positive attitude at all times collaborate with teachers to design and conduct appropriate learning experiments enable teachers to build supportive environments and teams use humor to lighten the load and inspire and challenge teachers to go beyond what they would do alone Each chapter provides a research based theory to support the strategies presented and includes specific suggestions and anecdotes The Evocative Coaching model makes coaching enjoyable by getting people to focus on what they do best and it invites larger more integral conversations so that people talk about their work in the context of other things they care about Resting on strong evidence based practices the Evocative Coaching model offers educators the help they need to meet the challenges of increased accountability and expectations This model can also be used effectively by coaches and leaders in other organizational contexts Table of Contents Chapter 1 What Is Evocative Coaching Chapter 2 Coaching Presence Loop I The No Fault Turn Chapter 3 Story Listening Chapter 4 Expressing Empathy Loop II The Strengths Building Turn Chapter 5 Appreciative Inquiry Chapter 6 Design Thinking Chapter 7 Aligning Environments Chapter 8 Coaching Conversations Chapter 9 The Reflective Coach To learn more about Evocative Coaching and to sign up for the Evocative Coach Training Program visit www.SchoolTransformation.com How To Build

A Personal Brand That People Remember Bhavik Sarkhedi,Sahil Gandhi,2025-06-18 Studies in behavioral science show that people are 80 percent more likely to trust a name they recognize even if they can't recall where they first heard it That familiarity creates a kind of soft gravity pulling attention without demand Fingers run over the raised letters of a business card tracing the edges of something once unfamiliar The ink on a contract smells fresh yet the journey behind it is old A book opens to a page marked by someone who once read your words and saw themselves in them A notification blinks One then another then too many to count Loud voices fade quickly The ones that stay are the ones that settle into the right spaces the ones that arrive before you do They are carried not by force but by the weight of what they hold Some names pass like footprints on the shore washed away before they can be seen Others remain carved into stone spoken long after the voice that carried them has gone silent The only question is when your name is spoken what will it bring to the mind that hears it How To Build A Personal Brand That People Remember A name carries weight when something stands behind it Without substance it drifts passing through conversations without settling People hear but nothing stays The ones remembered are the ones who leave something behind An idea a solution or a shift in perspective A tree stands tall because its roots dig deep into the earth A name moves the same way Visibility means little unless there is depth beneath it A face can be seen a voice can be heard but if nothing stays after the noise fades presence disappears like footprints in the sand Recognition builds over time A great post a viral video a strong introduction these are sparks Sparks catch attention but fire lasts when there is something to burn A name becomes steady when it carries trust when people hear it and know exactly what stands behind it
