Trevor Manuel Marriage:

Choice Not Fate The Life and Times of Trevor Manuel Pippa Green, 2012-10-09 Trevor Manuel became South Africa's first black finance minister in 1996 a time when the economy threatened to spiral into a debt trap It took five years before Manuel could present his first good news Budget in Parliament He described that Budget as a tale of irrevocable and powerful transformation a tale of patience and obstinacy of determination and hope Of choice not fate He could have been telling the tale of his own life Born into a working class family on the Cape Flats his family's story embodied the fate that befell thousands of people classified coloured under apartheid Homes lived in and lost under the cruel Group Areas Act a mother who struggled to bring up her children on a garment worker's wages clashes with gangsters who roamed the streets of the Flats a truncated education Manuel stared down fate and internecine Western Cape politics to become one of the most prominent anti apartheid leaders in the internal resistance movement of the 1980s He confronted apartheid's police and prisons with a boldness that sometimes bordered on recklessness After Nelson Mandela was released from prison in 1990 Manuel rose quickly through the ranks of the African National Congress becoming a member of Mandela's first cabinet When Mandela appointed him minister of finance in 1996 business leaders sneered at his lack of qualifications and experience When he drove through a tough macroeconomic plan in a post apartheid South Africa some of his own constituency turned on him Obstinate and patient he saw out the worst until the economy began to turn Under his stewardship South Africa entered its longest growth period ever By 2007 he was the world's longest serving minister of finance and across the world the most respected African finance minister Hits and Missives Ben Trovato, 2006 Wildly hilarious and almost too outrageous to believe the correspondence of South Africa's most famous humor writer has now been compiled into one volume comprised of the author's and fans favorite letters Assembled from his three previous compilations this newest volume is a greatest hits of the riotous letters Ben Trovato has addressed to the rich and powerful abroad and the sidesplitting responses he received Sometimes shocking yet always funny this collected works is Trovato at his best Winnie and Nelson Jonny Steinberg, 2025-06-10 A NATIONAL BOOK CRITICS CIRCLE AWARD WINNER THE SUNDAY TIMES LITERARY AWARD WINNER AN LA TIMES BOOK PRIZE FINALIST A WASHINGTON POST AND NEW YORKER 2023 BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR A deeply researched shattering new account of Nelson Mandela's relationship with Winnie Madikizela Mandela that does justice both to the couple's political heroism and to the betrayals and the secrets that hounded their union The New Yorker Drawing on never before seen material Steinberg one of South Africa's foremost nonfiction writers reveals the fractures and stubborn bonds at the heart of a volatile and groundbreaking union a very modern political marriage that played out on the world stage Powerful intimate The Washington Post One of the most celebrated political leaders of a century Nelson Mandela has been written about by many But in one crucial area his life remains largely untold his marriage to Winnie Madikizela Mandela During his years in prison Nelson grew ever more in love with an idealized version of his wife

courting her in his letters as if they were young lovers frozen in time But Winnie every bit his political equal found herself increasingly estranged from her jailed husband's politics Behind his back she was trying to orchestrate an armed seizure of power a path he feared would lead to endless civil war Jonny Steinberg tells the tale of this unique marriage its longings its obsessions its deceptions making South African history a page turning political biography Winnie and Nelson is a modern epic in which trauma doesn't affect just the couple at its center but an entire nation It is also a Shakespearean drama in which bonds of love and commitment mingle with timeless questions of revolution such as whether to seek retribution or a negotiated peace Steinberg reveals with power and tender emotional insight how far these forever entwined leaders would go for each other and where they drew the line For in the end both knew theirs was not simply a marriage but a contest to decide how apartheid should be fought

The Zuma Years Richard Calland, 2013-08-16 The face of power in South Africa is rapidly changing for better and for worse The years since Thabo Mbeki was swept aside by Jacob Zuma's coalition of the wounded have been especially tumultuous with the rise and fall of populist politicians such as Julius Malema the terrible events at Marikana and the embarrassing Guptagate scandal What lies behind these developments How does the Zuma presidency exercise its power Who makes our foreign policy What goes on in cabinet meetings What is the state of play in the Alliance is the SACP really more powerful than before And as the landscape shifts what are the opposition's prospects In The Zuma Years Richard Calland attempts to answer these questions and more by holding up a mirror to the new establishment by exploring how people such as Malema Chief Justice Mogoeng Mogoeng and DA parliamentary leader Lindiwe Mazibuko have risen so fast by examining key drivers of transformation in South Africa such as the professions and the universities and by training a spotlight on the toxic mix of money and politics The Zuma Years is a fly on the wall insider's approach to the people who control the power that affects us all It takes you along the corridors of government and corporate power mixing solid research with vivid anecdote and interviews with key players The result is an accessible yet authoritative account of who runs South Africa and how today

The Stellenbosch Mafia Pieter du Toit, 2019-07-15 About 50km outside of Cape Town lies the beautiful town of Stellenbosch nestled against vineyards and blue mountains that stretch to the sky Here reside some of South Africa's wealthiest individuals all male all Afrikaans and all stinking rich Johann Rupert Jannie Mouton Markus Jooste and Christo Weise to name a few Julius Malema refers to them scathingly as The Stellenbosch Mafia the very worst example of white monopoly capital But who really are these mega wealthy individuals and what influence do they exert not only on Stellenbosch but more broadly on South African society Author Pieter du Toit begins by exploring the roots of Stellenbosch one of the wealthiest towns in South Africa and arguably the cradle of Afrikanerdom This is the birthplace of apartheid leaders intellectuals newspaper empires and more He then closely examines this club of billionaires Who are they and crucially how are they connected What network of boardroom membership alliances and family connections exist Who are the old guard and who are the inkommers and what about the youngsters desperate to make their mark He looks at the collapse of Steinhoff what went wrong and whether there are other companies at risk of a similar fate He examines the control these men have over cultural life including pulling the strings in South Africa rugby S.A. Politics: Unspun Stephen Grootes, In SA Politics Unspun premier SA political commentator Stephen Grootes cuts through the incomprehensible political spin and media coverage out there to provide an accessible attractive easy to read road map to South African politics The entries are short and punchy covering the basic structures of South African politics Constitution Parliament Presidency Cabinet etc the major parties and players from Aaron Motsoaledi to Helen Zille and Jacob Zuma and the critical controversies that define our current political landscape Nkandla the Arms Deal and the Secrecy Bill Key elements are the even handed predictions for our political future and the patented Stephen Grootes Power Ratios which rate our leading politicians by the power they wield and the moral authority they enjoy With innovative colour design to back up Grootes entertaining opinion and insight this is the must have political read in the run up to National Elections 2014 Everyday Habits for Transforming Systems Adam Kahane, 2025-04-08 Revolutionize Your World The Power of Radical Engagement In a world crying out for change Everyday Habits for Transforming Systems is your guidebook for action Adam Kahane the best selling author of Collaborating with the Enemy and a global authority on solving tough problems delivers game changing advice for anyone ready to make a difference This is a manifesto for world changers Drawing on decades of work with leaders from national and organizational presidents to front line managers and grass roots activists Kahane distills seven potent habits that enable ordinary citizens to become extraordinary agents of transformation Imagine Cracking open entrenched systems with simple actions Collaborating across deep divides to achieve the impossible Uncovering hidden leverage points others miss Persevering through setbacks with renewed purpose and energy Through riveting real world examples Kahane shows how these habits have sparked revolutions brokered peace and reimaged societies Now he s handing you the keys to that transformative power Whether you re battling climate change reinventing healthcare or simply trying to make your community better this book is your essential guide It s time to stop feeling powerless and start creating the change you want to see Don t just survive in a changing world step in to transform it Planet Patriarchy Beatrix Campbell, Rahila Gupta, 2025-07-17 In 1995 the UN vowed to advance equality development and peace for all women everywhere Instead in the Beijing Declaration s thirtieth anniversary year the world is lurching dangerously away from such democratic and progressive ideals reinventing nationalist identities based on toxic masculine values and embracing economic policies against women s interests This reality exists in every type of country Why does oppression rather than feminism still dominate our world This book reveals patriarchy's many faces in the age of globalisation exploring the political systems and cultures of eight very different societies It takes readers from the extraordinary anti capitalist women's revolution in Kurdistan to the theocracies of Islamic State and Saudi Arabia from China's one party state to Iceland's democracy and to South Africa Russia and El Salvador all radically changed since the fall of apartheid communism and military dictatorship respectively Despite patriarchy's remarkable shapeshifting powers to undermine feminist solidarity Planet Patriarchy is equally a story of sisterhood and resistance interviewing defenders of women's rights about their cause and their country Gender inequality endures everywhere but so does feminism Campbell and Gupta's fascinating discoveries show us how this timeless showdown is taking shape in and being shaped by the systems we live under today Drum, 2009 Nelson Mandela

Elleke Boehmer, 2023-09-12 Very Short Introductions Brilliant Sharp Inspiring A pathbreaking analysis of the relationship between Mandela the myth and Mandela the historical figure looking at the way images stories and politics have been combined to create the iconic image of Mandela that we know today Boehmer explores the long trajectory of Mandela's life explaining first the historical and political context of the struggle against apartheid in South Africa and then the post apartheid period of difficult reconciliation including the shifts and changes in Mandela's reputation since the millennium This innovative postcolonial reflection takes on board the more critical revisionist literature on Mandela that has emerged since 2015 looking at responses to his death in 2013 and the 2018 commemorations of the 100th anniversary of his birth The first edition set a trend in scholarship on Mandela by reading his character and achievements through the lens of his influences interests and leading ideas The second edition extends this focus with a far reaching critical look at meanings of reconciliation and Mandela's ethic of reciprocity ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable Prison Letters Nelson Mandela, 2019-08-13 Heartbreaking and inspiring Nelson Mandela's Prison Letters reveals his evolution into one of the great moral heroes of our time New York Times First published to mark the centenary of Nelson Mandela's birth The Prison Letters of Nelson Mandela sparked celebrations around the globe for one of the greatest warriors of all time O The Oprah Magazine Featuring 94 letters selected from that landmark collection as well as six new letters that have never been published this historic paperback provides an essential political history of the late twentieth century and illustrates how Mandela maintained his inner spirit while imprisoned Whether they're longing love letters to his wife Winnie heartrending notes to his beloved children or articulations of a human rights philosophy that resonates today these letters reveal the heroism of a man who refused to compromise his moral values in the face of extraordinary human punishment invoking a story beyond their own words New York Times This new paperback edition essential for any literature lover political activist and student positions Mandela among the most inspiring historical figures of the twentieth century      South Africa's Brave New World R. W. Johnson, 2010 The universal jubilation that greeted Nelson Mandela's inauguration as president of South Africa in 1994 and the process by which the nightmare of apartheid had been banished is one of the most thrilling hopeful stories in the modern era peaceful rational change was possible and as with the fall of the Berlin Wall the weight of an oppressive history was suddenly lifted R W Johnson's major new book tells the story of South Africa from that magic period to the bitter disappointment of the present As it turned out it was not so easy for South Africa to shake off its past The profound damage of apartheid meant there was not an adequate educated black middle class to run the new state and apartheid had done great psychological harm too issues that no amount of goodwill could wish away Equally damaging were the new leaders many of whom had lived in exile or in prison for much of their adult lives and who tried to impose decrepit Eastern Bloc political ideas on a world that had long moved on This disastrous combination has had a terrible impact it poisoned everything from big business to education to energy utilities to AIDS policy to relations with Zimbabwe At the heart of the book lies the ruinous figure of Thabo Mbeki whose over reaching ambitions led to catastrophic failure on almost every front But as Johnson makes clear Mbeki may have contributed more than anyone else to bringing South Africa close to failed state status but he had plenty of help      South Africa News Update , 1997 Consists of reproductions of articles from South African newspapers      Stewart's Quotable Africa Julia Stewart, 2012-10-02 The African continent is home to spectacularly expressive human beings rebellious anti colonial and opposition leaders eloquent novelists political and social activists comical geniuses pensive and philosophical poets and intellectuals as well as a few raving dictators And the body of proverbial wisdom from Africa alone could fill many volumes Despite being eminently quotable Africa is not so readily quoted Stewart's Quotable Africa covers the whole of Africa north to south and east to west and includes memorable statements from hundreds of speakers including Nelson Mandela Doris Lessing Chinua Achebe Julius Nyerere Kofi Annan among others as well as biblical passages and proverbs Julia Stewart has spent over a decade collecting the 5000 plus quotes found in this book all of them either by Africans or about African subjects      Strike a Woman, Strike a Rock Barbara Hutmacher MacLean, 2004 A trenchant and compelling book that reveals a cross section of South African women who have been part of the courageous struggle against apartheid The women talk of the past the violent years leading to change their roles in the new government and their hopes for the future These women include black women who risked death and torture by opposing the government's racial laws and white women who openly protested the same policies which gave them privilege and as they speak about their fight for freedom it is apparent that South Africa would not have evolved as it has without them      Looting Africa Patrick Bond, 2013-04-04 Despite the rhetoric the people of Sub Saharan Africa are become poorer From Tony Blair's Africa Commission and the Make Poverty History campaign to the Hong Kong WTO meeting Africa's gains have been mainly limited to public relations The central problems remain exploitative debt and financial relationships with the North phantom aid unfair trade distorted investment and the continent's brain skills drain Moreover capitalism in most African countries has witnessed the emergence of excessively powerful ruling elites with incomes derived from financial parasitical accumulation Without overstressing the mistakes of such elites this book contextualises Africa's wealth outflow within a stagnant but volatile world economy South African Labour Bulletin, 2005

In the Words of South African Struggle Heroes George Claassen, 2012-09-27 We have lost a lot of freedom in the past 30 years But it's only when we don't stand up for it that we lose all Alan Paton teacher author and liberal politician 1978 If it is for the truth that I must die so let it be Joe Seremane political prisoner later Democratic Alliance chairperson In Africa things sometimes happen upside down Such as the sun first had to set on the continent before it rose and not the other way around Mathews Phosa ANC exile politician and Afrikaans poet

Rabble-Rouser for Peace John Allen, 2006-10-03 South African journalist John Allen movingly captures Desmond Tutu's life in a commanding story that sheds light on the struggles and triumphs leading up to Tutu's Nobel Prize for his leadership in the resistance against apartheid in South Africa To be a rabble rouser for peace may seem to be a contradiction in terms And yet it is the perfect description for Desmond Tutu Nobel laureate and spiritual father of a democratic South Africa Tutu understood that justice a genuine regard for human rights is the only real foundation for peace So he stirred up trouble courageously engaging in heated face to face confrontations with South Africa's leaders he stirred up trouble in the streets leading peaceful demonstrations amid the barely controlled fury of police battalions he stirred up trouble on the world stage seeking international disinvestment in the apartheid economy Tutu has led one of the great lives of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries and to read his story in full is to be reminded of the power of one inspired man to change history In this authorized biography written by John Allen a distinguished journalist and longtime associate of Tutu we are witnesses to courage stirring oratory and a demonstration of the power of faith to transform the seemingly intransigent Through the author's personal experiences total access to the Tutu family and their papers and considerable research including the use of new archival material Allen tells the story of a barefoot schoolboy from a deprived black township who became an international symbol of the democratic spirit and of religious faith
