

SHORT OPENING PRAYER FOR FUNERAL

“Dear God,

Thank You for putting Your Son as an everlasting example of eternal life even after death. As we gather here today to celebrate the life of our deceased dear one, (say their name), we welcome Your Holy Spirit to walk with us and strengthen our hearts.

Even as we mourn, may You cover our entire family with the blood of Jesus Christ and grant us the courage to face life after loss.

Thank You, Father, for hearing us.

Amen”

Opening Prayers For Christian Memorial Service:

Christian Funerals Andy Langford, 2010-12-01 Unlike weddings funerals rarely take place after extensive planning Often the deceased is not someone the pastor has known well and preparations for the service of death and resurrection take place in the midst of pastoral care of the grieving writing the funeral sermon and the pastor's regular duties These circumstances make it especially hard to plan an appropriate and meaningful order of worship for the funeral service Christian Funerals will help pastors as they attend to this crucial ministry of the church Drawing on the books of worship from a number of denominations and traditions it provides several options for each of the elements of the funeral service from gathering texts to opening prayers to scripture lessons to final prayers The book is bound in a way that makes it suitable for use at church services and at the grave side

New SCM Dictionary of Liturgy and Worship Paul F. Bradshaw, 2013-05-20 This reference work incorporates the insights and expertise of leading liturgists and scholars of liturgy at work today comprising 200 entries on important topics in the field from vestments and offertories to ordination and divine unction It is systematically organized and alphabetically arranged for ease of use It also includes comprehensive bibliographies and reading lists to bring the work fully up to date and to encourage further reading and research

To God Alone be Glory Harold M. Daniels, 2003-01-01 In To God Alone Be Glory the fruit of extensive study and research Harold Daniels tells the fascinating story of the history of Reformed worship in America from the 1600s to the present He describes the development and objectives of the Book of Common Worship and explores how the book itself serves as an agenda for liturgical reform within the church In a substantive second part of the book Daniels provides the sources of the prayers and other materials used in the Book of Common Worship Persons involved in planning presenting studying or teaching about Presbyterian worship will benefit greatly from having a copy of this comprehensive resource in their personal library

The Funeral Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), 1986-01-01 This liturgical resource will help guide pastors and other church workers as they help church members through the bereavement process The Presbyterian Supplemental Liturgical Resource SLT series includes liturgies that were used on a trial basis in preparation for the development of the Book of Common Worship Though superseded by the Book of Common Worship SLR resources remain valuable both for the variety of liturgical texts they contain and for the commentary on the text which contains rich historical theological and practical background

Death Liturgy and Ritual Paul P.J. Sheppy, 2017-07-05 Death Liturgy and Ritual is a two volume study of Christian funerary theology and practice presenting an invaluable account of funeral rites and the central issues involved for compilers and users Paul Sheppy writes from direct experience of conducting funerals and of drafting liturgical resources for others In Volume II A Commentary on Liturgical Texts reviews a wide range of current Christian funeral rites and examines how they reflect both the Church's concern for the death and resurrection of Christ and the contemporary secular demand for funerals which celebrate the life of the deceased The companion volume Volume I A Pastoral and Liturgical Theology proposes that the Church ought to construct its theological agenda in dialogue with other fields of study Sheppy argues for a Christian statement about death that finds its basis in the Paschal Mystery since human death must be explained by reference to Jesus' death, descent to the dead and resurrection Using the three phases of van Gennep's theory of rites of passage the author shows how the Easter triduum may be seen as normative for Christian liturgies of death

Encounters for Change Dagmar Grefe, 2011-11-14 Weaving together insights from social psychology, theology and experiences of interfaith religious leaders Dagmar Grefe develops practical strategies that support interreligious contact at a grassroots level She shows that by working together religious communities can more effectively address global and local problems that all people face poverty, environmental destruction and armed conflict Grefe describes interreligious cooperation at work in local communities She develops tools that equip religious leaders with the interreligious competence needed for spiritual care and counseling with individual persons in crisis Cooperation is not only effective in the care for communities and persons in crisis it also heals distant and strained interreligious relationships In the process of working together perceptions of each other can transform

In Sure and Certain Hope Paul Sheppy, 2013-01-25 This wide ranging collection of prayers, readings and alternative service outlines provides a complete liturgical and pastoral resource for a time when intensive personal support is needed Here are forms of words for every stage in the process that follows a death from the immediate aftermath to conducting a memorial service Simple prayers and a choice of readings from scripture, poetry, literature and popular culture provide words when our own vocabularies fail

Together for A Season Gillian Ambrose, 2009 The third volume of the Together for a Season series helping church leaders use the Common Worship seasonal liturgy in an all age context This volume provides all age service resources for the Agricultural Year, All Saints Remembrance Sunday and major saints days
