Bodymods (Part One) Zoe Brown, 2025-02-19 One hundred years in the future forty seven year old AUGUST HALL known as Typhon to his fellow runners is a scav or scavenger salvaging the ruins of old New York for luxury items and consumer goods left behind amid the wave of Climate Collapse related Megastorm disasters that destroyed the old city beginning in the middle of the Twenty First Century He sells what he finds to a black market exchange within the seedy underbelly of New Manhattan a climate shielded bubble city in which tens of millions of survivors now reside in order to pay down his debt to one wealthy and conniving underworld magnate named TYCHO MORELLO the head of the powerful Genovese Exchange He is poor a member of the lowest rung of the social order within this brave new world and has lived a life of deprivation and dashed hopes for all of his nearly five full decades of life But then while on a scavenging run outside the New City late one night in the midst of a Megastorm August comes across a find of rare and wondrous possibility a decades old NuLife Bodymod Bio Augment the sort of once experimental DNA re writing and AI fueled body altering nano technology that could completely transform a person into somebody new anybody whom that person wanted to be Older younger taller shorter fitter stronger more handsome whatever one desires Initially intending to sell the Bodymods device on consignment to the black market exchange to which he is under contract in repayment of his debt August suddenly has a change of heart Driven by thoughts of a gorgeous and enchanting inky blue black haired female nightclub singer and lounge hostess whom he has long harbored a secret passion for the experienced scavenger decides to hold onto the remarkable bit of body altering technology which he has recovered and to use it on himself hoping to transform himself into the sort of tall and strong far younger looking and more ruggedly handsome version of himself that he imagines will be able to seduce the lovely MINA away from her dastardly devious employer lover Tycho Morello Unfortunately after programming the AI Interface for the device and attaching it to the back of his neck later on that evening before dropping off to sleep August wakes up on the following morning to discover that things have NOT AT ALL gone according to plan Roughly 32 000 words in length Bodymods Part One is the first installment in a sexy new on going serial story about Slow Gradual Unintended Gender Transformation Feminization and Titillating Self Discovery via Experimental Futuristic AI Body Altering Technologies Readers should be advised that the main character s transformation into a woman merely begins in this installment and will not be completed until later in the series No AI was used in the production of this title I hope you enjoy yourself The Feminization of Quest-Romance Dana A. Heller, 2014-03-19 What happens when a woman dares to imagine herself a hero Questing she sets out for unknown regions Lighting a torch she elicits from the darkness stories never told or heard before The woman hero sails against the tides of great legends that recount the adventures of heroic men legends deemed universal timeless and essential to our understanding of the natural order that holds us and completes us in its spiral Yet these myths and rituals do not fulfill her need for an empowering self image nor do they grant her the mobility she requires to imagine enact and represent her quest for authentic self knowledge The Feminization of Quest Romance proposes that a female quest is a revolutionary step in both literary and cultural terms Indeed despite the difficulty that women writers face in challenging myths rituals psychological theories and literary conventions deemed universal by a culture that exalts masculine ideals and universalizes male experience a number of revolutionary texts have come into existence in the second half of the twentieth century by such American women writers as Jean Stafford Mary McCarthy Anne Moody Marilynne Robinson and Mona Simpson all of them working to redefine the literary portrayal of American women s quests They work in part by presenting questing female characters who refuse to accept the roles accorded them by restrictive social norms even if it means sacrificing themselves in the name of rebellion In later texts female heroes survive their lighting out experiences to explore diverse alternatives to the limiting roles that have circumscribed female development This study of The Mountain Lion Memories of a Catholic Girlhood Coming of Age in Mississippi Housekeeping and Anywhere but Here identifies transformations of the quest romance that support a viable theory of female development and offer literary patterns that challenge the male monopoly on transformative knowledge and heroic action

Becoming Jaycee Faye Valentine, Going into the hospital for a routine appendectomy Jayden woke feeling as if he had been hit by a train Aching head to toe it took a while for his heavily medicated mind to clear enough to know something was wrong That s when Nurse Aimee Parker entered to deliver the horrible news Due to his charts being mixed up with another patient and a series of mistakes Jayden underwent gender reassignment facial feminization and vocal cord surgeries transitioning him into a woman

The Gender of Modernity Rita FELSKE, 2009-06-30 In an innovative and invigorating exploration of the complex relations between women and the modern Rita Felski challenges conventional male centered theories of modernity She also calls into question those feminist perspectives that have either demonized the modern as inherently patriarchal or else assumed a simple opposition between men s and women s experiences of the modern world Combining cultural history with cultural theory and focusing on the fin de si cle Felski examines the gendered meanings of such notions as nostalgia consumption feminine writing the popular sublime evolution revolution and perversion Her approach is comparative and interdisciplinary covering a wide variety of texts from the English French and German traditions sociological theory realist and naturalist novels decadent literature political essays and speeches sexological discourse and sentimental popular fiction Male and female writers from Simmel Zola Sacher Masoch and Rachilde to Marie Corelli Wilde and Olive Schreiner come under Felski s scrutiny as she exposes the varied and often contradictory connections between femininity and modernity Seen through the lens of Felski s discerning eye the last fin de si cle provides illuminating parallels with our own And Felski s keen analysis of the matrix of modernism offers needed insight into the sense of cultural crisis brought on by postmodernism

Sexual Symmetry David Konstan, 2014-07-14 In the Greek romances writes David Konstan sighs tears and suicide attempts are as characteristic of the male as of the female in distress ruses disguises and outright violence in defense of one s chastity are as much the part of the female as of the male Exploring how erotic love is represented in ancient amatory literature Konstan points to the symmetry in the passion of the hero and heroine as a unique feature of the Greek novel they fall mutually in love they are of approximately the same age and social class and their reciprocal attachment ends in marriage He shows how the plots of the novels are perfectly adapted to expressing this symmetry and how because of their structure they differ from classical epic elegy comedy tragedy and other genres including modern novels ranging from Sidney to Harlequin romances Using works like Chaereas and Callirhoe and Daphnis and Chloe Konstan examines such issues as pederasty the role of eros in both marital and nonmarital love and the ancient Greek concept of fidelity He reveals how the novelistic formula of sexual symmetry reverses the pattern of all other ancient genres where erotic desire appears one sided and unequal and is often viewed as either a weakness or an aggressive conquering power Konstan's approach draws upon theories concerning the nature of sexuality in the ancient world reflected in the work of Michel Foucault David Halperin and John Winkler Originally published in 1993 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Premodern Sexualities Louise Fradenburg, Carla Freccero, 2013-12-02 Premodern Sexualities offers rigorous new approaches to current problems in the historiography of sexuality From queer readings of early modern medical texts to transcribing and interrogating premodern documents of sexual transgression the contributors bring together current theoretical discourses on sexuality while emphasizing problems in the historicist interpretation of early textualizations of sexuality Premodern Sexualities clarifies the contributions literary studies can make through its emphasis on reading strategies to the historiography of sexuality

The Shapes of Early English Poetry Eric Weiskott, Irina Dumitrescu, 2019-04-01 This volume contributes to the study of early English poetics In these essays several related approaches and fields of study radiate outward from poetics including stylistics literary history word studies gender studies metrics and textual criticism By combining and redirecting these traditional scholarly methods as well as exploring newer ones such as object oriented ontology and sound studies these essays demonstrate how poetry responds to its intellectual literary and material contexts The contributors propose to connect the small syllables words and phrases to the large histories emotions faiths secrets In doing so they attempt to work magic on the texts they consider turning an ordinary word into something strange and new or demonstrating texture difference and horizontality where previous eyes had perceived only smoothness sameness and verticality

Radical Eroticism Rachel Middleman, 2018-01-16 In the 1960s the fascination with erotic art generated a wave of exhibitions and critical discussion on sexual freedom visual pleasure and the nude in contemporary art Radical Eroticism examines the importance of women's contributions in fundamentally reconfiguring representations of sexuality across several areas of advanced art performance pop postminimalism and beyond This study shows that erotic art made by women was integral to the profound changes that took place in American art during the sixties from the crumbling of modernist aesthetics and the expanding field of art practice to the emergence of the feminist art movement Artists Carolee Schneemann Martha Edelheit Marjorie Strider Hannah Wilke and Anita Steckel created works that exemplify these innovative approaches to the erotic exploring female sexual subjectivities and destabilizing assumptions about gender Rachel Middleman reveals these artists radical interventions in both aesthetic conventions and social norms American Anatomies Robyn Wiegman,1995 In this brilliantly combative study Robyn Wiegman challenges contemporary clichés about race and gender a formulation that is itself a cliché in need of questioning As part of what she calls her feminist disloyalty she turns a critical even skeptical eye on current debates about multiculturalism and difference while simultaneously exposing the many ways in which white racial supremacy has been reconfigured since the institutional demise of segregation Most of all she examines the hypocrisy and contradictoriness of over a century of narratives that posit Anglo Americans as heroic agents of racism's decline Whether assessing Uncle Tom's Cabin lynching Leslie Fiedler's racist mapping of the American novel the Black Power movement of the 60s 80s buddy films or the novels of Richard Wright and Toni Morrison Wiegman unflinchingly confronts the paradoxes of both racism and antiracist agendas including those advanced from a feminist perspective American Anatomies takes the long view What epistemological frameworks allowed the West from the Renaissance forward to schematize racial and gender differences and to create social hierarchies based on these differences How have those epistemological regimes changed and not changed over time Where are we now With painstaking care political passion and intellectual daring Wiegman analyzes the biological and cultural bases of racial and gender bias in order to reinvigorate the discussion of identity politics She concludes that for very different reasons identity proves to be dangerous to minority and majority alike Explicit Utopias Amalia Ziv,2015-07-06 Provides an incisive account of women's porn and queer porn of the 1980s and 1990s Explicit Utopias explores a problem that has long haunted feminist lesbian and queer critics the obstacles to imagining women's desire and sexual agency Pornography is one arena in which women have actively sought to imaginatively overcome this problem yet pornography has also been an object of passionate feminist contention Revisiting the feminist sex wars of the 1980s Amalia Ziv offers a comprehensive and thoughtful reassessment of the arguments and concerns of both camps tying these early debates to the contemporary surge of concern over the pornification of culture She also sets out to rectify the lack of critical attention to marginal sexual representations by examining the feminist queer and psychoanalytic literature on several key issues including fantasy the phallus identification and gender performativity Men Trapped in Men's Bodies Anne A. Lawrence,2012-12-09 There are few topics in sex research as compelling and confounding to researchers clinicians and the general public as that of transsexualism Upending normative notions of gender eroticism and identity it poses significant scientific and clinical challenges The book addresses a fascinating and largely unexplored topic within the study of transsexualism The feelings and desires of conventionally masculine men who are attracted to women yet want to become women themselves Through a collection and discussion of vivid first person narratives the book provides an in depth examination of these men s unusual propensity to be sexually aroused by the thought of themselves as women and how these men s sexual feelings influence their decisions to seek or undergo sex reassignment These narratives about autogynephilia by autogynephilic male to female MtF transsexuals provide the first comprehensive documentation of the erotic ideation that underlies the most common form of MtF transsexualism The narratives provide empirical evidence for Blanchard s theory of MtF transsexual motivation and thus are of interest to researchers and theorists studying the phenomenology of MtF transsexualism The narratives are likely to be eye opening to psychologists psychiatrists physicians and other professionals who work with MtF transsexuals Most clinicians probably do not fully appreciate the erotic underpinnings of their clients condition A better understanding of their clients autogynephilic feelings and motivations would enable these professionals to provide more empathetic and effective clinical care

Transgender Psychoanalysis Patricia Gherovici, 2017-07-14 Drawing on the author s clinical work with gender variant patients Transgender Psychoanalysis A Lacanian Perspective on Sexual Difference argues for a depathologizing of the transgender experience while offering an original analysis of sexual difference We are living in a trans moment that has become the next civil rights frontier By unfixing our notions of gender sex and sexual identity challenging normativity and essentialisms trans modalities of embodiment can help reorient psychoanalytic practice This book addresses sexual identity and sexuality by articulating new ideas on the complex relationship of the body to the psyche the precariousness of gender the instability of the male female opposition identity construction uncertainties about sexual choice in short the conundrum of sexual difference Transgender Psychoanalysis features explications of Lacanian psychoanalysis along with considerations on sex and gender in the form of clinical vignettes from Patricia Gherovici's practice as a psychoanalyst The book engages with popular culture and psychoanalytic literature including Jacques Lacan's treatments of two transgender patients and implements close readings uncovering a new ethics of sexual difference These explorations have important implications not just for clinicians in psychoanalysis and mental health practitioners but also for transgender theorists and activists transgender people and professionals in the trans field Transgender Psychoanalysis promises to enrich ongoing discourses on gender sexuality and identity

Universal Women Mark Garrett Cooper, 2010-10-01 A Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2011 Between 1912 and 1919 the Universal Film Manufacturing Company credited eleven women with directing at least 170 films but by the mid 1920s all of these directors had left Universal and only one still worked in the film industry at all Two generations of cinema historians have either overlooked or been stymied by the mystery of why Universal first systematically supported and promoted women directors and then abruptly reversed that policy In this trailblazing study Mark Garrett Cooper approaches the phenomenon as a case study in how corporate movie studios interpret and act on institutional culture in deciding what it means to work as a man or woman In focusing on issues of institutional change Cooper challenges interpretations that explain women's exile from the film industry as the inevitable result of a transhistorical sexism or as an effect of a broadly cultural revision of gendered work roles Drawing on a range of historical and sociological approaches to studying corporate institutions Cooper examines the relationship between institutional organization and aesthetic conventions during the formative years when women filmmakers such as Ruth Ann Baldwin Cleo Madison Ruth Stonehouse Elise Jane Wilson and Ida May Park directed films for Universal

Free Soul, Free Woman? Sandra L. Singer, 1995 In their lifetime Hedwig Dohm 1831-1919 and Helene Bhlau 1856-1940 earned the praise of women's rights activists such as Minna Cauer and Helene Stcker for their contributions to modern women's literature Dohm engaged in debates on the women's movement with Lou Andreas Salom Ellen Key and Laura Marholm Bhlau shocked the reading public with her novel Halbtier in which a woman triumphs after killing an abusive man On the other hand Isolde Kurz 1853-1944 who distanced herself from the women's movement seems the odd woman out Yet boundaries among these writers are more fluid than expected especially in their portrayals of sexuality and spirituality

Emotional, Physical and Sexual Abuse Giovanni Corona, Emmanuele A. Jannini, Mario Maggi, 2024-02-24 This new edition aims to examine the impacts of maltreatment of both children and social minorities such as homosexuals and gender dysphoric individuals or those affected by disabilities in women in patients and describes skills that are of value in supporting victims of maltreatment and preventing discrimination On this purpose the new book is not only an update of the current literature on the topic but will be also enriched by chapters dealing with the subtle border between courtship and harassment with the responsibilities of the health professionals with the role of internet and pornography in the economy of abuses and sexual slavery with forensic aspects of the abuses and with therapy of both suffered and operated sexual violence starting from prevention as social education until medical approaches This new edition will be particularly useful to sexual medicine specialists medical doctors psychologists and psychiatrists as well as graduate students in these disciplines but also to sociologists educators and law professionals By fostering a better understanding of discrimination triggers and effects this new edition will help clinicians and mentors to provide improved support through the tailoring of therapies to the needs of maltreated and abused individuals

Cotton's Queer Relations Michael P. Bibler,2009-02-10 Finally breaking through heterosexual clichés of flirtatious belles and cavaliers sinister black rapists and lusty Jezebels Cotton s Queer Relations exposes the queer dynamics embedded in myths of the southern plantation Focusing on works by Ernest J Gaines William Faulkner Tennessee Williams Lillian Hellman Katherine Anne Porter Margaret Walker William Styron and Arna Bontemps Michael P Bibler shows how each one uses figures of same sex intimacy to suggest a more progressive alternative to the pervasive inequalities tied historically and symbolically to the South s most iconic institution Bibler looks specifically at relationships between white men of the planter class between plantation mistresses and black maids and between black men arguing that while the texts portray the plantation as a rigid hierarchy of differences these queer relations privilege a notion of sexual sameness that joins the individuals as equals in a system where equality is rare indeed Bibler reveals how these models of queer egalitarianism attempt to reconcile the plantation s regional legacies with national debates about equality and democracy particularly during the eras of the New Deal World War II and the civil rights movement Cotton's Queer Relations charts bold new territory in southern studies and queer studies alike bringing together history and cultural theory to offer innovative readings of classic southern texts A book in the American Literatures Initiative ALI a collaborative publishing project supported by The Andrew W Mellon Foundation For more information please visit www.americanliteratures.org
